And I—I cannot find thee anywhere!
I roam from star to star in search of thee;
I wander through the boundless fields of air,
And by the crystal sea.

I scan all faces and I question all; I breathe thy name to every wind that blows;
Through the wide silences I call and call—
But still the silence grows.

Dost thou remember how, one midnight dream,
We sat before a fading fire alone, Dreaming young dreams the while the wan old year Reeled from thy trembling throne?

And thou didst whisper, "Dear, from farthest skies, From utmost space my love shall summon thee
Though the grave-mould lie darkly on thine eyes,
To keep this tryst with me!"

Was it last year? O Love, I do not know!
The high gods count not time. We are as they.
All silently the tides of being flow;
A year is as a day!

I only know I cannot find thee, dear!
dear!
This mighty universe is all too wide;
Where art thou? In what far-re-moted sphere
Is thought of me denied?

JOLLY DOZEN.
The old woman who lived in a shoe has been discredited. The up to date matron must walk in a barrel.

Fashion has decreed the hoopskirt and the barrel muff, half a muff to a sleeve, each as capacious as a traveling bag.

Mildly may carry her wardrobe on an entire afternoon's shopping in her sleeve this winter if she is what the modistes wish to make her.

Evening coatsleeves with muffs sewed on them and hats crowned with the popular fur band are suggestions of the weekly style bulletin of the Fashion Art League of America. "The war seems to have made no difference as to the amount of fur used in the trimming of out of door and indoor costumes this winter," the bulletin reads.

"Muffs are not as enormous as they have been, some being really small. The barrel-shaped muff is the newest, but not as becoming as the flat shapes. One of seal made in the shape of a pouch bag is a novelty and useful. Evening coat sleeves with wide bands of fur that form a muff when the hands are slipped into the wrist of the opposite sleeve, are more convenient than carrying a muff to dances, dinners, theaters and social functions.

"The separate scarf has largely given way to the small one, or the high stock collar with coat buttoned to the throat. With this is worn one flower or a small boutonniere close up to the collar on the left side.

"Hats also are showing a band of fur around the crown to match the suff trimming.

"The furs mostly in favor this winter are caracul, fox, skunk and

PROGRESS CLUB.

The Progress Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. R. H. Corey Monday, the subject, "Our National Capital and Two Neighboring Cities" being handled by Mrs. F. W. Payne, Mrs. A. L. Butz, Mrs. R. K. Booth and Mrs. E. G. Faganagan. In the course of business the club endorsed the work of the Ladies' Art Club in adopting resolutions pointing toward the adoption of plans furthering City Beautiful work by the concerted action of the women's clubs of the town, and appointed Mrs. Butz, Mrs.
Adelsperger and Mrs. Dan Maloney a committee to meet with similar committees from the various other clubs to this end. In the last social half hour Mrs. Corey served chocolate and sandwiches to the members present, among whom were Mrs. A. E. Adels-perger, Mrs. W. M. Blake, Mrs. A. L.

CAFETERIA CLUB.

Mrs. W. F. McEldowney plans to resume the meetings of the Cafeteria Club postponed since last winter by entertaining its members next Wednesday at her home.

CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m., Friday of each week. (Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where the events occurred later than the time mentioned.)

BROTHERHOOD BANQUET.

The Marshfield Methodist Brotherhood Wednesday evening tendered a program and banquet at the church hall. There was a large turnout for the event, and a fine spread was enjoyed after an excellent program. F. E. Allen presided as toastmaster and the program included the following:
Talk by Rev. H. H. North Bend, J. E. Ross, "The Relation of Boy to Man."

RAINBOW CLUB.

Mrs. S. C. Rogers entertained the Rainbow Club at her home on South Coos River on Thursday last. The house was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and all present enjoyed in paying tribute to the woman who numbers all who know her as the most intimate of friends by the kindly deeds that she has strewn along life's pathway when age did not offer the impediment to lending a helping hand. Sewing, music and social chat were followed by a bountiful dinner. After the meeting the club adjourned for three weeks, when they will meet with Mrs. James Landrith. Those enjoying Mrs. Rogers' hospitality were Miss Rose Smith, and Miss Ruth Dyer.

MOTHERS AND TEACHERS.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the Central School. It will be the regular monthly session. The meeting will open with a drill by the pupils of Mrs. Sleep's room and there will be an instrumental solo by Milton Johnson. Five minute talks will be given as follows:
"Diseases of the Throat and Lungs," Mrs. George Hazer.
"Intestinal Diseases," Mrs. Edgar McInturff.
"Diseases We Have But Once, and Why," Mrs. Fitzpatrick.
"Causes of Headache," Mrs. L. O.
Anderson.
"Insects as a Menace," Mrs. Wm.
Nelson.
"Practical Sanitation," Supt. A. G.
Raab.
Vocal solo by Miss Nellie Nicholson.

DELICATEL AFTERNOON.

Mrs. Dan Keating entertained on Wednesday at a most pleasant afternoon. It was the first of a series of afternoons which Mrs. Keating has planned. The house was artistically decorated with green huckleberries and flowers. Mrs. Earl Savage assisted the hostess in serving a dainty luncheon. Those present were Mrs. Neil McMillan, Mrs. Chas. Fens-ler, Mrs. Francis Gorr, Mrs. J.
Hill, Mrs. A. S. Blanchard, Mrs. J. held Thursday, October 19th.

