

THANKSGIVING

We say this to ourselves

"BE just as glad to see the man who comes in to use the phone as if he came to buy a complete wardrobe."

"Make the actual selling of merchandise secondary; the customer's satisfaction must come first."

"A man must never cease to be glad he came into our store."

"Have on hand a complete stock of the finest merchandise obtainable; goods such as Hart Schaffner & Marx make."

These things we demand for you; we believe we've lived up to our ideals better than ever before; we're thankful.

BORN

ELKHOLM.—To Mr. and Mrs. Darse Elkholt, on South Broadway, last evening, a 9-1-2 pound boy. This is their first child and both mother and son are doing well.

Auto to Port Orford.—Glen Rozelle and wife left Empire Tuesday in their auto for a trip to Port Orford and made the trip almost without a hitch in ten hours. They report the roads in good shape. They expect to return home tomorrow for their Thanksgiving turkey.

Cannery Closes.—The salmon cannery at Prosper has closed down for the season and on the noon train from Coquille were eighteen Chinamen on their way here after the season's work. They expect to return on the Elder tomorrow to Portland, where many of them expect to complete the big season on the Columbia River.

Change Place.—The bazaar to be given by the ladies of the Christian church will be held in the Art Store on Central avenue instead of the Sengstacken building, as announced at first, on December 3 and 4.

New Teacher.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Flagstaff District No. 18, Miss Beatrice Roberts, who is now teaching at Bullards, was elected to teach the school for the remainder of this year in the place Mrs. Connelly, resigned.

Tragic Death.—News has reached Coos Bay friends of the recent tragic death by drowning in Humboldt Bay of Jimmy Murphy and his bride of six weeks. Jimmy Murphy will be remembered by many Coos Bay people as having traveled through this territory as assistant salesman with Jack Yale, one of the pioneer travelers in the Coos Bay section. Jimmy had many friends here who will learn with genuine regret of his tragic end just when life was beginning anew for him.

Business Falls Off.—Police Judge Butler for two days has fined no one for being drunk and the Chamber of Commerce has begun to wonder whether or not they will have men enough to grab the brush out of the new city park. Under an agreement made with them and the city council on Monday night, the Chamber of Commerce by furnishing an overseer, will get to use all free boarders in the city jail. Too much publicity of their intention, so they declare, has foiled the game and John Doe and Richard Roe now parley with "Tom and Jerry" far, far away, out of the beck and call of the city police force.

Runs Two Miles.—On a wager of $5 that he could run to North Bend, three miles in twenty minutes, Richard Behr last evening made two miles of the distance in slightly under 11 minutes, when he became exhausted and was forced to give up the attempt. He was followed by several automobiles who encouraged him in his marathon, but the distance was found too much for the early pace he had taken. On Sunday evening Behr beat Chas. Noble in a three block barefoot race up Central avenue, easily outdistancing his competitor, who still maintains that he stepped on a pebble when half way to the goal.

Breakwater Saturday.—Supt. Miller stated today that the Breakwater would arrive Saturday from Portland and probably leave Sunday. She was delayed by repair work on her boilers.

Thanksgiving Service.—Rev. G. Le Roy Hall left today for the Coquille Valley, where he will conduct special Thanksgiving services in the Hermann District on the South Fork.

Many Turkeys.—Al Nichols and wife of Empire were Marshfield visitors today. Mr. Nichols says that quite a few turkeys are raised around Empire and yesterday he sold a dozen fine birds out of his flock.

Send No Delegate.—That the Port of Coos Bay will send no delegate to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress was the declaration of President L. J. Simpson this morning. Instructions will be sent the Portland delegate giving him liberty also as a Coos Bay representative.

Contractor Hurt.—Mike Scarpelli, one of the sub-contractors on the Southern Pacific line at Camp 7, was brought to North Bend yesterday suffering from a bad wound. He attempted to pull a rifle out of a boat muzzle foremost, and it was discharged, the bullet entering the palm of his hand and lodging in the back of the wrist. Dr. Bartie removed the bullet, but it is likely that Scarpelli will always have a stiff wrist.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. J. Albert Matson is reported getting along nicely at Mercy Hospital.

Mrs. Matson, wife of Capt. Matson, and a well known Marshfield pioneer, is reported resting easy at Mercy Hospital. She has not recuperated sufficiently yet to undergo the operation necessary to reduce a fracture of her hip.

Mrs. E. L. Bessey of Coos River who has been at Mercy Hospital, is reported to be doing nicely and will probably be able to return home today.

A. P. Owen continues to improve at Mercy Hospital and is feeling much better than in many weeks.

CLOSE SHOWHOUSE.

Orpheum Theater Closed Pending the Outcome of Financial Difficulties.

Pending the outcome of financial difficulties the Orpheum Theater will be closed. For some time the show house has been face to face with failure, according to the lawyers who have the matter in charge, and because of back rent due the owner of the building, J. H. Bridges, the place has been closed.

Charles and Lawrence Tower ran the playhouse, selling out last fall to Juratach & Dooley, who later in the May term of court secured damages from the Tower Brothers for retaking the theater. There is now outstanding against the Orpheum Theater bills aggregating about $1000, according to the attorney's statements.
