BORN

SMITH—To Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, at Mercy Hospital, Wednesday, December 23, a son, their first child. Mother and child are doing nicely and Mr. Smith, who is employed by the Smith-Powers Company at Cedar Point boom, says he wouldn't trade places with Santa Claus.

Sails Early.—The Nann Smith will sail at 5 o'clock Saturday morning for San Francisco. Some of the passengers will go aboard Friday night.

Library Will Close.—Miss Topping, city librarian, announces that the public library will be closed Thursday evening at 6 o'clock and remain closed until Saturday morning.

Women Send Aid.—The Marshfield Methodist ladies today sent out twelve baskets laden with provisions and joys to homes where they feared that Santa Claus' donations might be meager.

Fine Tree.—The Christmas tree, exercises at Eastside last night were largely attended. The program was good, the decorations were fine and there was something on the tree for everybody.

Surf Board Riding.—Arrangements were being made today for another surf board demonstration by some of the local boys tomorrow afternoon. It is to take place in front of Marshfield about 1 o'clock if the weather is favorable.

Rumor Layoff.—According to a report here, Capt. Olson, of the Adeline Smith, and the captain of a vessel with which he collided a month or so ago were given a month's lay-off by the steamship inspectors at San Francisco. Capt. Olson had not been advised of it when he left here and the story is doubted.

To Ship Pulp.—The pulp mill resumed operations yesterday after having been shut down for a brief time on account of lack of chemicals which were brought in on the Nann Smith. It is expected that one of the Dollar Company's big vessels will be in here early in January to take another shipment of pulp to the Orient and probably take out some lumber.

Leaton Gets Out.—Wm. J. Leaton, former City Recorder of Eastside, who was given an indeterminate sentence at Salem for the misappropriation of about $3000

THE LEMANSKI THEATRE TONIGHT THE HOME OF BIG FEATURES AND VAUDEVILLE.

ART ADAIR, musical wonder, in a bill that you can't help liking. Big special Progressive feature. Jesse L. Laaky presents Max Figman and Lolita Robertson in the famous comedy-drama in five parts—"THE MAN ON THE BOX. Written by the same author who wrote the "Million Dollar Mystery," Harold McGrath. The story of an aristocrat who entered servitude to serve the girl he loves. This is one of the best features we have shown here.

Another good reel—Ford Sterling in "HYPNOTIC POWER," featuring that king of funmakers. This is a program well fitted for the occasion and we wish you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

LOWER FLOOR, 15c. FIRST BALCONY, 15c. SECOND BALCONY, 10c.

Here tomorrow night—"The 10th chapter of "TREY O' HEARTS" entitled "STEEL RIBBONS." In this episode Cleo Madison came near losing her life in the taking of the negative.

Also an appropriate Christmas film in two reels by Sterling-Universal—"THE BATTLE" worth of funds of that city, returned on the Breakwater today. He was released a few days ago and expects to remain on the Bay. He maintains that he was innocent and hopes to later clear his name.

Is Thanked.—A letter of thanks and appreciation has been received by Henrik Gjerdrum from the Red Cross headquarters at Washington, D. C., for the loyal support given by the citizens of Marshfield for the sufferers in Europe. The sum of $155 raised at the Red Cross concert was used by the Washington committee for food for the starving Belgians. The need was greatest in Belgium.

Pleads Not Guilty.—Tony Youngmeyer, charged by Mrs. Gustafson with stealing two calves belonging to her and which he had given as part payment on back rent, appeared in the justice court this morning and pleaded not guilty. He went out to look for $100 bonds. Youngmeyer came down from the farm at Larson Inlet voluntarily. The trial will be held later.

Invites Employees.—In true telephone style the employees of the Coos and Curry County Telephone company in the surrounding towns have been invited by long distance to the dinner and dance being given in their honor Saturday evening at the Chandler Hotel. When the matter was decided definitely there remained such a short time that Mr. Hall believed the best method would be the use of the long distance telephone instead of regular invitations.

Await Answers.—At the meeting of the Presbyterians held the other evening it was decided to wait at least two or three weeks before taking any definite action toward securing a pastor here permanently. Several prospective men were written to and their answers are now being awaited. Several days ago a committee consisting of A. T. Haines and Senator I. S. Smith made a canvass among the members getting their promises toward financial help if a minister is accepted.

Ask Rehearing.—A petition asking a rehearing of the Charles Sneddon case was made out this morning by Attorneys Hoy and Miller and forwarded to the State Supreme Court. This court recently handed down a decision sustaining a decision of the jury in the circuit court which claims that Mr. Sneddon is sane. The intimation in the petition is that the attorneys for Charles Sneddon in their brief to the Supreme Court went outside the record and did not present the case fairly upon the record of law. Hoy and Miller are representing Mrs. Ellen Sneddon and the sons and daughters.
