CHAMINADE CLUB CONCERT TO BE HELD IN NOVEMBER

The following is an extract from the widely known musical journal, 'Musical America'...

'Near Bergen, in Norway, and surrounded by woods, mountains and the sea, lies Edward Grieg's country home, 'Troldhaugen'...

Mrs. Grieg is known for her simplicity. Although I was practically a stranger to her, after a most cordial welcome and interesting visit...

Mrs. Grieg, after having told many things of interest about the life of the great composer, inquired much about American and musical life here.

Mrs. Grieg asked to be remembered to American musical friends, and these lines are to be taken as a greeting to Musical America readers from that talented and interesting woman.

Special music has been arranged for the Rally Day Services at the Methodist Episcopal Church for tomorrow. Mrs. Bunting will sing a solo at the morning service and in the evening a mixed chorus will give a selection.

Mrs. E. L. Robinson will sing a soprano solo at the Rally Day exercises of the Presbyterian Sunday School tomorrow.

The following music will be sung in the Episcopal Church Sunday morning: Processional, Hymn 472, 'O Come, Lord, Antheims, Let Us Sing'...

Mrs. Roy Everett Miller will sing 'The Plains of Peace' by Barnard. Mrs. Roy Everett Miller Hymn 473 'Before Jehovah's Awful Throne'...

Miss Edna Larson has inaugurated some special trio and two-piano work among her advanced pupils...

The Chaminaide Club met for their regular weekly meeting Friday morning. Rehearsals of the choruses to be given at the concert next month were practiced and later a business meeting was held...

Those present Friday were Miss Evelyn Anderson, Miss Bessie Ayre, Mrs. Perl Riley Ballinger, Mrs. R. K. Booth, Mrs. F. E. Conway, Mrs. W. N. Ekblad, Mrs. J. C. Gardiner, Mrs. A. B. Gidley, Mrs. J. T. Hall, Mrs. Wm. Horstfall, Jr., Miss Esther Myren, Mrs. Jos. Knotts, Miss May Myren, Miss Clara Myren, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. B. B. Ostlund, Miss Edith Preston, Miss Genevieve Seungstacken, Mrs. Chas. Stauff, Mrs. C. H. Walters and Mrs. F. E. Wilson.

Mrs. A. B. Gidley will sing 'The Star Spangled Banner' at the Republican rally at the Opera House next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Fred Oleson, of Portland, who is to appear as soloist at the Chaminaide Concert planned for the middle of November, was at one time a resident of Empire and will be remembered as Miss Minnie Burton by many of the older residents who speak with pleasure of her unusually sweet voice as a young girl.

Friends of Miss Ruth Allen, who is attending Oregon Agricultural College specializing in music, will be glad to hear that she has been elected to the Girls' Glee Club at that popular college. This is quite an honor, as the Glee Club is composed of only about fifty picked voices out of the whole school, making the membership rather limited.

NORTH BEND AUCTION BRIDGE

The highest honors at cards were awarded Mrs. I. B. Bartie at the regular meeting of the North Bend Auction Bridge Club to which Mrs. Henry Bergman was hostess Tuesday. Mrs. Bergman's home was decorated tastefully in autumn decorations. Following a few hours at cards a two-course lunch was served the guests, included among whom were Mrs. Bergman's mother, Mrs. Kane, of Oakland, an special guest, Mrs. J. G. Horn, Mrs. C. M. Tyler, Mrs. Allen Warren, Mrs. I. F. Falkenstein, Mrs. George Stephenson, Mrs. H. E. Burmaster, Mrs. A. R. Hammond, Mrs. I. B. Bartie and Mrs. Frances Hollister. Mrs. Paul Dymnuk will entertain the club a week from next Tuesday.

