THE BOOTH CAMPAIGN.

THE dignified manner in which Booth has conducted his campaign is in sharp contrast to the campaign of his opponents. Booth has refused to engage in personalities or mud-slinging. He has met and answered the charges against him, and has proved that these charges are without foundation.

MEMORIAL

We never will know how it happened, The death of that little child, And like most little children, Was so meek and mild.

And where is she dwelling now? Up with the Angels fair, There are so many Angels with her, But we will see her when we go there.

APPLE PIE AND POETRY.

A number of young women at the home of Mrs. F. E. Wheeler have sent the following to The Times, requesting its publication and saying that it is dedicated to Dr. G. W. Leslie, but they refuse to divulge the name of the author:

SILENT NIGHT:

A dozen girls—a dozen forks, A dozen pieces of pie, Then silence reigns as all the girls For a trip to the movies try.

The doctor stands with bated breath, And a sad tear dims his eye, While the silent rush on the pies is made, And the forks begin to fly.

His anxious comrades stand about, And joke with might and main, Such wit has seldom e'er been heard, But alas! 'tis all in vain.

For the ladies sit with downcast eyes, And at their plates do stare, As the brilliant stream of wit flows on, Falling flat on the silent air.

As silently, swiftly and steadily, The pies begin to fade, So silently, swiftly and steadily, The jokers steal away.

Till all are gone but the doctor, Who makes a halting bow, As the ladies quickly crowd about, While he mops his blushing brow.

Then down the street they follow, The doctor striding fast, Amid the staring, wondering crowd That smiles to let them pass.

All out of breath from the rapid pace, They reach the nearest show, Where the doctor sadly counts them all, Then seats them, row after row.

Scarcely is the last picture on, When he ushers them quickly out, And, like the Pied Piper of Hamelin town, They follow him fast about.

Then north and south and east and west, Thro' by-ways dark and lone, O'er rocky trails and muddy flats, He sees them safely home.

And when the last one he bids good-night, Just see the break of day, With hues so bright and purple so bright, He wanders his homeward way.

CITY PRIMARY IS TOMORROW

Three Councilmen and One Recorder to Be Named Candidate from Each Party.

Polls in the four wards of the city will be open for the city primaries tomorrow morning exactly at 8 o'clock and will close at the same hour in the evening when the returns will be counted. Three councilmen are to be named candidates from their respective parties and two of these are to serve three years and the third member for one year. There is also to be elected a candidate from each party for city recorder.

Voting in the north precinct or district 17 will be at the Woodcraft Shop at 762 Front street north. The total registration in this ward is 93 voters.

The O'Connell building at the corner of Market Avenue and Second street is the polling place of the Central ward, or precinct number 19. This is the largest district from the point of registration of any of the four wards. There are 222 voters registered there.

Central number one or precinct 19 has its polling place located in the Williams building at the corner of Curtis Avenue and Broadway. This is the post office building and the polls open on Curtis Avenue.

The total registration of this precinct is 110 voters.

Voting in the south precinct or district number 20 will be at 727 Broadway street south, between Hall and Golden Avenues. For the primaries there are 162 voters registered.

Official ballots will not carry the names of any candidates but a different color is issued for each party. The republican ballot will be a white slip, the Democratic of blue and the Progressive of yellow. Voters will vote straight in the party under which they registered for the primaries. There will be no chance of breaking up the ticket and in fact there would be no advantage in being able to do this in a primary election.

Voters of different parties may have in mind a certain man for the council, and vote for him. However, all of these votes will not be totaled in favor of this one candidate but rather they will be ranged according to each party and he will become the candidate of the party giving him the most votes. In this way there may be a chance of watching a good Democrat running on a republican ticket or vice versa.

Immediately after the closing of the polls the votes will be counted in each precinct and it is now believed all returns will be in by about nine thirty Saturday evening.

Discussion of the last few days has settled principally on six prominent men as candidates for the city council berths, while John W. Butler seems to have no open opposition to his position as city recorder. J. Wright Wilson, now a member of the council, is again in the race and so is Carl Evertsen, but Alva Doll has declared positively that he will not be a candidate for re-election. In addition to these men J. F. Telander has consented to become a candidate; so has D. L. Rood, a property holder and long a resident of the city. H. J. Kimball, Jr., has been urged into the race, as well as George A. Baines. Charles I. Reigard has been solicited by his friends, but has made no definite announcement of his intentions.

That the saloons must close for all day is the opinion of City Recorder Butler, a provision instituted under the state law, though the city charter provides only that they must close during election hours. With the saloons closed all day tomorrow this will mean a total abstinence beginning tonight at 12 o'clock and running through until Monday morning and again all day Tuesday.

