Buy's Business.

J. S. Stevens has purchased the interests of his partner, Mr. Goldworthy, in the Parlan Cleaning and Dyeing Works Eastside Service.—There will be preaching at the Eastside school house Monday night at 7:30 by Rev. Easford.

Gets Many Ducks.

Arthur McKeown returned home yesterday from the man hills north of North Inlet with twenty-five ducks. He declares the hunting there is better than ever this year.

Ties Up Money.

Constable Cox went to Henryville this morning to serve papers of garnishment on John Frame, who is made the defendant in a suit brought by the Farmers' and Merchants Bank of Coquille for $100. An account of $100 in the First National Bank here has been garnished.

Cuts Foot.

Charles Battell was brought down from Hoeck's Camp in Smith Basin Saturday evening suffering from a cut foot, an accident that happened by a slip of the axe while working in the woods. The doctor dressed the wound and Battell was able to return again to camp, although he will be unable to work for several days.

Move Grocery Store.

All day yesterday and today men have been busy transferring the stock of goods of the Stauff Grocery store from the old location at the corner of Commercial and Front streets into the building formerly occupied by Rust's abstract office, which has been newly remodeled inside. Norton & Hansen will enlarge their business in the building formerly occupied by the Stauff Grocery.

To Elect Officers.

A meeting of the Men's Fellowship Club has been called for Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. In addition to this the members will discuss the proposed Coffee Club or Workmen's Club, plans for which are later to be presented to the City Council asking their cooperation.

Fence Right of Way.

Tom Coke, who has just finished the construction of the telephone line along the new Smith-Powers road beyond Myrtle Point, spent Sunday with his family here. They have put in a line 'phone line which will connect up all the new camps and also be used in operating trams. Mr. Coke will now start fencing the right of way and will have even a bigger job than he had on the 'phone line.

No Reserved Seats.

Because of the fact that many tickets are being sold out of town the ladies who are selling tickets for the Red Cross Benefit Concert on next Friday evening find that it is impossible for them to reserve the seats. There will be experienced ushers on the floor to see that all have seats and everything is being done to make the concert a success from all standpoints. The financial committee consists of Rev. Browning, Bennett Swanton and H. G. Glerdrum.

Council Meeting Tonight.

There will be a meeting of the City Council this evening after a vacation of two weeks. The city fathers will be asked to donate $500 from the city treasury to the fund which furnishes the Coos and Curry County exhibits to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. This sum will be asked at the rate of $50 a month for the next six months. Altogether $5000 is being raised in the two counties for the big fair.

Had No Lights.

Because he ventured on the streets after dark riding his motorcycle without lights, Victor Beck was arrested and Saturday evening after work appeared before Police Judge Butler and then told his troubles. The Judge listened attentively and then fined Beck $5 for the offense. The police are vigilant in their lookout for bicycle riders without lights, this being the second punishment meted out this week.

Too Much Joywater.

"Drunk and disorderly" was the charge laid against R. Lige, who cut up great capers Saturday evening, having consumed the contents of his "Sunday bottle" long before the allotted time. Yesterday he spent a good share of his time in the city jail, dry all the while. He was let out and hurried away rejoicing. Frank Durke, who claims no relationship to the famous Durke Sauce manufacturer, also got in the wrong "pew" and he likewise kept Lige company for a similar length of time.

PORT MAY SEND DELEGATE EAST

Portland Would Have Coos Bay Represented in Eastern Congress

That they are completely out of Coos Bay booklets and are extremely anxious for more, is the gist of a letter received today from the Portland Chamber of Commerce. "Coos Bay booklets," runs the letter from Secretary Edmond C. Giltner, "do you more good on our coasts than in your own organization." A shipment will be sent to the Portland body on the next boat.

Also the northern Chamber of Commerce is anxious to know whether or not Coos Bay will have a delegate to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, December 9, 10 and 11, in Washington, D. C. This matter will be taken up by the Port Commission at a special meeting to be called for this purpose.

