MRS. ABIGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY ISSUES AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

It has been brought to my attention that the Anti-Saloon League, following the same tactics it has followed in every campaign heretofore, is trying to besmirch this organization and to carry on a vicious campaign of untruths. No name seems to be too good to be dragged into the mud by them. I have reliable information that a statement has been made to the Anti-Saloon League and to the Committee of One Hundred by Mrs. Cora C. Talbott, former secretary of the Taxpayers' and Wage-Earners' League, that she was brought into this work by me under the impression that it was a Women's Suffrage movement, and her duties would be those of a physician while I made speeches throughout the state. I also understand that Mrs. Talbott makes the statement that funds have been collected without authority, and in some way the Brewers' Association has been collecting these funds. These two statements are absolutely untrue. The collection of funds was authorized by me as president, and the secretary was ordered to have a letter sent out in connection with this work. I understand that Mrs. Talbott, in this purported letter, in the hands of the Anti-Saloon League and the Committee of One Hundred, states that she objected to the raising of funds under her signature as secretary. How did the good lady think the work of this league was to be carried on? Why did she think Mr. Bortzmeyer, cashier of the Scandinavian-American Bank, was appointed treasurer of this league? Did she think we would ask the brewers to put up the money surreptitiously? If so, she reckoned without her host. I have always fought in the open, and now, in my 80th year, and probably in my last campaign, I do not intend to change the principles I have always fought for, nor depart from my honesty of purpose in advocacy of equal rights for all the people—by no means excluding women, for whose interests I have spent my life to obtain the ballot. My chief concern in their behalf has always been to secure for them their economic independence, as married mothers within the home, which alone will enable any woman to quit the business of marrying inebriates or raising drunkards. The moneys collected are in the hands of Treasurer Bortzmeyer, and all those who have donated have received a letter acknowledging receipt thereof. Any one so desiring may inquire from our treasurer as to whether the money has been put in his hands, and I am quite sure he will advise them of receipt of their donation. If there is any one who has paid their money into this organization under misapprehension as donation for carrying on this work, this league will be only too glad to refund it.

It is indeed strange that Mrs. Talbott thought this was a Suffrage movement when she went to the Portland Hotel, engaged the dining-room for our first luncheon for organization and arranged for the payment of this luncheon, and went so far as to get speakers to express their views against Prohibition.

The real break between Mrs. Talbott and myself was caused when I found out that she had gone to the Brewers' Association and told them she could be of good service to them in connection with this league, and asked and received a salary from the Brewers' Association on the ground that she was putting in her time and needed the money. On the 26th of August a meeting was held between Mrs. Talbott and myself for the purpose of getting matters straightened out before starting the general organization. At this meeting a statement was signed by myself as president and Mrs. Talbott as secretary that the two letters sent out by myself, as well as the letter sent out by the publicity department, were approved. This statement ended with the sentence: "After discussing generally the affairs of the league, the officers ratified all work that had been done up to date by the publicity bureau and officers of the association."

I have lived in this state for 60 years, during all of which time I have toiled and worked for the people of my state, and I am willing to leave it to the public to decide as to whether I would lend myself in any way to any organization or any act that could be construed as anything but honorable. Every one in this state knows Mrs. Duniway and her family. I wish further to say that, if the occasion arises and I deem it necessary to go further into this matter, I will be glad to publish some additional facts in these same papers not necessary to publish now, and will meet the conditions as they arise. If the Anti-Saloon League, by its paid foreign agitators or Committee of One Hundred, think they can belaud this issue by trying to drag into the mud my name or others, they are very much mistaken. I expect to carry this work on to the conclusion of this campaign, and then allow the people to judge as to whether we will control our own affairs in the State of Oregon or allow the paid agitators of the East to show us what to do.