NORTH BEND SISTERHOOD

The North Bend Christian Sisterhood spent a very pleasant social afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. G. Gladman Wednesday at which needlework and a short business session occupied the short hours. It was decided to change the meeting days from the first and third Wednesday's in the month to the second and fourth Thursdays, thus throwing the next meeting day to next Thursday, when Mrs. Isaacs will be hostess. The afternoon was ended with the serving of refreshments by Mrs. Isaacs and Mrs. Gladman. The guests served were Mrs. Ella Covey, Mrs. Walter Putman, Mrs. Fred Earl, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. E. E. Emery, Mrs. F. S. Ritchie, Mrs. Roy Wood, Mrs. F. J. Isaacs, Mrs. J. McMurry, Mrs. Edgar McDaniel, Miss Glorin Putman, Miss Helen and Vera Wood and Miss Edith McMurry.

INVITATIONS OUT

Mrs. T. B. James has issued invitations for next Thursday afternoon when she will be hostess at a Halloween party.

CHURCH TEA

The Christian Sisterhood is giving a Silver Tea at the home of Mrs. W. A. Reid Thursday afternoon.

FINE ADDRESS

Last Tuesday afternoon Senator L. S. Smith delivered an able talk under the auspices of the Coos Bay Women's Club at the Presbyterian Church on the initiative and referendum measures to be passed on at the coming election. The attendance was not as large as was hoped for. Mr. Smith took up each of the questions to be voted on, explained what it was intended for and gave some of the arguments for and against. Senator Smith expressed the opinion that the safest rule for voters to follow when they were uncertain about a measure was to vote 'No.' He said this would mean no change whatever if they simply passed it over without voting either way or no, they might get what they did not want.

SEWING PARTY

Mrs. John Pitman was hostess at a delightful afternoon at sewing Wednesday at their beautiful new home in South Marshfield. Myriads of cut flowers of different varieties transformed the various rooms into bowers. At the conclusion of the needlework refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Dan Keating. Those invited were Mrs. Jas. Bennett, Mrs. E. Don McCrary, Mrs. Dan Keating, Mrs. Chas. Thorwald, Mrs. August Pritson, Mrs. Isaacson Mrs. Thorpe, Mrs. Walter Hill and Miss Lucy Thorwald.

PLAN PARTIES

The Epworth League will give a Halloween party at the church next Friday evening. A special program is being prepared.

Mrs. Herman Edwards is planning to entertain with a Halloween party at her home in Allegany some evening next week.

Miss Elvira Frizen is planning to entertain Tuesday complimentary to Mrs. Alexander McNeil.

The Senior class of the Marshfield High School is planning for a Halloween party at the high school next Saturday evening.

The Junior class of the Marshfield High School is making arrangements to issue invitations for the annual Prom which will be given at the Eagle's Hall November 13.

THEATER PARTY

Last Wednesday evening a delightful little theater party was tendered complimentary to Mrs. Alexander McNeil, who is the guest of Mrs. O. H. Wilson. Those present were Mrs. J. O. Langworthy, Mrs. Herman Edwards, Mrs. O. S. Torrey, Mrs. J. G. Leyland, Mrs. J. Q. Jarvis, Mrs. N. McMillan, Mrs. Norris Johnson, Mrs. O. H. Wilson, Mrs. J. H. Staddon, Miss Irene Preuss, Miss Mabel Lang, Miss Edna Appand, Miss Elvira Frizen and Miss Frieda Holm.

Three Years of Growth. Three years ago the first lots were purchased in FIRST ADDITION. Sales have continued steadily ever since, and there are still many lots in the hands of the Company. About 200 lots besides many small acreage tracts have been sold, and there are still several hundred fine lots remaining and many choice acreage tracts. This is a big addition, containing 32 blocks or about 700 large lots. There are now 74 homes in FIRST ADDITION or a population of about 300 people. The addition can accommodate a population of 2500. You cannot select your home-site intelligently without knowing FIRST ADDITION. Call and get plat and full particulars. Reynolds Development Co. (OWNER) 178 Central Ave.
