

If our advertising will but serve to bring you here for a personal investigation of our merchandise — our merchandise will bring forth your purse willingly.

Likewise the service rendered here and your ultimate satisfaction—which, by the way, we are sure enough of to guarantee—will bring you back again and again to our mutual advantage.

Here, for example, is a three-button, soft-roll sack suit made from the better foreign and domestic woolens with correct open-notch lapels, natural shoulders and medium form-fitting back. A really becoming style for any man whether he be tall or short, young or old.

All in all a striking example of that finished tailoring you'll invariably find in all

BORN

BARD—To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Bard at their home on Market avenue, a son.

Returns Home—Prosecuting Attorney L. E. Liljeqvist returned to Coquille this morning after coming here yesterday to hear three cases, all of which were dismissed, making his trip one in vain.

Puts in Messazine Floor—A messazine floor is being installed in the rear of the Owl Drug Store today and will be finished next week. This has become necessary because of the cramped quarters for the present business.

Secures Divorce—Mrs. Cora Timmons Falkner secured a divorce this week in Oregon City from James Falkner on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and the use of intoxicating liquors on the part of Falkner. Both formerly lived in Marshfield.

Here to Locate—Fred S. Chestnut, a civil engineer, has arrived on Coos Bay and expects to locate here permanently. Mr. Chestnut is a graduate of the University of Toronto and comes here now from British Columbia.

Team May Play Astoria—Manager Herbert Bradley, of the Marshfield High School, is in receipt of a letter from the Astoria High School stating that the Northerners have an open date on Thanksgiving Day in their football schedule. Bradley has conferred with Coach Niles, who is much in favor of a game with Astoria. Providing rates may be secured on the steamship it is possible a game may be arranged between the two schools.

Gold Beach Fire—W. C. Bradley returned yesterday from a trip to Curry county points. He states that there is considerable feeling aroused at Gold Beach over the recent fire which destroyed the Presbyterian minister's new home. Some one has started the report that the fire was set by jealous religious opponents of the pastor. Every indication points to arson.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. Mabel Molde is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McLeod.

Mrs. Carl Smedburg is quite ill at her home.

Mr. Richards of Ferndale has been quite ill at his home the last few days.

Evert Lewis returned to his work at Camp 5 near Myrtle Point this morning, having come here for medical treatment for a severe case of blood poisoning.

Mrs. Andrew Erickson, of Coos Bay who was taken ill at Bandon, is very much better today and recovering from her operation of a week ago. At that time Dr. Horsfall and his son, with Mr. Erickson, left here in a machine at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, during a heavy storm, and made the trip to Bandon, arriving there at 10 o'clock that night and the operation took place an hour later. Four chains were used up on the trip.

Mrs. John Thomas of Kentuck Inlet, who has been ill for some time, was taken ill again today. Mrs. Thomas is now staying with her sister in North Bend.
