Theater Alterations.—Workmen have been busy today erecting a balcony in the Grand Theater which will increase the seating capacity of the building and painters are re-decorating the walls and ceiling.

Sells Grocery.—Chas. Baxter has returned from an over-Sunday trip to Coquille. He said that he understood F. C. True had taken over M. H. Hersey's half interest in the grocery business there.

One Place Wet.—Dal Cathcart, who has been busy figuring out election returns, says that so far as he can figure out, his sunken garden, inundated in the filling of Mill Slough, is about the only place that did not go "dry."

Improves Ranch.—Will Holland came over last evening from his ranch near Parkersburg. He states that they are milking sixteen cows and had a total of about sixty head on the place. They have about thirty fine shoats. He says that the hogs are doing fine on a big crop of rutabagas which he raised. He had about 200 tons of rutabagas on a single acre this year. Gus Heard is now at the ranch.

Landed in Wrong Pew.—Out for a good time and imbibing until they became unseaworthy, Andrew Hendrickson, Pete Olson and Matt Westman, crossed in over the bar last evening and were given temporary relief from the storm in the city jail. When they languished out the night and after appearing before Police Judge Butler this morning were told to hereafter take their views of the city through a

The Grand To-Night

The Geo. Kleine Attraction Company presents "OTHELLO." Truly a wonderful subject, made from the divine Shakespearean tragedy of the same name, staged at Venice, Italy, in the environment of the original, following closely the thread of Shakespeare's beautiful story. But—and here's the vital point—you need be no Shakespeare student to enjoy the wonders of this written story. All its dramatic power and intensity have been retained three-fold in the film version.

Made in five reels of pictures by the same company that produced "LAST DAYS OF POMPEII" and "QUO VADIS," ANTHONY AND CLEOPATRA and several other high class productions.

Prices the same as usual—Children 5c; Adults, 15c. COMING—THE LATEST WAR NEWS direct from the front, showing twice a week—the pictures we have been waiting for—first will be shown Saturday night.

To Have Basket Social.—The Napa-hanna Club of South Inlet has planned a basket social for Saturday night in the social hall down the bay.

Celebrate Anniversary.—In celebration of their twenty-fifth anniversary in the banking business on Coos Bay, the Flanagan & Bennett Bank has sent out printed messages to all their patrons thanking them for past favors.

Wed Last Night.—Harold Martin, driver on the Galovsen delivery line, and Miss Cora Marie Moody were married at North Bend last evening, the Rev. A. F. Hisey officiating. Hans Hanson was a witness of the ceremony. The bride's mother conducts a lodging house on Broadway near Anderson.

Wedded Here.—The marriage of Miss Elsie Hagemeteler and Paul M. Friedhofer was solemnized at the home of the bride's father Saturday evening, the Rev. B. F. Bengston officiating. About twenty-five friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony and participated in the wedding supper that followed. The groom is a musician from San Francisco, where the young couple will make their home.

Disobeyed Traffic Ordinance.—That Robert Evans disobeyed the traffic ordinance Sunday afternoon when he swung his car out beyond the street car track and crashed into the electric machine driven by E. A. Anderson, was the decision of Police Judge Butler this afternoon. Evans was fined $10. At the time of the accident Mr. Anderson declared his machine was in its rightful position. Evans claimed he had to make a long turn to avoid hitting a car near the curb and coming from the other direction.

TURKEY DAY FOOT BALL A CERTAINTY

Old 1912 Team of Marshfield High School to Struggle With Miles' Hopetuls

Reorganization of the old 1912 football team of the Marshfield High School was effected last evening at the Central School building and the challenge of the present high school team to a game on Turkey Day was accepted.

Guy Stulman was elected captain and Chauncey Clarke manager of the football squad and signal practice will be commenced this week to round the men into shape and give them the necessary drilling before matching brawn and grit with the hopefuls of Coach Niles that last week held the Coquille independents to a double goose-egg score.

That they have a hard struggle before them the old team men know and will use every chance of practice accordingly. Those who were present at the meeting of last evening were Larson, Walters, Stulman, S. Clarke, Berry, Johnson, Kruse, Fairchild and C. Clarke. Signal practice will be commenced this week. In addition to those attending last night's meeting several other players will be available.

The Methodist Brotherhood will hold a banquet in the church hall on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. All members and friends are invited. Bring your wife or lady friend with you. Hand in your name at once to Milo Sumner if you decide to come. Plates 50c each.

The Oregon City paper mills cut their time to five days per week, but shortened shifts to employ sixty more hands.
