CITY MANAGEMENT.

THE broad policy to be followed in city affairs should be determined by the taxpayers, just as it is determined by the stockholders in private corporations. The people of a city should have the same opportunity to know what is being done that the stockholders in a private business have to know about its affairs.

"COMMUNITY SERVICE WEEK."

NOW comes North Carolina with a new sort of state celebration. It bears the uplifting name of "Community Service Week," but there isn't anything vague or impractical in what the promoters aim to accomplish, and in the way they are going about it.

The president of the state university started it. (And by the way, isn't it queer how many good things are started nowadays by college presidents?) After the usual road mending period last year, this educator wanted to know:

CARDWELL REAL DRY.

Roseburg Attorney Would Shut the Booze Out of Oregon.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 25.—In an interview, W. W. Cardwell, Representative-elect from Douglas county, said that he was averse to supporting the "half-way" measure which the prohibition element of Oregon propose to have enacted into a law by the State Legislature at its next session.

That part of the proposed measure objected to by Mr. Cardwell is the clause allowing persons to keep liquor in their private homes and dispense it at their private tables. This part of the proposed enactment, Mr. Cardwell says, will defeat enforcement of prohibition in this state.

"I am in favor of a law making it a felony to manufacture, sell or have in your possession any intoxicating liquor of any kind or nature within the state."

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

GOOD EVENING.

When we come to the end of life it is not the wisdom we have acquired or the wealth we have gained, or the fame we have won, that we like to remember, but the love we have given and received.—Selected.

WHILE THE YEARS ARE GOING BY.

There are lonely hearts to cherish While the years are going by; There are weary souls who perish, While the years are going by; If a smile we can renew, As our journey we pursue, Oh, the good that we may do, While the years are going by.

There's no time for idle scolding, While the years are going by; Let your face be like the morning, Both in shade and shine will grow, And will keep our hearts aglow, While the years are going by.

While the years are going by; Oh, the world is full of sighs, Full of sad and weeping eyes; Help your fallen brothers rise, While the years are going by.

All the loving links that bind us While the years are going by; One by one we leave behind us, While the years are going by; But the seeds of good we sow, —o—

For pointers on insect life, consult a beehive. There never was a real triumph without a Tri.

A false friend is a brass link in a golden chain. Sometimes the marriage knot is only a half hitch.

No wonder so many girls are giddy, If love really makes the world go round.

A man must be in an awful hurry if he can't stop to watch a dog fight. Are Cochon China and Plymouth Rock eggs the easiest to hard boil?

Have you noticed how many girls become left-handed after the engagement?

A man's boast that he has no vanity proves that he has.

A girl is never happy until she falls in love and then she is miserable.

Lots of good men have had sons, but it's a poor rule that don't work both ways.

The more women talk about their clothes the fewer they wear.

A man who is careless about directions when he expectorates is not hen-pecked.

DOUGLAS COUNTY TURKEY CROP BIG

Over 20,000 Thanksgiving Birds Shipped From Roseburg and Vicinity

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 24.—That Douglas county has again this year maintained its reputation as a turkey raising section is indicated in the fact that 12,400 birds were purchased last week for the Thanksgiving trade.

A summary of the purchases reported indicated that the weight of the 12,400 birds shipped from here totaled 147,400 pounds, and brought the retailers $25,131.70. Local dealers predict that not less than 5000 additional birds were to be shipped, thereby bringing up the total number of turkeys shipped from Douglas county for the Thanksgiving trade to 17,500.

That part of the proposed measure objected to by Mr. Cardwell is the clause allowing persons to keep liquor in their private homes and dispense it at their private tables. This part of the proposed enactment, Mr. Cardwell says, will defeat enforcement of prohibition in this state.

"Oregon has voted 'dry' and it should be made absolutely 'dry,'" said Attorney Cardwell. "And I propose to see that a bill is enacted by the Legislature making it 'dry.' No half-way measure can gain my support.

Continuing, Mr. Cardwell said; STAUFF'S GROCERY is now located in its NEW QUARTERS, two doors from Hilger's corner on Front street. PHONE 101.

TROUBLE AT GARDINER.

One Arrested for Bootlegging and Others Are Subpoenaed.

Constable A. R. Smith, through the sheriff's office, has started a crusade against the bootleggers of this vicinity. Armed with search warrants, he visited several shacks and boat houses in search of booze Tuesday morning. He arrested a man by the name of Orr, charging him with unlawfully selling liquor in dry territory.

Henry Boye, Will Boye, Nels Berkman, George Orr, Frank Seymour and John Henderson have been subpoenaed as witnesses to appear before the grand jury relative to bootlegging. Fred Brown and one or two others had already been called before the grand jury for the same purpose. The first mentioned left Tuesday evening.—Gardiner Courier.