ANOTHER TOWN PEST
Assessor Tolman returned home yesterday from a few days business visit at Pistol River and other southern points, bringing home with him a year old burrow for his children to play with. While the people of Gold Beach are law-abiding people we would hate to insure the life of a jack ass in Gold Beach under most any kind of circumstances; let it be young or old. As a usual thing an Assessor gets cussing enough, but evidently Mr. Tolman does not or he would have never brought that thing to town.—Gold Beach Globe.

CATTLE DRIVE
Several of our local stockmen will soon drive a band of beef cattle across the mountains to Grants Pass. Those who will be interested in the drive will be D. M. and Ash Moore, Miller and Williams of Pistol River, John Adams, Robert Miller and J. D. Cooley, of Agness. The cattle will be driven from here to Snow Camp, thence to Agness and from there over Burnt Ridge and down to Grants Pass.—Gold Beach Globe.

MEN TO PLAY WORLD SERIES

Interesting Figures on Ages and Records of Boston and Philadelphia Players

(By Associated Press in Coos Bay Times.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—When the Philadelphia Athletics and the Boston Braves go into action in the twenty-third series for the world's championship baseball honors the diamond campaign will be fought out by teams new in the national sport. Although the average age of the leading players of the two combinations is not widely separated, the Athletics' machine is so famous and its success so striking that it appears odd by comparison with the squad that George Stallings whipped in shape in mid-summer and thus won a pennant for Boston. Taking twenty odd players of the two teams as a basis it will be found that the average age of the Athletics is 26 1-2 years and of the Braves 24 3-4 years.

While less than two years in average age separates the teams the extremes are more marked in the Athletics than the Braves. Plank, Bender, Coombs, Oldring, Lapp and Thomas are all past thirty, but the majority of those who will figure in the daily line-up are several years under this age. The three youngest players in the squad are the pitchers, Pennock and Wyckoff. The American League representatives have the advantage in years of baseball experience, for the Philadelphia Club players average fully a year more in time spent upon the professional than the Boston players. The Braves' average is approximately five years, with Johnny Evers heading the list with twelve years of play. The point of professional service, Plank leads the Athletics with thirteen years of baseball play and experience at his back. Bender is but one year behind and several others just fall short of double figures in their diamond career. As a result the Athletics' average is six years, notwithstanding the fact that a number of comparative youngsters are marshalled under the Philadelphia flag.

The team which will act as the standard bearers of the National League, is an interesting combination of the youth and the age of the diamond. In some cases extremes have been blended by Manager Stallings in artful manner to make of the Braves a winning team. This fact is illustrated in two notable cases. Principal figures in the scheme of attack and defense which enabled the Braves to win to the front of the stirring races in the National League, Johnny Evers, veteran of nearly 2,000 games, a figure prominent in the recent history of the sport, has worked in effective collaboration about second base with "Rabbit" Maranville, barely more than a boy, playing his second season with a major league club. The same combination of old and young is found in the records of the men of the outfield, and of the pitching staff. These figures show the oldest member of the team to be Otto Hess, with 33 years behind him. Almost a boy, Paul Strand at 19 years is the baby of the team.

The statistics of the players who are likely to participate in the World's Series of 1914 are as follows:

News From Nearby Towns

DOWN HILL WITH POWDER KEG
Neva Hardy, of Brewster Valley, tells a story of a narrow escape of a young man by the name of Norton who was working for him on a road contract in the canyon near there. Norton was carrying a keg of blasting powder and had set down to rest, when the keg slipped off the incline and started rolling down hill. He sprang to catch it and both rolled over a 30-foot cliff and went to the foot of it very promiscuously. Norton escaped with some bruises and the keg of powder was broken open.—Coquille Sentinel.

FOREIGNERS WED.
It is surprising how many foreign names—Greek, Fin, Polish, Slav and Scandinavian appear on the records at the County Clerk's office new among the applicants for marriage licenses. Evidently race suicide is less popular among those peoples than with the Anglo-Saxon stock, but it takes only one or two generations to make all like Americans.—Coquille Sentinel.
