

AN APPEAL TO WOMEN

BY ABIGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY

Abigail Scott Duniway

Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, PIONEER MOTHER AND PATH BREAKER OF THE EQUAL SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT IN OREGON, WASHINGTON AND IDAHO, takes this method to extend her greetings to such HONEST CHRISTIAN WOMEN as she devoutly believes are being LED ASTRAY in the present Prohibition crisis by the CRAFTINESS OF AMBITIOUS MEN.

Have you forgotten, my inexperienced daughters, who are listening to HIRED AND IMPORTED AGITATORS, to consult your Bibles? Do you recall the fate of One, who, upon entering the enemy's country "to seek and to save that which was lost," was ostracised, derided and finally crucified by SELF STYLED "BEST PEOPLE," who still "love to pray, STANDING IN THE SYNAGOGUES AND ON THE STREET CORNERS, TO BE SEEN OF MEN?"

Are you obeying the Divine command of Him who said: "Woe unto you Scribes, Pharisees, HYPOCRITES?" Do you forget that He urged his followers to "RESIST NOT EVIL," but to "OVERCOME EVIL WITH GOOD?" Can't you remember that He warned the people to AVOID DRUNKENNESS, and, while graphically depicting the woes of the drunkard, HE AT NO TIME ADVOCATED THE MAKING, OR ENFORCEMENT OF ANY LAW, EXCEPT THE LAW OF SELF-GOVERNMENT, as applied to the abuse of intoxicants in individual cases?

When he said "Woe unto him that putteth the bottle to his neighbor's lips," can't you see that it was not the "TRAFFIC" but the MEN WHO MISUSED IT, that were accursed? When he admonished the people against "tarrying long at the wine," using such vigorous language against intemperance as no man can equal, can't you see that his warning was NOT AGAINST THE USE OF THE WINE, BUT AGAINST THE ABUSE OF IT?

As my space is limited and advertising rates come high, I must confine this letter to such quotations of Scripture as can be paid for: "The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, BEHOLD A MAN GLUTTONOUS AND A WINE BIBBER, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children." Again, to quote the sayings of Paul: "For why is my LIBERTY judgment of another man's CONSCIENCE?" (Cor. 10-29.)

"But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith and meekness. Temperance; AGAINST SUCH THERE IS NO LAW." (Gal. parts of verses 19-21 22 and 23.)

Now, my enfranchised daughters of the modern day churches, for whose PERSONAL LIBERTY and that of other people I HAVE GIVEN LIFE, if there is enough of the spirit of ingratitude in your hearts to wean you from the above teachings of the Christ and his followers and to cause you to approve the FALSEHOOD, VULGARITY, HATE and INTOLERANCE which is displayed by the Anti-Saloon League in an open letter in the Evening Telegram of October 3, you will cast your votes with the spirit of Anti-Christ as displayed by the authority of the SELF ORGANIZED CONSPIRACY that gave it birth. But, by so doing, you will crucify the Savior of sinners afresh "and put him to open shame."

After the INTEMPERATE CRAZE OF PROHIBITION now going through the newly enfranchised states like a holocaust of fire, shall have exhausted itself, the advocates of GENUINE TEMPERANCE REFORM, including the Mother Sex, can go before the incoming Legislative assemblies of such states guided by the spirit of Christ, "who came to break every yoke and let the oppressed go free," where they can offer a solution of the evils we all complain of, WHICH MEN ALONE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO MEET AND CONQUER SINCE THE DAWN OF HISTORY.

VOTE 333 X NO

Dry towns will stay dry if the proposed prohibition amendment is defeated, and the present local option and home rule statutes will continue in force.

AN EDITORIAL

By OSWALD WEST
Governor of Oregon

OSWALD WEST

OREGON should go dry because there does not exist a single reason on earth why it should stay wet.

The war news from Europe strikes us with horror; yet this great war, with all its carnage, past, present and future, will not prove a drop in the bucket compared with the ravages which are being made throughout the land by booze.

We boast we are the greatest nation upon earth, and in our efforts to preserve this position we boast we must strive constantly to raise, or at least maintain, the standard of our citizenship, and to accomplish this end we must unceasingly fight organized greed and graft, stamp out poverty, vice and crime, protect the home and make life more pleasant for those who have been less fortunate than others. It is idle, however, to talk of progress along those lines so long as King Alcohol occupies the throne.

Who grabs the pay check from the honest workman on Saturday night and makes his wife and little ones go hungry?

Mr. Booze.

Who sows the seeds of poverty and distress everywhere?

Mr. Booze.

Who loads upon us most of our tax burdens?

Mr. Booze.

The Wets protest against our voting the state dry because it will close Paul Wessinger's brewery and be equivalent to the confiscation of his property, but they do not tell you how the brewery was built through the ruination of homes and the confiscation of pay checks. They do not tell you that every brick in the building represents a broken heart and the color of the building is emblematical of the blood which has dripped therefrom.

Whenever I think of the devil I think of booze, and whenever I think of booze I think of the devil, for the devil is booze and booze is hell.

Old Booze is an outlaw who has been long pursued but never subdued. At no time and under no circumstances should he be given quarter, and it is the duty of every good citizen to stand ready to sand-bag him whenever he sticks his head in sight. All Oregon will have a chance to sand-bag him on November 3, and for the Lord's sake let us make a good job of it.

IF YOU BELIEVE WITH GOVERNOR WEST, VOTE—

OREGON DRY, 332 X YES

DID NOT SIGN PETITION

Editor Times:

In looking over the pages of your paper last evening I noticed my name as one of the signatures for a wet ticket and would like to say in regard to this matter and to do justice to myself that I was never seen nor did I sign the petition.

