BORN.

SNYDER—To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Snyder Wednesday, November 18, twins, a girl and boy. Mr. Snyder is employed at McDonald & Vaughan's Blue Ridge camp. Mother and children are doing nicely.

Move Camp—P. J. Sheehan came in from the Smith-Powers camp on the new railroad today for a short stay while they are moving the camp to Wagner.

Injures Arm—Ivy Condon is suffering from a bruised and swollen wrist sustained while cranking his auto. At first it was feared that his arm had been broken. The crank kicked back when he was turning it.

Work on Railroad—F. B. Waite, who is here from Sutherlin, says that they have work well under way on the first six miles of the logging road east from Sutherlin. There is little doing on the extension this way with the exception that they are planning to put a survey crew into the field on the summit this winter.

New Elk—At a meeting of the Marshfield lodge of Elks last evening Albert Abbott was initiated into membership. There was a good turnout to see that he got all that was coming to him. A committee consisting of George Goodrum, W. S. Turpen, T. E. Harvey and W. G. Chandler was appointed to look into some club propositions.

Shruff Here—Sheriff Gage came over from Coquille today. He said that there was no new criminal business except the robbery here last night. Mrs. Clyde Gage who is in California, is improving and will return soon. Neither he nor Clyde Gage have determined what they will do when they retire from office.

Serves Complaint—Sheriff W. W. Gage came over from Coquille to serve a complaint and summons on Captain Wheeler. His wife has filed suit in the circuit court asking that she be granted $250 attorney fees, $25 suit money and $50 a month alimony pending the outcome of the suit in which she asked permanent support.

Are Married—Before Justice of the Peace Pennock Oscar Hybannen was united in matrimony to Miss Eva Lydy Kainen, both of whom are from Coos Bay. They expect to make their home here. Two days ago the couple were to have been married. The marriage license was secured from Coquille, but through a mistake of one of the clerks the name of a witness was filled in in place of that of the groom and the marriage was halted until the mistake was rectified.

A CHARMING WEDDING TODAY

Happy Culmination of Pretty Romance at the Rolf Nerdrum Residence

This morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rolf Nerdrum occurred the wedding of Carl Frederick Neovius and Miss Alice Kuri. Both young people are Finnish, the groom being employed in the office of the pulp mill and the bride until recently in the offices of a physician. Mr. Neovius is the son of a general in the Finnish army and his bride is the daughter of a captain in the Finnish army and the marriage is the culmination of a pretty romance. Both are graduates of the University at Helsingfors, Finland.

The Rev. H. F. Bengtson performed the ceremony and the parlors of the Nerdrum residence were beautifully decorated for the occasion, a color scheme of green and white being carried out. The bride was typically and becomingly gowned in dress elaborated with white embroidery and wore a veil with bridal wreath.

After the wedding a delicious wedding feast was served, which carried out in every way the Finnish customs. Speeches were made by Messrs. Hjalte and Rolf Nerdrum and Joel Ostlund, who also contributed music to the happy occasion.

The young people will take up their residence at the Myrtle Arms, where they will be at home to their friends.

Those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Rolf Nerdrum, Mr. and Mrs. Hjalte Nerdrum and Joel Ostlund.

SENATORS WILL VISIT COQUILLE

Plan to Visit Myrtle Point, Coquille and Bandon Tomorrow—Return in Evening

Senators Lane and Chamberlain will leave tomorrow morning to visit Bandon, Coquille and Myrtle Point. A special boat will meet them at the train and take them to Bandon, where they will meet the Bandon Port Commissioners and look the situation over. Then they will return to Coquille for a short stay and then go to Myrtle Point, returning on the evening train. Possibly a number of Coos Bay men will accompany them.

They want to get in touch with all the harbor and river work. Later they plan to visit Port Orford and Senator Lane expressed the hope that they would be able to get an appropriation for starting the Port Orford breakwater.

Entertained Here
 Yesterday L. J. Simpson met the Senators and last evening entertained them informally at dinner at his home in North Bend. Besides the guests of honor, Hugh McLean, C. F. McKnight, J. W. Bennett, C. S. Windsor and Capt. Edgar Simpson were present.

Friday evening Senators Lane and Chamberlain will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sengstacken.

H. C. DIERS and J. P. Morris, of North Bend, were Marshfield visitors today.

CHAS. THOM, of the North Bend brewery, was in Marshfield today on business.

MRS. HARRY MANN, of North Bend, was a Marshfield shopper today.
