The Grand To-Night

Entire change of program. Select variety of the highest-class photoplays. Always excellent music. The 14th episode in "The Perils of Pauline." The most popular serial story produced in pictures. The drawing power of Pauline is known to out-draw anything in the picture business. If it's a feature, you see it at this theater.

The sixth of the "Beloved Adventures" Series, "The Golden Hope." This serial story, featuring Arthur Johnson, is a winner. Be sure and see this installment tonight.

Vitagraph offers in high class photoplay, "The Double Error." A dramatic play featuring Dorothy Kelly, James Morrison and George Cooper.

Children, 5c; adults, 10c. Tomorrow night, "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere." A feature every one will want to see.

youths on North Front street last night. No arrests have been made.

Concert Sunday.—The Coos Bay Band plans to give a concert at the Masonic Opera House next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Wedding Anniversary.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Culver will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary at their home tomorrow evening.

Move Offices.—Dr. Jensen will move his offices into the quarters formerly occupied by Dr. Horsfall over Norton & Hansen's store.

Auto on Fire.—Last evening Geo. Fearier's little auto caught fire on the wharf. It was quickly extinguished by Gordon Smith with a chemical before much damage was done.

Mother Dead.—Arthur Williams, of Flagstaff, has received word of the death of his mother in Iowa. She was quite advanced in years and he visited her last summer, when she was taken ill.

Wed in Portland.—A Portland paper says: "Floyd B. Shell and Miss Maude Noble were married on Christmas Day by Rev. L. K. Richardson at the bride's home in Powell Valley road. Only immediate relatives attended."

Sister Dead.—R. D. Marshall, of North Bend, left on the Redondo for Los Angeles, Cal., in response to a message stating that Mrs. Margaret Marshall had died on Friday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rubens.

Two Full Moons.—D. L. Buckingham in figuring up the tides for the coming month, discovered that there will be two full moons in January, one tomorrow and another January 30. This rarely occurs.

Invited to Ball.—The North Bend Fire Department has invited all members of the Marshfield Fire Department, and their wives, to be the guests of honor at the tenth annual ball of the North Bend Fire Department Saturday night.

Three in Jail.—Paddy Coyne was arrested about 1:30 this morning by Officer Doane for being drunk and using obscene language. Jas. Graham also landed in the toils last night for getting too merrily aboard. A third arrest was listed as "Candy" and he put up $5 bail.

Begins Suit.—Roy Lawhorne's suit against Jamieson and Page, of Bandon for $20 brought forth a claim from them that they had a receipt for its payment and now E. H. Joehnk demands that they produce the alleged receipt in Justice Pennock's court.

Send Bonds.—Yesterday Justice Pennock and Constable Cox forwarded their new bonds to County Clerk Watson. They have had the same bondsmen nearly since they assumed the duties. Yesterday each of them had to attach fifty cents worth of war stamps to their bonds.

New Year's Dinner-Dance.—Landlord McKeown, of the Chandler, in response to many requests, will give another of the popular dinner-dances at the Chandler tomorrow evening. Dinner will be served commencing at 5:30 and after dinner there will be dancing.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield City Council will meet tonight to renew saloon licenses, swear in some Councilmen and look after other business. It will probably be a "watch party" as the volume of business will probably not permit them to get done before midnight.

New Eagles.—The Marshfield Aerie of Eagles last evening initiated several candidates and made arrangements for a big initiation in the near future, for which fifteen applications have already been received. Those initiated last night were Mark H. Chlat, V. O. Strommen, John G. Wilson, Fred Holm, H. Ramburg and Ernest Grandell.

Get Brook Trout.—A shipment of one million fish eggs, Eastern brook trout, consigned to superintendent Frank Smith of the South Coos River Hatchery, arrived here today from the Massachusetts Hatchery. Some time ago 25,000 Eastern brook trout were brought here and are reported to have done well.

Rumor Boat Accident.—It was reported this morning that a small launch had been sunk in the Bay and a couple drowned. Just where the report started no one knew, and parties along the waterfront at the time that it was alleged to have occurred said that the only foundation for the story was that a rowboat had a rather choppy time getting out of the course of one of the incoming steamers.

Wed in Eureka.—Theo. Bradley, for years one of the most popular men who made Coos Bay, and proprietor of the Blanco Cigar store, surprised his friends today by returning from Eureka with a bride, she was Miss Hill, a charming young woman, and the nuptials took place at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, just an hour before they sailed for the Elder for Marshfield. They live Apartment One at Myrtle Arms and will be given a warm welcome by his many friends here.

Major Kinney Better.—Mrs. L. D. Kinney yesterday received a letter from D. J. C. Evans of the Oregon State Hospital at Salem, who is caring for Major Kinney, in which Dr. Evans says that Major Kinney is now in better shape than he has been at any time since he came there. This is most gratifying news to his friends here as some had heard reports to the contrary, mainly the one told by F. B. Witte relative to Supt. Steiner's opinion and which Dr. Evans' statement shows is wrong. Mrs. Kinney receives almost daily letters from him and these show that he is much improved.

Lose Moustaches.—F. A. Golden and Jen Hansen have sacrificed the hirsute adornments of their upper lips. Both have been wearing moustaches for years and Mr. Golden, who is county supervisor of schools, was the first to sacrifice his. When Mr. Hansen saw him he decided to do likewise and some of their friends have had difficulty in recognizing them. Tom Hall failed to recognize Jen Hansen yesterday. Mr. Hall says it reminded him of the time about eight years ago when he shaved off his heavy moustache and Dr. McCormac fooled Eugene O'Connell and some others by introducing Mr. Hall as a new priest who had arrived on the Bay.

Rainbow Club Entertains in Southern Plantation Style on South Coos River Today

Nearly every family on Coos River is today in attendance at the New Year Party being given at the Frank Rogers home on the South Fork by the Rainbow Club. In addition to being a New Year Party is a sort of house-warming to mark the completion of Mr. Rogers' fine new home.

The members of the Rainbow Club and their children are having an all-day session today and this evening they will be joined by their husbands and meriment will reign supreme.

The affair is taking on the nature of a regular Southern Plantation Welcome. This morning a four-horse rig especially arranged to carry the visitors in carry-all style, met the Rainbow and the Express at the landing.

Frank Rogers took the role of the Southern Planter and was garbed in "befoh de wah" style, including a whip that looked as though he might have just snatched it from Simon Legree in Uncle Tom's Cabin.

A half dozen employees of the Rogers ranch were blacked up and rigged as footmen and drivers, their costume including the high hats of coachman fame.

Still others were provided with banjos and drums. The Southern Plantation scheme was carried out in the decorations at the home and in the repast. Baked pig, a half dozen turkeys and a dozen chickens are a few items that will contribute to the menu today and this evening.

you know something of the so-called reduction sales that some stores are having on every occasion — well, the more you KNOW the more you will be willing to back up THE FIXUP that works on a different plan. It's certainly an HONEST WAY when everybody pays the SAME PRICE EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR—that's THE FIXUP. A trial will convince you that the store with ONE PRICE always and that the LOWEST, can give you better service. Try it and see.
