OPTIMISM REGARDING FUTURE.

THE first step toward success is believing in success. No community can be built up to a place of prominence unless its citizens have confidence in its future.

Coos Bay has probably a greater cause for optimism today than ever before in its history.

This hopeful and helpful condition has largely been the result of the optimism that has dominated the men of large affairs here and pervaded people generally.

The people of this community should justify his faith in the future by manifesting the same spirit of confidence and optimism which he has shown.

THE TEA AND THE TOAST

GOOD EVENING.

Don't be always on the lookout for perfection in others. Try to acquire it yourself and you will be kept too busy to find fault with your neighbor.

'TIS BUT A FADED LITTLE FLOWER.

'Tis but a little faded flower, But oh! how fondly dear! 'Twill bring me back one golden hour Through many a weary year.

Chorus.

'Tis but a faded little flower, But oh, how fondly dear! 'Twill bring me back one golden hour Through many a weary year.

Where is the heart that does not keep, Within its inmost core, Some fond remembrance, hidden deep.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Every time Belgium gets into the fray she seems to grab the hot end of the poker.

A Greenville, Cal., man claims to have discovered that skunks like to be petted. Let us take his word for it and let it go at that.

A British political economist has declared that the war is costing England $55 a second, day and night.

That may explain why so much fighting is going on during this war.

Fifty thousand umbrella workers in New York have been threatening to strike. If they do, it is to be hoped they have something laid up for a rainy day.

A Kansas contemporary mentions a new book entitled, "A Hundred Ways of Kissing the Girls and Other Things." But who would care to kiss other things after meeting the girls.

The government is going to build two battleships larger than any at present in the navy. Praying for peace and preparing for trouble looks like playing both ends against the middle.

Italy seems to be doing the "hesitation" while the other nations are dancing to war music.

KILL WILD STEER.

A wild steer which had been ranging through the country adjacent to Slimmien's Slough and around Reedspurt, was killed Friday by Al Perkins. The steer belonged to Warren Reed and different ones had tried to kill it from time to time, but it was as wild as a deer and it was very seldom that anyone could get near enough to shoot him, and it would be a mere chance if one could get sight of him.

WHEREAT IS INITIATED.

At the recent Knights of Pythias convention in Portland, L. A. Whereat of Marshfield was a member of the class initiated by the Knights of Khorrassan. At the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias Ernest Sidwell of Bandon was appointed a member of the standing committee on necrology.

HUME'S OLD PLAN.

During the past few days the shingle mill has been cutting a special order of shingles, with which a new roof will be put on the cold storage plant. This building, which now belongs to R. L. Macleay, was erected by R. D. Hume at a cost of $35,000 for the purpose of developing the deep sea fishing industry at the place.

MILL SHUTS DOWN.

The Tide Water Mill Co. shut down their mill Tuesday evening for an indefinite time. This was done on account of the condition of the mark and the difficulty of shipping during the winter.

BIG DEMAND FOR KRAUT.

European War Apparently Does Not Affect Demand for German Delicacy.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 21.—The European war has no effect upon the local demand for sour kraut, according to J. O. Holt, manager of the Eugene Fruit Growers' Association, who declares that he can sell far more kraut than he has cabbage with which to make it. He estimates that this year he will be able to get twenty tons of cabbage. This is more than the cannery has put up before, but will scarcely supply the Portland market. In the past Eugene has taken approximately half the amount made here, and this year it will take as much as usual.

The cannery shipped a car of canned goods to Portland, and next week the Junction City cannery will ship its first full car load of canned products. This goes to Portland and Seattle.

LEAVES GOLD BEACH.

Probably before another issue of the Globe, Wm. Gauntlet will bid his many friends in these parts goodbye and leave for his home in Seattle, Wash. Mr. Gauntlet has sold his confectionery and cigar store to Oscar Miller, who will take charge of the business in a few days.—Gold Beach Globe.

CHARGE OF PETIT LARCENY.

Man Who Took Money from Pocket of Friend is Sentenced to Term in Jail.

Brought before Judge Penlock in the justice court yesterday to answer the charge that he had stolen $15 from the pockets of L. A. Monighetti, a friend, W. S. Wymore was found guilty of the charge and fined $25. Being without funds the man was sentenced to twelve and one-half days in the county jail at Coquille and will be taken there by Constable Cox.

Wymore and Monighetti were old friends who chanced to meet after a long absence. Wymore, who is a brick mason, stopping at the Central Hotel, was without funds. Last Friday night he entered the room of Monighetti, who was asleep on the bed, rolled him over, and took $15 in gold from his pockets.

Known to be without funds, suspicion centered on Wymore when he appeared the following morning and asked Mrs. Hampton, the landlady, to change a $5 gold piece for him. Monighetti had already reported the robbery and the police were notified. Chief of Police Carter waited in Wymore's room until he returned and then arrested the man, who throughout has declared he is innocent.

NEWS OF GARDINER.

Events Along the Umpqua As Told by the Courier.

The Gardiner Mill Co., mill closed down at noon Tuesday for a period of six weeks for extensive repairs, and for the purpose of installing new machinery.

John Roach, who recently lost an arm in the Gardiner Mill Company's mill, has received his first payment of $25 from the state in consequence of the accident.

It is a favorite pastime now to go rolling for salmon on the river. Several ladies made good catches Monday and Tuesday (we mean catches of salmon), some of them getting as high as twelve in a short time.

Rev. John Pacey and wife, the former the new pastor of the Methodist church at Gardiner, arrived here on Tuesday evening of last week and are moved into the parsonage. Mr. Pacey comes from Warrenton to this place. He had charge of the church here.

The commissioners have received a letter from Major J. J. Morrow, of the United States Engineers, in which he states in answer to an inquiry from the commissioners that the appropriation bill as passed by Congress made no provision for the survey of the Umpqua River or bar.

ENLARGE UMPQUA PORT.

The county clerk has sent out notices of the general election to be held on November 3rd, also a special election to be held on the same date at the Port of Umpqua for the purpose of acquiring more territory north and south of the present boundaries of the port. There are four voting precincts in the Port of Umpqua: Elkton, Scottsburg, Reedspurt and Gardiner. Besides the twelve notices to be posted for the general election, as provided by law, there must be twelve notices posted in the port precincts for the special election, and affidavits made by the party posting said notices to the effect that a d d post said notices, naming the places where the notices were posted. This affidavit is attached to a copy of said notice, to be forwarded to the county clerk at Roseburg. This is very important and those who post these notices should not neglect the affidavits.—Gardiner Courier.
