BORN

GAMBLE—To Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gamble at their home on Kentuck Inlet, a twelve-pound boy, their first son.

Two Machines.—Manager Jones of the Coos Bay Steam Laundry is adding two of the latest type machines to his washing department. He is arranging to go ahead with their new concrete building at Sixth and Curtis next spring.

Give Evidence.—J. J. Clukenbeard, Ren Smith, Dal Cathcart and Taylor Siglin were among the old residents who were called yesterday to give evidence in the old Coos Bay Wagon Road land grant case.

Returns to Work.—Wm. Escott, who has been laid up for several weeks with an injury to his wrist, has resumed his position as foreman of the Smith-Powers mine on Isthmus Inlet.

Ferry Traffic.—During the month of September, Capt. Alex Hall reports that the ferry Transit carried the following traffic between Marshfield and Eastside: 6192 passengers, 209 double teams, 181 single teams, 147 head of livestock and 125 autos.

Decides Case.—In the case of Mrs. Tom Nicols vs. Yates, her former husband, for a half interest in the property prior to the time that Yates secured a divorce from her, Judge Coke ruled against her. It seems that she did not make any property claim at the time of the granting of the divorce to her husband.

Ask Receiver.—Mr. Helmo has asked that a receiver be appointed for Rinne and Peters and the matter has been submitted to Judge Coke. It is being resisted on the grounds that Helmo's claim is against Rinne and not against Rinne and Peters and consequently that the firm is not involved. The proceedings will not interfere with the firm's business, which is being conducted as usual.

Receive Long Picture.—A long panorama picture of the Coos Bay Band being reviewed by the Portland Police Band of thirty pieces has been received at the Chamber of Commerce and posted in the window as evidence of the reception given the band on their recent trip.

Peace Meeting.—The A. N. W. Club, which meets at Mrs. Murch's home tomorrow, will assemble promptly at 2:30, as there is to be a short devotional meeting at that time to be conducted by the rector of the Episcopal Church, on the subject of "Peace," as planned for at the last meeting of the club.

Buy's Place.—R. H. Olsen has purchased the Odd Fellows building at Empire and is moving it on to a lot on a side street at Empire which he recently bought from the Southern Oregon Company. He will remodel it into a residence.

Seattle Busy.—The dredge Seattle is now working near Tarheel and will continue in the lower bay until the weather gets too rough for it. Last week while working near Empire, the Seattle pumped out some of the largest clams ever seen. Scores of people gathered them up. Some of the big ones came through without even the shell being broken.

Mich's at Work.—Captain Reed started for the bar this morning to resume dredging there. He got his crew together quickly after the order to resume work and is hoping for many nice days that will enable him to offset the shoaling of the bar.

Suffers Paralysis.—J. H. Griffith, optician at the Red Cross suffered a partial stroke of paralysis while at work in the store and was taken to Mercy Hospital, where he is now receiving treatment. His right side is afflicted. He is reported to be getting along nicely.

Drunk but Wise.—Despite the fact that he was drunk enough to be placed in the city "cooler," Alex Lean, a Russian, was crafty enough to steal a steorage ticket to San Francisco from his room mate and then this morning appeared in the police court and accused of the theft the very man whom he robbed. Chief of Police Carter watched the Nann Smith before she sailed this morning and straightened out the trouble.

Cook Ducks on Big Stove.—That none of their ducks which they intend to bag will have a chance to spoil, the members of the Beal Lake Gun Club today sent a large stove to their headquarters on North Inlet. The range is a big one of the family type.

Funeral This Afternoon.—The funeral of Mrs. George Reynolds, for many years well known on Coos Bay and who died suddenly Monday morning, was held this afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Perry W.