PLAN SOCIAL.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold a sale at the church hall on Saturday evening, December 5th. The committee in charge of the sale consists of Mrs. Marie Ogren, Mrs. C. J. Hillstrom, Miss Selma Edwards, Mrs. Wm.
Asplund, Mrs. Chas. Thorwald and Mrs. A. Storgard.

L. T. L.

The L. T. L. Society of the Baptist Young People held a business meeting and the first of a series of three debates Tuesday evening at the church rooms. Frank Howe, vice-president, presided. The question:
"Resolved, That Germany Was the Real Aggressor in the Present War" was upheld on the affirmative by Lee Byerly and Harold Bargel, on the negative by Leland Shrode and Chas. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. G. L.
Hall and Mr. J. T. Brand, the judges, save the decision to the negative. A similar debate will be held on the second Tuesday of December by four of the girls of the society. Following the debate a solo was sung by Mrs.
Edwin Dolan. The quarterly banquet will be given jointly with the debate on the second Tuesday in December. Misses Emma Quaternass and Thora Lund and Mrs. Edwin Dolan are the committee on reception and entertainment, acting together with the refreshment committee on which are Misses Grace Folsom, Lillian Cook and Besse Faganagan. Among those attending the meeting of the L. T. L. Tuesday last in addition to the debaters and judges were Misses Faganagan, Emma Quaternass, Alpha Mauzey and Helen McLaughlin and Messrs. Edwards, Williamson and Howe.

ROYAL AUCTION.

The Royal Auction Bridge Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. E. E. Straw. It recently resumed its meetings after a several months' adjournment. It was decided Tuesday not to meet again until January when Mrs. R. K. Booth will be hostess and when the club will be increased to sixteen members. Tuesday, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy won the prize. In serving the hostess was assisted by Mrs. R. K. Booth. Those present were Mrs. Dorsey Kretzer, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Mrs. J. T.
Harrigan, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs.

Hague and Mrs. F. K. Gettings.

LADIES' ART CLUB.

The Ladies' Art Club enjoyed a delightful session Friday afternoon with Mrs. A. S. Blanchard at her home on South Fifth street. Oregon grape and chrysanthemums were used effectively in the decorations. During the afternoon, Mrs. W. S. Smith favored them with a number of piano selections. In serving, Mrs. Blanche-ard was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Foley and Mrs. Smith. The next meeting will be held next Friday with Mrs.
James Cowan. Those enjoying Mrs.
Blanchard's hospitality included Mrs.
F. M. Flye, Mrs. J. A. Blatt, Mrs. W.

Houseworth, Mrs. Olivia Edman, Mrs.
W. H. Foley, Mrs. W. R. Smith, Mrs.
L. G. Lang and Mrs. Chas. LaChap-elle.

THIMBLE CLUB.

The North Bend Thimble Club braved a triple hoodoo yesterday when thirteen members met on Friday, the 13th, with Mrs. H. E. Burnester. However, instead of proving an ill omen, it proved a forerunner for seldom if ever have the club members enjoyed a more delightful afternoon. In serving the hostess was assisted by Mrs. H. J. Linden.
The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. M. G. Coleman.
Those present yesterday were Mrs. I.
B. Bartie, Mrs. A. B. Derbyshire, Mrs.
M. E. Everett, Mrs. F. E. Glazier, Mrs.
S. Jennings, Mrs. C. S. Kuisner, Mrs. Fred Kruse, Mrs. H. J. Linden, Mrs. J. G. Mullen, Mrs. E. F. Russell and Mrs. Wm. Vaughan.

EVENING PARTY.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs.
L. F. Falkenstein entertained a number of friends at cards and dancing at their home at North Bend. At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Broughton, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Burmeister, Misses Nora, Gurea and Trina Hage and Kate Anthony and Messrs. Ted Kissam, Allan Kissam and W. Phillips.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Tuesday evening Mrs. R. N. Lewis of North Bend was treated to a delightful surprise party in honor of her birthday anniversary. Music and other diversions made the evening pass quickly. Refreshments followed and later the assemblage presented her with a fine bible. Among those present were Miss Nicholson, Mrs.
Chas. Murray, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs.
Renschhausen, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. N. C. Mc-Leod, Mrs. E. T. Coffelt, Mrs. E. J.
Coffelt, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cavanaugh.

BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Henry Hoeck entertained a few friends Tuesday evening at their home in North Bend in honor of the birthdays of her husband and their daughter, Margaret. Cards, music and other diversions were followed by refreshments and the presentation of a number of gifts. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Hoeck, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Diers, Mr. and Mrs. Helms, Mrs. G. Larson, Esther Wann, Johanna Imhoff and Gladys Larson.

BAPTIST LADIES' AID

Mrs. B. H. Patchett entertained the Baptist Ladies' Aid Wednesday at an afternoon devoted to needlework, serving a delicious luncheon, after an hour of social converse. A

M. E. MISSIONARY TEA

The M. E. Missionary Society will give a tea at the church next Wednesday afternoon under the charge of its president, Mrs. M. R.
Smith.

PHILATHEA SOCIETY

The Sunday School class of Miss Alice Tvekol organized Tuesday evening at the Baptist church, changing the name of Junior Philathea Society and becoming enrolled as a chapter of the National organization of that name. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs.
Downs; Vice-president, Ruth Mc-Laughlin; secretary, Mary McLaughlin; treasurer, Velma Ross; Marjorie Fulmer. Other members of the class present were: Frances Lann, Esther Cotton, Hazel
