MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

RED CROSS
BENEFIT AT MASONIC OPERA HOUSE
NOVEMBER 27

The Masonic Lodge has very kindly donated the use of the Masonic Opera House on Friday evening of next week, when a musical concert is to be given for the relief of the Red Cross work in the war zone of Europe. The matter was brought up before the lodge by Mr. Mair Dano, and the lodge most gladly gave their consent to the use of the hall, as everyone who is to take part in the concert is giving their talent free. Prof. Gjerdrum has the matter in charge and hopes that a full house may turn out, not only to hear the good music, but also to help in a most worthy cause. The tickets have been placed low, so that everyone may help. Adults, 50c; children 25c.

The program for the Red Cross Benefit Concert is now arranged. All of the performers have happily chosen numbers which will bring life and variety to the entertainment.

Mrs. Mayme Stanley Gidley will sing a group of our songs, all different in style, from the dramatic "Autumn Song," by Mary Turner Salter, to the sweet and lyrical "A Little Pink Rose" by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

Mrs. Roy E. Miller will sing songs by Charles Wakefield Cadman, Liza Lehman and Charles Willeby, and will also sing a solo in one of the choral numbers.

Miss Edna Larson will play one of Wieniawski's brilliant mazurkas.

Mr. Benj. Ostlund will give two numbers on the program and will sing these in his native tongue—Swedish.

Henrik Gjerdrum will open the concert with two light numbers from Beethoven. Later in the program he will play first piano in the Sliding "Variations"—an exceedingly taxing and brilliant number. Miss Larson plays the second piano in this interesting composition.

The Chaminade Club's appearance will add greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., the club will sing four numbers.

Church the anthem will be "Saviour, When Night Involves the Skies," by Shelley. The contralto solo in this anthem will be sung by Miss Esther Johnson.

On Thanksgiving Day there will be special music at the Episcopal church, the services being at 11 a. m.:

Processional, Hymn 193, "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come" . . . Elvey
Chant . . . . . Dupuis
Te Deum (Festival) . . . . . Buck
Jubilate Deo . . . . . Brackett
Hymn 477, "O Lord of Heaven" . . . Dykes

Soprano Solo, "Thanksgiving" . . . Cowen
Mrs. Roy Everitt Miller.
Hymn 192, "Praise to the Lord, O Jerusalem" . . . . . Maunder

Presentation of Alms, "Holy Offerings, Rich and Rare" . . . Redhead
Recessional, Hymn 196, "Our Father's God, to Thee"
Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., organist and choir director.

The Chaminade Club, under the direction of Mrs. William Horsfall Jr., will sing the following choruses at the Red Cross Benefit Concert, Friday, November 27th:

"A Song of Seasons" by Hawley;
"Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground" by Kittredge; "Chanson Provencale" by Dell'Asqua and "Carmena" by Wilson. The "Chanson Provencale" is a soprano solo, with chorus accompaniment. This solo is sung by Mrs. Roy Everitt Miller in a highly artistic manner, being so well suited to her most beautiful voice.

The Chaminade Club met Friday morning for their regular weekly rehearsal and business meeting. Most of the time was devoted to chorus work for the Red Cross concert. Every member of the club was present, those attending being Miss Anderson, Miss Ayre, Mrs. Ballinger, Mrs. Coke, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Conway, Mrs. Dano, Mrs. Ekblad, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Gidley, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Horsfall, Mrs. Jones, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Knotts, Misses Myren, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Ostlund, Miss Preston, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Sengstacken, Mrs. Stauff, Mrs. Sweetman, Mrs. Walter and Mrs. Wilson.

There was a good attendance at the school exhibition at the Masonic Opera House last evening, when a musical program by the first four grades of the Central building and an operetta by the fifth and sixth grade pupils of the High school building was presented. The first part of the evening was under the direction of Misses' Graham, O'Connor, Watson and Corning and Mrs. Wilbur while Miss Volz directed the operetta. The audience was most appreciative and the efforts of the children were enthusiastically applauded. The program was as follows:

Part I.
Primary Songs, Central First Grades.
Japanese Drill, Central Third and Fourth Grade Girls.
Dumb Bell Drill, Central Third and Fourth Grade Boys.
"The Rainy Daisies," Central Second Grade.
