Close Library.—The Marshfield public library will be closed on New Year's Day.

Take Apartments.—Frank Heath and wife have moved into one of the Myrtle Arms Apartments. T. Bradley is another new tenant there having taken Apartment No. 1.

Flour Advances Again.—Another advance of 20 cents in the wholesale price of flour is reported and the material from which the staff of life is made now sells at $6.65.

Many Duck Parties.—Parties in from Ten Mile report that there are now more ducks on the Ten Mile Lakes and in that vicinity than there have been in a long time. Shooting is good and quite a number are planning to go out from Marshfield.

Arrive on Sad Errand.—Joseph E. Fox and his two daughter, Mrs. Emil Ogren and Miss Elizabeth Fox, arrived from Bandon today accompanying the body of wife and mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Fox, who died in San Francisco December 24. The daughters arrived in Bandon on the steamer Speedwell from San Francisco. The funeral will be held from the Baptist Church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Bought Ranch.—George Mullin and wife have closed the deal for the purchase of the George Starr ranch near Bridge. There is about thirty-nine acres in the tract and it is understood that the price was $2500. They have leased it to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schroeder of Bay City, who will occupy it soon. Mr. Mullin is cook at the McDonald & Vaughn camp and will return there to feed the Ridge Tigers.

Gage to Leave.—Sheriff Gage came over from Coquille today on business. He will retire from office Saturday after having served fourteen years and six months, the change of election date from June to November extending his term six months. His duties end tomorrow, but he will help Alf Johnson start in. He said that Mr. Johnson would have Messrs. Oddy and Laird as deputies and whether A. P. Davis, who was slated for a deputyship would also be inducted to office now, he was not informed.

Blue Ridge Camp.—Jack McDonald, who is here from the McDonald & Vaughn camp at Blue Ridge, says that they will resume operations at that point as soon as the Simpson mill starts up again. In the meantime they are closed down and the reports of changes and improvements being made there are incorrect. The Simpson mill is taking all the fir logs that are being cut in the Swayne & Hoyt mill at Beaver Hill, the North Bend Lumber Company cutting spruce only. Mr. McDonald's mother

The Grand To-Night

High-class motion pictures and good music. Six reels. CHIP OF THE FLYING-U This big feature was shown last week in this theater and proved to be one of the grandest features ever offered to the "movie" patrons of Marshfield. Everyone that saw it pronounced it in a class by itself. SEE it tonight at the house that shows nothing but the best in photoplays. It's a Selig in three reels. JIM'S VINDICATION A splendid dramatic production made by the Edison company. Sally Crute and an all-star cast of this famous company have produced a picture far above the ordinary. AT THE RISK OF HIS LIFE Selig melodrama in one reel. Another good picture. Another reel to be selected. Children, 5c; adults, 10c. Tomorrow night, The 14th installment of "Perils of Pauline" and Lubin's feature "Double Life." Coming next week: "My Official Wife." Big Broadway star feature in five parts. Was shown at the Vitaphone theater in New York for 250 performances. Don't miss this attraction.

who has been quite ill, is now improved. He will return to camp as soon as he recuperates from a severe attack of la grippe.

Has Operation.—Jas. Conro, a well-known Coos Bay man, who has been quite ill at Mercy Hospital, is to undergo an operation there today. Goes East.—C. A. Smith, who was expected here next week from Oakland, has been called east again and will probably not be able to return to the Bay for some time.

Ten Mile Woman Dead.—Mrs. Andrew Anderson of North Lake, Ten Mile, died last night at their home after a short illness of a complication of diseases. She is survived by a husband and thirteen children, the youngest of whom was born a few weeks ago. Mr. Anderson is a rancher and runs a couple of boats on Ten Mile Lakes. The funeral will be held there.

Settle Estate.—Col. Ross, of Bandon, came over again today to assist Conrad Olson of Portland, in winding up the affairs of the Hamnerburg estate at Bandon. The estate consisted of about $20,000, mostly in California, and was evenly divided among three brothers after giving a niece $1000. Mr. Olson is a prominent Portland man and came near landing the speakership of the next House. He represents the Swedish Consul in Portland.

Box Factory Deal.—Paul Dimmick, in charge of the Swayne & Hoyt company's affairs on Coos Bay, was here from North Bend today. He was non-committal when asked about the report that either his company or L. J. Simpson would take over the North Bend box factory. It is understood on reliable authority that both are dickering for the plant. Part of it was taken over by the Southern Pacific when they secured the right of way and Owner Kern retained some of it.

SOCIAL CALENDAR THURSDAY Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand entertain at a Watch Party. New Year's ball at Millicoma Club. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein of North Bend will entertain at a Watch Party. Minne-Wis Club with Mrs. E. Kelly. Millicoma dancing party.
