BORN

FISHER—To Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher, at Florence, Oregon, Tuesday, December 29, a son. Mrs. Fisher will be remembered as Miss Miss Uma Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Marsh. Grandma Marsh is now at the Fisher home and Grandma Marsh and Great Grandfather Marsh are doing fine. The new arrival will be named James Howard Fisher, Jr.

Special Mass.—Rev. Father McDevitt will celebrate mass at eight o'clock at St. Monica's Church New Year's Day.

Flour Higher.—Flour is now wholesaling at $6.35 here, since the raise a few days ago. Sugar is wholesaling at $5.75 now.

Wife Better.—Henry Bishop has received word that Mrs. Bishop, who is receiving treatment at a Portland sanitarium is somewhat improved.

To Merge Business.—Plans are under consideration for merging Hammond & Hollister's abstract business with that of the Record Photo Abstract Co., but nothing definite has been done yet.

Appraise Estate.—W. U. Douglas left today for Gardiner to attend a meeting of the appraisers of the W. F. Jewett estate. The appraisers are Wm. S. Angus, Thomas H. Angus and Louis Seymour.

Suit Filed.—E. A. Kelly today began suit in Justice Pennock's court against S. H. McAdams and Emory Robbins of Bandon to collect a balance of $45.33 on an account assigned to him by a wholesale house.

Cheese by Parcel Post.—Dr. Wetherbee is making shipments of cheese from his Curry County ranch by parcel post. A number of Christmas cheeses were also shipped from Marshfield during the holidays by parcel post.

Work for Beale.—Herbert Geddes, who sold his South Coos River place to Mr. Woods, an adjoining rancher, for $1000, will go to California soon to take a position with Geo. Beale, formerly of Coos River, who is planting a large orchard there.

Begins Excavating.—J. A. Goodwill, who conducts the famous Goodwill summer resort on South Coos River, has started excavating for the new hotel which he plans to build on his place. The new site is farther up the bluff than the old place, being put far above the high-water mark and also giving a better view of the surrounding country.

Council Later.—The Marshfield City Council did not meet last evening, the next meeting being set for Thursday night, when liquor licenses will be renewed and a number of matters taken up. Quite a number gathered at the City Council chamber last night and were disappointed when they found no meeting was to be held.

Stull Elected.—At the road district meeting at Allegany recently, W. H. Stull was easily re-elected road supervisor over others who sought the place. Mr. Stull has been supervisor there the last few years and his efficiency has won him the support of all who are familiar with the manner in which he has kept up the roads.

Umpqua Survey.—E. L. Robinson reports that Congressman Hawley has had provision inserted in the River and Harbor Bill for $3000 for the survey of the Umpqua bar and harbor. When this survey is completed, a project will be formed upon which the Umpqua Port Commission can make a campaign for funds for improving the harbor.

E. R. HODSON of Coos River is a Marshfield business visitor today.

WILL RICHARDS, of South Coos River, is in Marshfield on business.

G. A. BROWN returned to Wagner this afternoon after a short stay on the Bay.

CHAS. BOWMAN of Bandon was in Marshfield last evening on business and pleasure.

MRS. D. W. CARPENTER and daughter, of Bandon, are in Marshfield today.

GEORGE ROSS came down from Catehling Inlet today to look after some business.

P. CIMINIO, the mail carrier between North Inlet and Lakeside, was in Marshfield today.

CHAS. FENSLER left yesterday to aid J. T. Sullivan in the Hub store at Bandon for a few days.

LES SMITH, the well known Coos River rancher, was a Marshfield business visitor yesterday.

JAMES COWAN came in from Lakeside yesterday for a short stay on business and pleasure.

LUTHER JUDY, who has a big ranch in the Loon Lake section, came in today on business.

P. H. POOLE, who is now conducting a general store at Port Orford, was in Marshfield today.

ALBERT MERCHANT returned to the ranch at Bullards today after spending a few days on the Bay.

CHAS. REHFELD expects to leave the last of the week for California, where he will spend some time.

DR. V. L. HAMILTON, who recently located in Coquille, and wife, came to Marshfield last evening for a short stay.

A. N. GOULD and wife returned to their home in Coquille today after spending Christmas at the G. A. Gould place at Allegany.

W. C. MORGAN, who has leased the ranch of Mrs. Jennie Landrith on North Coos River for the coming year, was looking after business here today.

ROBERT MARSDEN, Sr., is expected home this week from California, where he was called by the illness of his son, Sam. The latter is now rapidly recuperating.

MRS. ELIZABETH ORNI, Elmer Orni and Mrs. Lindblad and child will accompany the remains of John Tomoria, father of the two women, to Winlock, Wash., for burial.

MRS. C. F. GLEASON of Okanogan, Wash., arrived in Marshfield yesterday to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hibarger. Mrs. Gleason was formerly Miss Wanda Hibarger.

REV. ROBT. BROWNING left overland this afternoon for Portland, where he will meet Mrs. Browning and children, who are returning from a visit with her folks in Washington, D. C.

FRED GAGE, who has been spending a few weeks in Coquille since he leased the ranch near Allegany, was here yesterday en route to Arizona, where he will spend some time at the home of a sister.

J. E. SCHILLING, who recently sold the Guerin Hotel back to the Guerins, came over from Myrtle Point last night. He is cleaning up his affairs in Coos County and is serious.

