

HERE IN THE FIXUP we give every man full credit for the possession of good business judgment; we know that a low price without high quality offers no inducement to purchase and that to make claims in our advertisement that are not substantiated by our merchandise is rank folly.

Thus, you will never see $25.00 Suits or Overcoats advertised over our name at $10.98 or $13.89.

In this store $25.00 clothes are $25.00 and they wouldn't be $25.00 if they were worth $30.00. Likewise they wouldn't be $25.00 if they were worth only $20.00. We get what our clothes are HONESTLY WORTH—no more and no less.

ENTIRE CHANGE OF PROGRAM IN THE EVENING, INCLUDING THE VENETIAN 8-PIECE ORCHESTRA.

of $192 as a Christmas present. All of the employees united in the gift. Mr. Rourke has been with the company for many years, but for some time has been severely afflicted with rheumatism so that he could not attend to his duties as foreman of the Eastside mill. The gift was indicative of the high esteem in which he is held by his fellow employees and incidentally showed the big-hearted generosity of the men.

Auto for Present.—Mrs. J. T. Tully, of Coaledo, yesterday received one of the finest Christmas presents from her husband and is all wreathed in smiles. It was a Ford touring car. Mr. and Mrs. Tully will move in a few weeks from Coaledo to Wagner, the Smith-Powers headquarters and the auto will be a great source of pleasure to them on the fine summer roads in that vicinity.

Night School.—A class in manual training is being organized to meet evenings at the High School manual training rooms. The request for the class came from a number of young men in the city who work during the day and have time for self improvement in the evening. Seven have thus far joined the class. If there are others who wish to take this work, Mr. Flanders will be pleased to meet them Tuesday evening, December 29, at 7:15 p. m. at the High School manual training rooms. The fee will be merely nominal, for the purpose in giving the work is to help those who wish to be helped.

Relative Honored.—Yesterday Benjamin and Joel Ostlund, of this city, received a cablegram from their parents at their old home in Arzika, Sweden, sending them Christmas greetings. The cablegram also told of the appointment of their brother Joseph to a government position at 809 crowns a year. The appointment is for life and the honor is one of which the family is justly proud. Of two sisters of the Messrs. Ostlund, one holds a fine government position and the other is in line for a good appointment. The cablegram was sent on Christmas Day and arrived here between ten and eleven o'clock yesterday.

AMONG THE SICK

MESSRS. MOSIER, who have been in charge of the bridge construction on the Smith-Powers line, left this morning for San Francisco, having completed their work here.
JAY MAHONEY, who is now practicing law at Florence, came to Marshfield to spend Christmas at the home of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Adams. He reports the prospects there good for an unusually prosperous year.
MR. CARLISLE, clerk at Smith-Powers Camp Four, spent Christmas with friends here. They are getting things fixed up in fine shape along the new line and will soon have everything going like clockwork.

BIRDS IN COQUILLE SHOOT

Bring Home Enough Fowl Prizes To Supply the Poor of Several Counties.

When the six local gunmen returned from the turkey, goose and chicken shoot held at Coquille Wednesday, they brought with them great bags of fowl, enough to last them for several days, providing they have the most ferocious of appetites.
F. V. Catterlin might perhaps be called the high man though he had competitors close at his heels. He brought back three turkeys and three chickens. The prizes were awarded in this manner, a turkey for a first, geese went as second prizes and a succulent chicken was given to each winner of a third.
William Ekblad was next with two firsts and two seconds; Don Gardner had two turkeys and two chickens, with him that evening; W. J. Conrad brought back a second and two thirds and Frank Laise carried a goose and Frank Horton had a toothsome bird tucked under his arm.
There were between 25 and 30 sportsmen shooting Wednesday in Coquille, all of them shooting in matches in which as many as 15 were entered at a time.

POEM CONTEST WINNERS GIVEN

PERRY K. CLARKE AND JOSEPHINE SAVAGE WIN IN PEOPLE'S TOYLAND CONTEST TODAY—MANY RESPOND.

The People's Toyland poetry contest closed at noon Thursday and the judges, Mayor F. E. Allen, R. Von Shipman and Mrs. McInturff, declared Perry K. Clarke and Josephine Savage the winners.

There was a hearty response to the contest and many very good ones were received. This made the judges' decision most difficult.

F. E. Westerberg expressed himself greatly pleased with the success of the contest and while he had announced that prizes would be given only for the two best poems submitted, he decided today to give every contestant a large sack of candy in appreciation of their efforts.

The following are copies of the winning poems:

FIRST PRIZE—GIRLS.

Say, boys and girls, it's Christmas time,
I tell you, things look gay,
When mother sends me off down town
I watch the windows all the way.
But the very "bestest" place to look,
To find everything and more
That kids like us is sure to like,
Is the Peoples' 5-10-15c Store.
I'll bet old Santa owns that store—
It looks just like he might—
Now, don't forget the place I said,
Be sure you get it right."
JOSEPHINE SAVAGE,
P. O. Box 295, Marshfield, Ore.

FIRST PRIZE—BOYS.

Submitted by Perry K. Clarke.
Santa, Gen, I like to hear him
Come a'teastin' round the place
With his laughin', happy manner,
And his ruddy, smiling face.

Makes me feel right good all over,
Want to jump up in the air,
When I hear those feet a'creepin'
Slowly up the kitchen stair.

Socks a'hangin' by the fireplace,
Eig and little, wide an' thin,
An' he comes with all the good things
Un-be-grudgin', packs them in.

Geo. This is the bestest season,
Makes me happy as can be,
'Cause I know there's joys a'hangin'
On the dear old Christmas tree.

Well, 'im going down tomorrow
To the 5-10-15 Cent Store
'Cause I know that Santa's hidin'
Some place round about their door.

Heardin' up the goody, goodies,
Showin' off his dolls and toys
That will be the Christmas blessings
Of so many girls and boys.

If YOU want to feel right happy,
Smile a wid'nin', more an' more,
Just you come with me tomorrow
To the 5-10-15 CENT STORE.
