

A Christmas Idea

A HOME is the most acceptable gift you can make your wife and children. It is the biggest single thing you can do for them. Perhaps you have not enough cash to pay for the home now, you may not be able to buy the lot outright, but YOU CAN CARRY OUT THIS IDEA in the true Christmas spirit by selecting the home-site and paying the first installment on it. The real estate agreement hanging on your family Christmas tree will make the hit of the day with everyone from Wife to Baby.

Just now there are in FIRST ADDITION three or four lots for sale which are superior to anything else we can offer, and it will pay you well to see them at once.

Call at office and get marked plat.

SYMPHONY CONCERT.

The Symphony Orchestra's first appearance last Thursday evening under the auspices of the local order of Owls was well attended and the efforts of the performers well received. Several instrumental solos by members of the orchestra and vocal solos by Mrs. F. E. Conway added to the program. Mrs. Conway was in particularly good voice and delighted the audience. The program was as follows:

1. Triumphant Marche from Aida Verdi
2. Overture, Calif of Bagdad Boieldieu
3. Violin solo, Hungarian Dance No. 5 Brahms Mr. Murphy.
4. Horn and Flute duet, Titi's Serenade Mr. Bullards and Mr. Schmedding.
5. The Chimes of Normandy Armstrong
6. (a) Norwegian Dance Grieg (b) Tendre Aven Schutt
7. Violin solo, Souvenir Drdla Mr. Platts.
8. Vocal sol, Aria from Madame Butterfly Puccini Mrs. Conway.
9. Medley of Love Englemann Orchestra.

STUDIO RECITAL.

Several of the younger pupils of Miss Edna Louise Larson appeared in piano recital at her studio on Central Avenue on Saturday evening. Each number on the pleasing program was well rendered by the young players, and was greatly enjoyed by the relatives and friends present. The trio and duet were excellent and well received, as was the solo by Miss Isabel Ferguson. Miss Irene Holm delighted here hearers with her solo. The expression, the beautiful touch, and the perfect ease at the piano in one who has studied but a short time, show her to be a real genius. The studio was prettily decorated with graceful chrysanthemums and huckleberry. At the close of the program fruit punch and cakes were served. Miss Larson is planning on other recitals, one during February, when several advanced pupils will be presented, and one in May, when Miss Holm will give the entire program. The evening's program was as follows:

- Lange Edelweis
Irene Holm
Otis White Barcarolle
Adrienne Gardner.
Englemann Happy Hours
Dorothy Bassford
Schnecker Trio, Twilight Idyl
Clara Ferguson, Miss Larson and Edith Johnson.
Charles Blake Shepherd's Evening Song
Greenwald Birthday Gifts
Edna Rees
Millwood Rippling Waves
Edith Johnson.
Schuler Fortunata
Isabel Ferguson.
Parker Duet, Napoli
Miss Holm and Miss Larson
