

To The Young Man:

The philosopher says that youth is never a matter of time, but of temperament, which accounts for the fact that there are many old men of 16 and equally numerous young men of 60.

So it is with clothes. There are those, which, although worn to a thread, preserve to the last their freshness of youth, just as there are those which show the crow's feet of age before the first week of service is over.

Kuppenheimer Clothes

possess in rare measure the golden quality of always staying young.

There is in their clean-cut style lines all the buoyancy of twenty-one.

There is in the soft durable fabrics the youthful attribute of endurance under the grind of daily wear.

There is evinced in the workmanship the youthful ambition to do a thing better than it was ever done before.

The recipe for everlasting youth has not yet been revealed, but as near as we have come to it is this:

Good digestion—a cheery outlook—and Kuppenheimer Clothes, at $18, $25, and up to $30.

Other Clothes, $8.50 to $18.00.

Buys Business.—J. S. Lyons, who has been managing the Nelson Iron Works for the past year, has purchased a controlling interest in the business, it is announced.

Repair Boat.—L. G. Masters was down from Sumner last evening aiding in the repair of the Sunrise, which sprung her crank shaft last week. He has been using the Tonga on the run in the meantime.

AX CUT.—Tender.—Three tendons were cut in the wrist of P. N. Flagg yesterday afternoon when an ax, with which he was cutting wood on the Carlson place on the Coos River, slipped. A doctor was immediately summoned to attend the injured man and made a hurried trip up the river by special boat. Today Mr. Flagg came down to town, able to be around, though he expects to be laid up for several weeks. For many months Mr. Flagg has been practically an invalid with peritonitis and had just recently recovered enough to get back to work.

Work on Bridge.—Clara Baxter, who has returned from a trip to the Coquille Valley, reports that the Smith-Powers company has the falsehood in for their last bridge on the South Fork. He feared that the rain yesterday and last night might cause a freshet that would damage the falsehood.

Will Have Bungalow.—Plans have been called for the erection of a five-room bungalow for Thayer Grimes. The building will be built at the corner of Twelfth and Franklin streets and will be modern in every respect. William Chandler has just completed the plans for the building.

Form Curtis Club.—J. C. Kendall, E. A. Anderson and a number of others are arranging to organize a non-partisan club on the Bay to back the candidacy of E. B. Curtis, the Progressive nominee for County Commissioner. The two other candidates Geo. J. Armstrong, the Republican nominee, and E. E. Dyer, the Democratic nominee, live at Bandon.