To the Portland Chamber of Commerce come constant inquiries regarding Coos Bay, and through these booklets, declare the members there, they are able to do much in spreading information regarding this section, and with the coming of the Panama Pacific Exposition crowds to the coast the booklets will be more in demand than before. So far more than 400 of these have been distributed in the north.

JEWETTS WILL IS FILED FOR PROBATE

Gardiner Mill Magnate Left Bulk of Property to Widow—Valued at $150,000

The following from a Roseburg paper will be of interest, but there is evidently an error in the valuation, as it is generally believed the Jewett estate will considerably exceed a million:

The will of the late W. F. Jewett, of Gardiner, was admitted to probate here, in which about $150,000 in Douglas county property and considerable in California were left to the widow, a son and minor daughter. The instrument was dated February 20, 1914, and by its terms N. J. Cornwall, J. P. Christie and Oscar B. Hinsdale were appointed executors. In the interest of the minor daughter, Miss Narcissa Jewett, Oscar Hinsdale was appointed guardian, and Thomas W. Angus, William S. Angus and Louis Seymour appraisers. The estate is to be divided among the heirs by the widow taking sixty per cent and the son 20 per cent and the daughter ten per cent of the property.

EASTSIDE CAUCUS TOMORROW NIGHT

Four Cooston Men Make Bid for Two Council Positions—Many to Come.

For the nomination of three councilmen, a city marshal and a recorder the city caucus of Eastside will be held tomorrow evening in the city hall across the Bay. A delegation is expected from Cooston to endorse the candidacy of L. G. Meeks and G. M. Bailey for the two offices and from another source agitation arose in favor of Mr. Isaacson and Mr. Mercer. It is expected that both sides will make an effort tomorrow evening at the meeting in Eastside to secure the nomination of their men.

For city recorder of Eastside there appear two candidates in the field, C. P. Keating, the present incumbent, and Mr. Weaver, who ran as Socialist candidate for county judge at the last election.

The three councilmen to be elected on December 8 will hold office for a term of three years.

TAKES MONEY FOR TREATMENT, SKIPS

Madame Viola Pasteur and Companion Slip Away With Hundreds of Dollars

To relieve her patients of their money and not their pain were the tactics followed by Madame Viola Pasteur, who came here last week and after clever talks on the street before a crowd attracted through the juggling tricks of Roy White, who escorted her, claimed she could make miraculous cures of skin diseases. Dozens of men flocked to her offices in the Lloyd Hotel and paid their money in advance. Hundreds of dollars were taken in and Friday morning early the couple left, presumably by way of Gardiner. Today several of the men bunked interviewed Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist relative to a warrant arresting the fake doctors.

Dressed in a college cap and gown, Madame Pasteur, mounted on a soap box on Front street, for several days told of cures she had made. While her companion would then exhibit a badly scarred leg, declaring his life had been saved by Madame Pasteur, "the brightest woman in the world."

Following these talks, patients were invited to the "doctor's" office, where they were relieved of their money in amounts varying from $5 up to $50 and given a box of brown medicine. The couple left behind them a trunk, stating they were going for but a few days and would return. Officers found that the trunk was empty. It is thought that they left under the name of Dorris.

SCHOOL TAX LEVY NOT EXORBITANT

Marshfield and North Bend Taxpayers Listen to Annual Budget Reports.

At the Central school building Saturday evening the annual tax levy for school district number nine was made after having been estimated from the figures submitted by Judge John Hall. There will be necessary a tax levy of 11.8 mills to meet a $37,000 expense, and also a levy of 1.8 mills to pay off a $1000 bond and $3,685 of interest. There were present but eight taxpayers in addition to the school board and no opposition was made to the tax.

In North Bend a similar meeting was held and a tax of 15 mills was voted. By this there will be raised a special tax of $18,000. Of the 15-mill levy, 12.5 mills is expected to raise $18,000 for the support of the schools, and the remainder of the levy, 2.5 mills, is for a $3000 fund to pay the interest on outstanding school bonds.

For the support of their school North Bend has an annual sum of $29,000, the last $11,000 of which is raised from the county and state appropriations. There were 46 taxpayers present at the annual meeting and a vote on the levy resulted in 31 in favor and seven against.
