ACCIDENTS AT COQUILLE. While doing some carpenter work in a barn near his home near Lampa, Mr. A. Bean fainted and fell eight feet from a ladder to the ground. From the fall he received serious bruises and was hurt to such an extent that Dr. Mann of Bandon left orders for him to remain in bed for several days.

G. A. Rienke, who has been working in the local mill for about a month, suffered a peculiar accident, by which his leg was broken. He had picked up a heavy slab and pitched it out of the way, when his leg gave way under him, and it was found that the smaller bone was broken near the ankle. Rienke is a large and powerful man and his muscles evidently put too much strain on the bone as he twisted his leg in throwing the heavy slab. He had received a severe blow in the same spot from a pickaxe a short time ago, and the bone may have been slightly fractured.

Mr. Lee, of Johnson's mill, who works on the section, is laid up with a strained and bruised arm. L. A. Pinkston is nursing an arm, broken last week.

A child at Henryville, aged about five years, required Dr. Richmond's attention, having cut its foot severely on the bottom, cutting away nearly the whole ball of the foot. Much sickness from measles and other ailments is reported, the families of J. B. Pointer, John Hickham and Joe Peart being among the sufferers.—Coquille Herald.
