BORN.

BLACK—To Mr. and Mrs. George Black, of North Bend, Tuesday, October 13, a daughter weighing twelve pounds.

WH Build.—Richard Jacobson is arranging to build a pretty, modern, five-room house in Perham Park.

Plan Entertainment.—Plans for another basketball game between Eastside and Marshfield, dance and banquet at the Eastside hall Friday night are being made.

Moves Into Home.—Rev. Samuel Gregz has moved into his new home in Perham Park, just north of R. A. Copple's residence. He has just completed a fine house.

Gypsies Call Here.—Several swarthy complexioned gypsy women were on the streets this afternoon, attracting attention because of their gaudy colored dress. They are part of a band now camping below North Bend and are here for the purpose of telling the past, present and future in fortunes.

Coming to Bay.—Roy Rozelle, now in charge of the government harbor work here, has been advised by Major Morrow that he expects to be in Marshfield October 21. Just what all is to come up then is not certain and it will probably depend on whether Capt. Potter and others are able to come with him then.

To Remain Here.—The Marshfield Christian Church has issued a call to the Rev. Samuel Gregz to remain as pastor of the Marshfield Church for another year. The church during the past year has made a most substantial growth and the congregation and patrons are planning for even a better record the coming year.

MARSHFIELD CYCLERY

Moves to Ranch.—Hiram Wright, a former well-known Marshfield man who has been residing at White Salmon, Washington, has leased his place there and moved onto the ranch of his father-in-law, Dr. Schultz. He has a fine young orchard at White Salmon, according to a letter that Taylor Siglin received from him the other day.

Have Hard Trip.—Ben Fisher and J. T. Brand returned yesterday morning from a week's trip into Portland and various points in the Willamette Valley. They left Roseburg early Monday morning and coming back on the Myrtle Point mail route failed to reach Marshfield until 4 o'clock yesterday morning because of the rough roads which in some places were almost impassable.

Father Dead.—The following from the Roseburg Review tells of the death of the father of Fred Tipton, a Marshfield barber: "The funeral of the late John Tipton, who died at his home in Edenbower early Saturday, was held at the Roseburg Undertaking parlors. Interment of the remains followed in the Oak Creek cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Caves, pastor of the local Methodist Church, South."
