THE LATEST WAR NEWS

(Edited and Selected by Dorsey Kretzer, J. T. Harrigan, a member of the Booster editorial force, refuses to assume any responsibility for this article.)

The Germans have taken Pilsner, and are now surrounding Dollenstessen, where the worst is expected. The Belgian Hares have had a falling out with the Welsh Rarebits, and the Swiss Cheese is shot full of holes.

This will make the Irish Stew and the English Mustard Hot, and if the Russian Caviar sees the French Pastry, it may start a Swiss Movement—Watch!

The Spanish Onions are strong for a pickup, and if the Home Preserves are called out and spread over the German Noodles, they may Ketchup with the Navy Beans, thereby causing an uprising of the Brussels Sprouts.—Mein Gott.

STORY FOR THE DAY

"We are attempting altogether too rapid a pace," remarked a Myrtle Point man to Frank Coban the other day.

"That's quite true," Frank answered. "Instead of being content to have the earth go round once in twenty-four hours, we'd like to have it go around twenty-four times in one hour."

IS THIS LABEL?

(Dedicated to A. L. H., by his friend, D. K.)

A lot of doctors voted dry. Although they like their nip.

Because they felt that business Needs a slightly upward lip. And so, though folks are healthy.

And will be so, I ween, Prescription writing will be good In Nineteen Sixteen.

In warfare trouble is the lot Of many and the Kaiser.

They try things that they cannot do And come out sad, but wiser.

The biggest thing that he has done —At that he is no geezer,

Was when he beat the Allies' back Who swarm along the Yser.

—Geo. Selig.

CENTRAL AVENUE SAYINGS

The mistakes of others would be more amusing if you had none of your own to answer for.

If people felt as tough every day in the week as they feel the morning after there would be little progress in the world.

Every man believes that if he could get capital interested, he could set the world on fire with his ideas.

MOTTO FOR THE DAY

No man ever succeeded permanently who tried to pull himself up by pulling the other fellow down.

AT ONE FELL SWOOP

"Have you got any of those preparations for removing superfluous hair?" asked Dave Stafford, stepping into the Owl Drug Store the other day.

"Yes Sir," answers Frank.

"Give me a pint. I want to use it on my head."

"Eet, Dave, you haven't got any superfluous hair on your head. You're nearly bald now."

"I know it. And I've got no aggravated and tired watching the confounded hair leaking off day by day that I want to remove the rest of it at one fell swoop and have the agony over."

PERSONAL MENTION

JACK KENDALL says: "The Progressive party is still on the offensive. Look at California."

RAY OLLIVANT made a trip to the waterfront Tuesday to see the boat come in.

W. J. CONRAD says some Coos Bay men marry a woman in order to escape loneliness and then join the Millieoma Club in order to escape the woman.

WALTER BUTLER, of the First National, returned this week from a vacation trip to California. He denies that his presence there had anything to do with the big wet vote in that section.

EUGENE CROTHWAITE made a trip to the Chandler the other day and talked Charlie Van Duyn into an order for some fancy candy boxes. Charlie says there is nothing too sweet for his cigar stand girls.

J. TOM HALL may contest the election because he has found so few people who didn't vote for him. He says the personal pledges he received from people in Couville indicate that there is something wrong with the returns from that precinct.

Geo. E. COOK, pioneer editor of The Booster, is a candidate for the City Council, and of course has the unqualified approval of The Booster. We never did suspect George of politics, but you never can tell what disease a man will catch when it becomes contagious.

CENTRAL AVENUE JOTTINGS

A Cheering Message.—J. T. Harrigan says he has just received a message from King George saying that Henry Sengstacken need not be worried if the Germans were compelled to retreat at almost any minute.

Talk War.—Roy Werlich came down from North Bend Tuesday to talk over the war situation with Harry McKeown. But as Roy favored the Germans and Harry McKeown the Allies, they could not agree and Roy returned to North Bend a madder but a Kaiser man.

Is Popular Now.—Dr. E. V. Morrow received a handsome new Cadillac on the Breakwater Thursday and says if he had any doubt about the extent of his acquaintance it has been dispelled. Everyone at Central wants to try that new car.

Politics in Oklahoma.—D. T. Flynn, the well-known Oklahoma politician, was a visitor on Central avenue this week, where he has been a guest of Wm. Grimes. Mr. Flynn gave the Booster reporter an interview on the political situation in that state, but the language was so warm that when the reporter tried to transcribe it the typewriter keys melted. D. T. says he is not in politics any more.

There was an old fellow in Worcester, Who was annoyed by a loud-voiced booster.

So he cut off his head And now that it's dead It don't crow as loud as it used.

—D. Y. Stafford.

MAN'S LOVE OF ANIMALS

Some men are fond of animals; Their souls are full of pity. At any rate, they sit up late To fatten up the "kitty."

THE TWO OBSTRUCTIONS

"Take off your hat!" Rude men behind her cried, And she (just think of it) complied. But they were still unsatisfied, And yelled with their mouths open wide.

THE EMOTIONAL THIRTEEN

A girl from St. Louis, Mo., Was seized with a terrible fo. She killed about three, But got off scot free. For her looks made a hit with the jo.