Very respectfully,

WILL E. HOAGLAND

In fairness to the men who circulated the petition I desire to say that the petition was signed by Will Hoagland which was evidently mistaken for my name and there was apparently no desire to misrepresent me or a desire to do anything unfair.

SALVATION ARMY HELPS

Makes Hit With English Soldiers By Recreation Tents.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Salvation Army has made a hit with Tommy Atkins. Three thousand men may be seen any day at the recreation tent which the Salvation Army maintains at Colchester, devouring some twenty-five dozen pork pies, having a look at the magazines and newspapers, writing letters home, and occasionally participating in some religious service. But the demands for food have been so great that the Army has had little time for song or prayer.

The Colchester camp is only one of many where the Salvationists maintain these popular recreation tents for the volunteers. An appreciation of the work is instanced at Cambridge where Adjutant and Mrs. Windgate of the Salvation Army served the soldiers so faithfully that the colonel in command presented his dress sword to Adjutant Windgate. He and his wife particularly distinguished themselves in caring for some 150 wounded soldiers.

Commissioner Higgins, formerly in New York with Commander Eva Booth, directed the work of these recreation centers. In addition to service at home, there are five hundred selected Salvation Army officers who have offered themselves for work with the British Red Cross and stand ready to enter the field whenever needed.

Although the charges made for food and drink are very slight, General Booth estimates he can maintain a refreshment and amusement tent for a year on seven hundred and fifty dollars. The Salvationists charge only two cents a cup for tea and the same for bread and butter or a pork pie. Cool weather is making the tents unsatisfactory and movable buildings of corrugated iron are rapidly replacing the canvas shelters.

ENGLISH MAKE TOYS.

"Not Made in Germany" is Popular Trademark in Great Britain.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Nuremberg has been reproduced in Baker street, where the Woman's Emergency Corps has provided toy-making work for one hundred girls and women. The workers are paid $2.50 a week, but as soon as they become proficient they are put at piece work, which yields them a better income.

Doll houses, doll furniture, soldiers, animals and other toys made of wood form the greater part of the improvised toy factory's output. Fret saws have been installed and in an atmosphere of sawdust, glue and paint women who were recently typists or governesses are constructing playthings which will fill the stockings of English children formerly dependent on continental makers for their toys.

"Not Made in Germany" is the slogan some of the women paint on the other side of the toy carts and doll carriages which are going to the warehouses of English dealers.

PENSIONS FOR WIDOWS.

Five Shillings Per Week Is Allowance to Dead Soldier's Family.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Five shillings a week to the soldier's wife who has lost her husband in fighting his country's battles!

With this exclamation one of the leading London papers attacks editorially the government's pension system which it says is due to the old tradition summed up in Wellington's assertion that his troops in the Spanish campaign were only "the scum of the earth." The War Office, according to the writer, fails to realize that times are different now and the vast majority of volunteers are men who in civil life earned good wages in factory, field, office and shop.

Indignation has also been expressed in parliament, so that it is not unlikely some reform in pensions may follow.

In the British army the pay of officers and men is dependent on the regiment. There is no standard scale of pay as in America. Commissioned officers, as a rule, receive a sum impossible to live on—about $35 a month. They must have independent means, and in the crack regiments, such as the Scots Greys or the Grenadier Guards they must be wealthy. But in certain of the colonial troops doing police duty in lands bordered by savages, they must get as good pay as American officers and do not have to keep up expensive establishments.

The ordinary infantrymen in the new volunteer army of a million men, pledge to foreign service, are started off at $1.65 a week, clear of expenses. Married men are allowed in addition separation pay for their families at the rate of $1.90 a week for the wife and two pence a day—or 28 cents a week for each child. In the county of London they are given a further sum of 80 cents a week, owing to the higher cost of living.

All married soldiers serving are obliged to allot at least 85 a week to their families out of their own pay. Worked out on this scale the lowest sum a soldier's wife without children can receive is 23 shillings a week in the case of a warrant officer, 22 for a regimental quartermaster sergeant, 16 shillings six pence for corporal or private. If the wife has four children to support, she will receive on the same scale, a sum ranging from 35 to 22 shillings.

Widows of those who die on active service receive from five to ten shillings a week, according to the rank and pay of the husband. But the mass of them will not get over five shillings. An extra allowance varying from forty to fifty cents a week for each child is given, however.

While there are no government homes for old soldiers in Great Britain, as in the United States, there are certain homes maintained by private charity. Of these, the largest and most famous is in Chelsea, London. The garden party given at the Chelsea home for its benefit is one of the big social events of London's spring season.

Much suffering was caused by the government deferring payment of separation allowance to soldiers' wives during the first two months of the war. Not until October 1 was this money put into the hands of the destitute women. War office red tape also held up pay allotments.

AMONG THE SICK.

Kenneth Rust, son of W. J. Rust, is laid up with an injured ankle sustained in an auto accident the other day.

Andrew Landles, who is at Mercy Hospital, where he underwent an operation a few days ago, is reported to be doing nicely and will soon be able to return here.

J. C. Steckles' little son is confined to his bed in Eastside today.

Mrs. Edgar Mauzey was taken to the Mercy Hospital for treatment yesterday. She will be able to return to her home in a few days.

Mrs. J. M. Wright of South Fifth street is sick in bed today.

STOP THOSE EARLY BRONCHIAL COUGHS

They hang on all winter if not checked and pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and take it freely. Stops coughs and colds, heals raw inflamed throat, loosens the phlegm and is mildly laxative. "Chas. T. Miller, Ed. Enquirer, Cannelton, Ind., had bronchial trouble, got very hoarse, coughed constantly from a tickling throat. He used only Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Was entirely relieved.
