NOT ONLY AT HOLIDAY TIME

But every day in the year Conner and Hoagland are ready to serve you with good things in Groceries. You may not see them every day or pass their store but they are always on the job and their special delivery wagons and autos probably pass your house every day. Speak to the driver wherever you see him. He has his book with him and can take your order at any time and any place—phone them—there are two phones, 326 and 348. If you have time, drop around and see the busiest exclusive grocery store in Coos County where it requires the services of eight people to take care of the trade. Conner and Hoagland pride themselves on this success and it must mean satisfaction to their many customers. They would be pleased to have you test their service and their goods. Then use your own best judgment.