January First Is "SQUARE UP DAY"

Join the Movement

Everyone who is in debt is urged to "Square Up."

Everyone who has borrowed books "Return Them."

Everyone who has neglected or avoided another—give them the hand of fellowship.

Everyone who carries a grudge—bury the hatchet and shake hands.

Everyone is urged to join the "Square-Up Day" movement.

The man who owes will feel better when he is "square" and by paying his debts the next man will have the money to pay those he owes.

Remodel Opera House.—A. J. Savage will start remodeling the Masonic opera house in a day or two and in about three or four weeks will have it in readiness for B. R. Keller to start the new showhouse. The changes will not only add to the attractiveness of the house, but will eliminate some of the old defects, will increase the seating capacity and make it one of the desirable playhouses in the county.

Another Drain Report.—It was stated today that Councilman Albrecht would make another report on the Mill Slough drain proposition beside the one outlined yesterday. The one outlined yesterday is said to be the one favored by A. H. Powers and the Port Commission while Mr. Albrecht will insist on an open ditch. The two will probably be threshed out at the meeting of the Council on Thursday night.

Fine Ball.—The Charity Ball given by the ladies of St. Monica's Church at the Eagles' Hall last evening was a decided success from every standpoint. There was a large attendance and everyone enjoyed themselves. The music and floor were excellent, and the hall was most artistically decorated in green and red by a committee under the direction of Mrs. R. M. Jennings and Mrs. F. V. Caterlin. The receipts were something over $300.

New Year's Party.—The Rainbow club will have a big New Year's party at the Rogers home on South Coos River Thursday. The women will have an afternoon session and in the evening will be joined by their husbands. Capt. E. George Smith says that the Rainbow and Express will be run to accommodate the gathering. Owing to the club having been named in honor of the Rainbow, he cannot charge them anything extra for the special boat service and he has been endeavoring to get them to change the name to the Plymouth Rock Club or something similar.

McKeown Some Sport.—H. J. McKeown, the popular manager of the Chandler hotel at Marshfield, accompanied by W. W. Johnson, a realty dealer of British Columbia, were the guests of W. P. Reed a few days this week, and enjoyed most of the time gathering in the ducks which infest the rivers and streams of this neighborhood. Harry strenuously denies that he used a club on a band of ducks which he found with their feet frozen in the ice, but says that he carried wood and built a fire and thawed the ice, allowing the imprisoned birds to rise before attempting to bring any of them down, allowing a few to escape through pity and tenderness of heart.—Gardiner Courier.

ously considering a proposition to move to California.

COL. R. H. ROSA of Bandon, one of the best known pioneers of Coos county, came over last evening for a short stay. He does not show in years or spirit his qualifications for the pioneer class and is now feeling better than in years gone by.

ROY LANDRITH, who was in Marshfield yesterday, states that he has kept his entire crop of potatoes hoping for an advance in the market. They are selling for about a cent a pound here now and he thinks they will go higher soon.

AL BAYLES returned today from South Coos River, where he has been loading a scow with sand. He has found a sand bar just above Camp One that supplies as good sand as can be secured in the country.

GEORGE STEPHENSON of the North Bend Lumber Company was in Marshfield yesterday en route to the Valley. He says that Manager Dimick plans to have the mill resume next Monday after some minor repairs are made.

CAPT. ADAM DONALDSON, who is now master of the Daisy Putnam of the Swayne & Hoyt line, was in Marshfield Sunday while his vessel was loading at North Bend, to look after his property here. He says that he hopes it will not be long before he can retire from the sea and settle on his ranch near Sumner.

HENRY MONOHAN, engineer of the Smith-Powers company, returned yesterday from Seattle, where he spent Christmas with his father, who is now nearly 94 years old. For several years Mr. Monohan has made it a point to spend Christmas with his aged father and the old gentleman looks forward to his coming as eagerly as a child does to the visit of Santa Claus. Despite his advanced age, he is still quite active. Mr. Monohan will return to his work today.

for improving the harbor.

Lucky Break.—Last evening at just two minutes to six o'clock, a key in one of the big pieces of machinery at the Smith mill broke. It required several hours to remedy the break and had it not occurred at just about closing time, the mill would have had to be shut down. As it was the only loss of time was two minutes as Supt. Murch had it going again this morning.

Four Arrested.—Only four men have been arrested in the last two days and all were taken into custody by Officer Doane. Drunkenness was the charge in each case. Only one of the four, Jim Mulligan, had any money, but he has $25 and was able to settle the $5 fine. The others gave their names as Jack Conway, Chas. Smith and Jim Galloway.

Dismiss Charge.—Mr. Gustafson of Haynes Inlet was here today and told Justice Pennock to dismiss the charge of petty larceny against Tony Youngmayr which Mrs. Gustafson filed on account of a wrangle over a ranch that Youngmayr leased from them. Youngmayr will have to leave the ranch soon and Gustafson said that if Youngmayr got off the place without further bother they would let the matter drop.

Remodel Opera House.—A. J. Savage will start remodeling the Masonic opera house in a day or two and in about three or four weeks will have it in readiness for B. R. Keller to start the new showhouse. The changes will not only add to the attractiveness of the house, but will eliminate some of the old defects, will increase the seating capacity and make it one of the desirable playhouses in the county.