ALLEGANY ITEMS

(Special to The Times)

Fred Gage has just finished filling his silo. He got quite a serious cut on his hand while cleaning the cutter. His mother and aunt are making him a visit and old friends will be glad to welcome Mrs. Gage back to her old home.

Mrs. Alfred Tybug has just returned to Allegany after an absence in town on account of sickness. She is much improved which we are all glad to learn.

Harry Stull, Joe Shucovic and Joe Gould just returned from a trip to Elkhorn. They were gone nearly a week on a hunt for cattle, deer bear and etc. They got the cattle but no big deer or bear. Harry gathered up some cows with young calves to bring down to his lower place to winter. His stock is in fine condition. While in the hills they met eleven men from Mapleton on a hunt, they

KIMBALL WILL ACCEPT OFFICE

Announces That He will Be a Candidate for Councilman Positions Do Not Conflict.

Harry J. Kimball, Jr., after conferring with the U. S. Customs officials here today found that his appointment as Collector of Customs of the Port of Marshfield would not conflict with his acceptance of the position of councilman in Marshfield. They informed him that since the collectorship was an appointive office, not under civil service or elective, it would not conflict with his holding another public office. In consequence, Mr. Kimball made the following announcement today:

"In response to many requests from friends, I have decided to be a candidate for the nomination and election for the three-year term on the Marshfield city council. As to my position in public matters, I think it is well known in Marshfield. I will stand for an absolute square deal for all, for the strict enforcement of the law and for a progressive, business-like and economical administration of the city's affairs.

GEO. A. BAINES IS CANDIDATE

Well Known Marshfield Man Decides to Run for Three Year Term.

George A. Baines has conceded to the importunities of his friends and will allow his name to go before the voters at tomorrow's municipal primaries for the nomination to the city council for the three-year term. Mr. Baines has been a resident of Marshfield for many years and has large property interests here.

TWO ARE MADE ONE

Justice Court Scene of Afternoon Wedding Couple Flee Leaving Umbrella.

Before Justice of the Peace Penock this afternoon in the justice court Henry Kancas, a Finnish logger, was united in marriage to Miss Augusta Lake. They are both of Marshfield and both gave their ages as 23 years. So embarrassed and excited were the young people that they fled leaving behind their umbrella. The court wished them many happy years of wedded bliss which they smilingly accepted and left the court room a very happy couple.

"And there's a good point about marrying people, too," assented the Judge after they had gone. "During the eight years I have been in office I have married several dozen people but only three of the number have ever applied afterwards for a divorce."

THE SALOON AND WHAT IT MEANS

The saloon is an evil thing that has not one redeeming thing in all its history to commend it to good men. It breaks the laws of God and man; it desecrates the Sabbath; it profanes the name of religions; it defiles public order; it tramples under foot the tenderest feelings of humanity; it is a moral pestilence that blights the very atmosphere of town and country; it is a stain upon honesty; a blot upon purity; a clog upon progress; a check upon the nobler impulses; it is an incentive to falsehood, deceit and crime.

Search through the history of this hateful thing and find one page over which some mother can bow her grateful head and thank God for all the saloon did for her boy. There is no such record. All its history is written in tears and blood, with smears of shame and stains of crime and dark blots of disgrace.—EX.

If you don't like this kind of an institution vote dry, 332 X Yes next Tuesday, Nov. 3.

got some fine bucks. Mr. McCollough and son were among the party. Tom Porter, and Mr. Gray got a bear in their traps Tuesday.

CARL EVERTSEN IS CANDIDATE

Formally Announces He Will Seek Nomination and Election for 1-Year Term.

Carl W. Evertsen formally announced his candidacy for the nomination and election for the one-year term on the Marshfield city council today. He said:

"I have decided to be a candidate for the one-year term on the Marshfield city council. I have served as an appointive member and have decided that my personal business will permit me to give up the necessary time to the duties of councilman for another year at which time I would retire and allow someone else to give their services to the public good. I hope that it will not be long until Marshfield can have regular salaried managers or commissioners to handle its affairs. While I am a Progressive I am a great admirer of President Wilson but I do not believe that party lines should enter into municipal affairs. I will be pleased to have all who favor my past record on the council to give me their support."

PLATFORM OF J. F. TELANDER

J. F. Telander in announcing his candidacy for the three-year term on the Marshfield city council today gave out his platform as follows:

No Axe to grind— No function to cater to— "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

A plain business proposition to bring about the greatest good to the greatest number of citizens—That's all.

