Veterinary Editor—Geo. Goodrum.
Garden Editor—Ray Ollivant.

NAUGHTY MAN.

An ornery pup is a Marshfield man.
His conduct is distressing;
He went into the kitchen
And watched the salad dressing.

A. E. NEFF.

He rambles thru the house at will
And no one's pardon begs;
He went into the dining room
And saw the table's legs.

—F. D. COHAN.

He prowled around the pantry with
A most offensive air,
And lingered long immodestly
Where all the shelves were bare.

—RAY OLLIVANT.

FOREIGN SOCIETY NOTES.

(Edited by our foreign war correspondent, George Goodrum.)

Emperor William has postponed his trip to Paris for the present.
Czar Nicholas plans a trip to Berlin in the near future.

King George will not entertain Cosin Wilhelm at his country place this fall.

I could tolerate the butcher
And the orders that he brings,
If he wasn't temperamental
And so fond of cutting things.

H. J. M'KEOWN.

PERSONAL MENTION

DAVE STAFFORD is getting so bald that his friends call him a polished gentleman.

J. T. HARRIGAN says someone miscalculated in the present war. Only one guess is allowed.

DORSEY KREITZER says a "good life keeps brightness in the eye, plumpness in the cheek and peace in the heart." How do you know, Dorsey?

ALF JOHNSON, who is running for sheriff on the Republican ticket, was a Central Avenue visitor the other day. He expects to hit out now in a few days on a campaign of handshaking and baby kissing.

HENRY SENGSTACKEN still maintains that the Kaiser will win if he has Germans enough. George Seelig agrees with him, but J. T. Harrigan disagrees. The Booster still maintains its neutrality.

CHIEF (beg pardon) NIGHT WATCH Shoupe, ran into three black cats Monday evening in half an hour, and something is going to transpire hereabouts soon that will make the hair stand up on the back of your neck.

GEORGE GOODRUM says that "The Owl's" run to popularity on U. S. Tires should be easy. He is now figuring on adding hot water bottles for auto heaters to the garage.

PROOF OF The Progressiveness

Of "THE OWL," the Central Avenue Drug Store is found in the fact that it is the only Coos Bay business house as yet to represent and display the certificate banner of the

Rice Leaders of the World Association

Watch our window display and see the large double-page adv. in next week's Saturday Evening Post. It will tell you of the real leaders in the Standard Goods of the World.

Of course you can find all of these goods that should be found at any drug store at "The Owl."
"Nationally Advertised Goods are Good Goods."

CENTRAL AVENUE JOTTINGS.

Painless Dentistry.—The dentists have discovered a new way to stop the pain. Perhaps they apply it when presenting their bill.

Boys Run Away.—Three Central Avenue boys ran away to see the world. They got as far as North Bend and decided that enough was plenty.

Was a Wet Day.—There were four visitors up before Recorder Butler for intoxication Tuesday; but think what a wet day it was.

Rare Coins.—Speaking of rare coins, J. N. Terrell was exhibiting a genuine $20 gold piece the other day. He is thinking of placing it in a case and giving one view with every shave.

Rivals September Morn.—Ivy Condon and "Doc" Straw have a snapshot picture taken of them that is an artistic triumph. If it gets into the papers it will rival "September Morn" it is so different. Their picture has been called "An August Evening."

Some Smoke.—Eugene Crosthwaite announces that the tobacco dealers of the country have announced October 12 as National Cigar Day, when everyone will be expected to smoke a few extra of his favorite weeds. 'Gene says the occasion will be observed at The Smokehouse and the smoke from the European battlefields will look like a soft summer haze compared to the smoke that will ascend from the Smokehouse October 12.
