In accordance with our annual custom we are giving a fine young ranch turkey to everyone who makes a purchase of $15.00 or more.

We believe we proved to the public during our recent clearance sale that this store stands almost alone in giving a maximum of value for the money and we are going to show our appreciation of the immense patronage received during the past 10 days by giving away 9-pound turkeys.

Official Paper of Coos County.

GOOD TIMES AHEAD.
BUGLE note of optimism for the immediate future of prosperity in the west is sounded by the Milwaukee railroad. Disregarding talk about hard times, it has let the contract for the expenditure of $13,000,000 during the coming four years on electrification of the system in the mountain area. Immediate preparation for this work is to be made between Harlowtown in Montana and Avery in Idaho. The work heralds the day when electricity will have replaced steam as the motive power on American railways.

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

GOOD EVENING.
Nations should adopt a plan of settling disputes. . . All wars are expensive and very mischievous.—Benjamin Franklin.

SMILE.

When the day is dreary
That's the time to smile
With your laughter cheery
Dreary hours beguile.

When your heart is aching
Sing instead of fret;
Though your heart is breaking,
'Twill help you to forget.
—James Wells.

An idea in some Coos Bay people's heads would get awful lonesome.

Some Coos Bay people's minds are like a sponge—they give forth only what has been soaked into them.