STEEL TRUST CASE CLOSING

Government's Final Argument for Dissolution of Great Corporation is Made

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—The final day's argument in the greatest corporation case ever considered by any court opened with Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war and special assistant to the attorney general continuing his address urging that the United States steel corporation should be disintegrated because of the violating of the anti-trust laws. Dickinson's argument was largely in rebuttal of what six corporations lawyers said in defense of the steel corporation. Dickinson said that the steel corporations had the power to crush out all competitors if it so desired but it realized that if it pursued such policy it would be swiftly crushed by the government. But, he said, it adopted a different scheme. It entered into pools, agreements and combinations with its competitors by means of which prices were kept up and larger returns received on its enormous watered stock.

PORTER BROS. IN MORE HARD LUCK

Schooner Oakland in Collision While Entering Golden Gate and Badly Damaged.

The following dispatch from San Francisco tells of more hard luck that Porter Brothers are encountering in connection with their lumber mill at Florence and fleet of vessels:

"The American schooner Oakland, 18 days from Siuslaw river, which collided with the Matson liner Manoa in the fog outside the Golden Gate last night, was towed into port by the tug Defiance. Water flooded her hold, but the pumps were kept at work and aided by her lumber cargo kept her afloat. The Manoa stove in her stern, tearing off the rudder and steering gear. Captain Dent had his wife and child aboard, and for a time was apprehensive of their safety. After the crash the Manoa got a line aboard and stood by until the tug responded to a wireless call. No one was injured. The Oakland will be beached and repaired."

WHY NOT TELL THE TRUTH?

Editor Times: Inasmuch as I have been attacked and my record in office assailed by Mr. Elbert Dyer, who would like the people to retire me and elect him to the office of County Commissioner, I am putting the following plain questions to Mr. Dyer.

1st. What roads have you ever built, to earn the belief of "the people of Bandon," that you have any "ability to serve them?"

2nd. What have you ever done to make the people of Bandon, or any other place believe that you can "make a better showing with the people's money than has been made?"

3rd. In the light of the fact that there has not been spent on the roads of this County, any million dollars in the last five years, are you not guilty of deliberate falsehood in making such a statement?

4th. Why do you further state that there has been spent "during 1913 the immense sum of $264,898.28 for road work," when you know, or ought to know if you are fit to even run for public office that this sum is greatly in excess of the total funds available for 1913, even including "special road taxes" over which the County Board has practically no jurisdiction?

5th. Who of the people of Bandon are "dissatisfied with the present incumbent, and have united in demanding that you make the race," save a handful of disgruntled and disappointed calamity-howlers, who either have been turned down in some attempt to graft the County, or have been deprived of some "easy pickings?"

6th. How do you sustain your statement that "the people have unanimously urged you to become a candidate," when the record shows that at the primaries I received, right in Bandon, a majority of votes over the strongest man my enemies could run against me?

7th. You state that you "own three ranches" but you neglected to state that you seek election to the County Board for the sole purpose of using your position to get improvements to roads which will benefit these ranches. Why do you not tell the whole truth while you are about it?

8th. What "movements that were intended for the best interests of the County" have you been "identified with" during your fifty years bonded residence in Coos County.

9th. You brag about your "ability" and your "property," but have you ever demonstrated any of this "ability" in the requirement of any property that you did not inherit from your relatives?

10th. Why did the people of Bandon, four years ago, select me, a newcomer who had only been in the county only six months, as a candidate for this office, (without even consulting me whether I would have it or not,) and overlook such an old resident as you, if you possess the peoples' confidence and the great abilities of which you boast.

11th. If you are such a paragon of perfection for this office, why have you not come out like a man, and made a clean, open and above-board campaign, for election, instead of waiting till the last minute so to speak, and resorting to the cowardly "shoot and run" methods which you have adopted?

12th. Can you cite a single instance of any project with which you have been identified, that has proved a success?

13th. If as you state in your published advertisement, you really cannot afford to spare the time required to fulfill the duties incumbent upon a commissioner, how do you reconcile this statement with the closing paragraph of your "paid adv." wherein you state that you will "attend to same to the exclusion of your private affairs?"

AND FINALLY, HOW CAN YOU HOPE TO GAIN VOTES BY INSULTING THE INTELLIGENCE OF THE VOTERS BY USING DECEPTIONS IN YOUR PUBLISHED STATEMENTS WHICH ARE SO EASILY BROUGHT TO LIGHT? WHY NOT BE HONEST?

NEW HEATING PLANTS

The Pioneer Hardware Company report business unusually good this fall, especially in the line mentioned. They are now installing plants in the residences of J. S. Lyons and F. H. Dresser, and also in the new theatre building being erected by Noble Bros. for the Star Theatre at Third and Central. They also have the contract for heating and plumbing the new Gymnasium. Marshfield people are right up to date in recognizing this most efficient, satisfactory and economical way of making their homes comfortable. The Pioneer will cheerfully make estimates of plants most suitable for any kind of building without charge or obligation of any kind.
