Lumber Higher.—It is stated that the lumber market is picking up along the coast. Archie Kruse said yesterday that there had been an advance of about seventyfive cents per thousand and the prospects are good.

One Forfeits Bail.—The only arrest made Friday evening by the police was a man giving his name as Lane. He was charged with intoxication and failed to leave his initials or given name on the register. He put up $5 cash bail.

Coos River Dike.—The Larson dredge is throwing up a big dike along the George Smith and Haunschildt ranches on Coos River to prevent freshets overflowing three or four ranches back near the foothills.

House Party.—George Murch, Jr., is entertaining a party of young folks at the Murch summer home on Coos River over Sunday. The party went up yesterday and among them were Arthur Peck, Jay Doyle and Mr. Welch and Misses Rees, Griffin and Harkness.

Bank Merger.—L. J. Simpson, of North Bend, who was here today, said that it was expected that the Bank of Oregon and First National Bank of North Bend would be able to start in Monday morning as one institution. The selection of directors and officers will be made January 12.

More Troubles.—Mrs. E. O. Mills, formerly Mrs. Emily McFarlin-Lewis, according to a report here, will return shortly from Salem, where she went soon after her marriage last fall. The report is that her third matrimonial venture has not proved a blissful one.

Threatens Suit.—Tony Youngmeyer was in Marshfield today and was planning to begin suit against Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson, whom he claims wrongfully charged him with larceny of a couple of calves. He was a tenant on the Gustafson ranch and they have been having considerable trouble.

Cattering Changes.—F. V. Catterlin has retired as local representative of the Mason-Ehrman Company and formed a partnership with J. E. Norton, of Coquille, whereby the two of them will devote their energies to the business of the wholesale firm of Wellman, Peck & Company in this section.

Not Going to War.—J. L. Brice says that he has not made up his mind to go to Europe to enlist in the Red Cross service in the war. He was talking about it the other day and some of his friends misunderstood him. He says that he intends to stay on Coos Bay and look after his business here.

Special Meetings.—Singing Evangelists Geo. A. Webb and wife are in the city and will assist in special meetings in the Christian Church beginning tomorrow. The pastor, Rev. Samuel Gregg, will do the preaching. Mr. and Mrs. Webb are singers of large experience and will please and benefit all who will hear them.

Sends for Son.—Frank Carpenter, a Bandon contractor, telephoned the Marshfield police today to stop his son who was coming over on the morning train. Officer Walter Richardson found him and arranged for him to return home on the afternoon train. Young Carpenter is about eighteen years old. No particulars were given.

Expect Coast Road.—Archie Kruse, who came over from Prosper yesterday on business said that he was confident the Southern Pacific would begin construction on the last link in the coast road within another year. He said that the link would be to connect up the terminus of the Eureka-San Francisco line at Trinidad, Calif., with the Smith-Powers line below Wagner.

Gagnon Improved.—A. E. Gagnon, superintendent of the Eastside mill, who sustained some fractured ribs and severe injuries in an accident in the shingle mill a few weeks ago, was able to be out today for the first time. He is recuperating rapidly, much to the gratification of his many friends. He says that he has demonstrated here what the Germans are just finding out—that it is hard to kill a Frenchman.

Revokes Parole.—J. C. LaFrance, the Portland man who was caught at Coquille after having defrauded several insurance companies out of $15,000 by substituting a dead body for his own, was paroled from the state penitentiary this week and Gov. West immediately revoked the parole. The district attorney of Portland asked that the parole be revoked. LaFrance has never told where he got the body that he substituted as his own. He was known as A. J. Ferger at Bandon, where he lived for a time.

Market Poor.—Although a better quality of steelhead salmon was being caught here this winter and the run has been larger than usual, the fishing has been practically stopped owing to the poor market. Exporters say that with the German market closed, they have lost their best field and cannot dispose of the fish. In consequence most of the fishermen here have quit. While the price was only three cents, they were making fair money.

Eastside Council.—The Eastside Council will meet next Monday evening to install the newly elected officials. Messrs. McLaggan, Whitty and Johnson of the Eastside Council have been working on the new charter for the consolidated towns and as soon as they complete the draft of it, a special election will be called for its enactment. It is possible that at the same election the people will be called upon to determine the name for the consolidated city. However, an endeavor will be made to have this selected in advance as it would simplify the adoption of the charter. Some favor the name "Coos Side" while many favor retaining the present name of Eastside.

Not Decided Yet.—The status of the case of Mayor Kittson of Eastside whose qualifications for office are in doubt as a result of the new election law requiring full citizenship for voting, has not been decided yet. Attorney Watkins is looking into the matter. Mr. Kittson has resided in this country long enough to secure his full citizenship papers, but somehow or other he did not take out his first papers until a few years ago. It is believed he can secure his final papers within another three months and an endeavor will be made, if there is any question of doubt, to arrange matter so that he can retain office and amply qualify. As the new law was adopted after his election to office, it is doubtful if it will apply to him, anyway.

MRS. FOX' FUNERAL IS HELD ON BAY

Pioneer Coos County Woman Who Died in San Francisco Brought Here for Burial

The funeral of Mrs. Joseph E. Fox, which was held here Thursday, was largely attended by the many friends of the family. A number from Ten Mile, Bandon, Coquille and other districts of the county were in attendance and many floral tributes were received.

Mrs. Fox died in San Francisco, where she was taken to be placed under specialists. Miss Elizabeth Jane Dunham was born in Fayette county, Iowa, October 24, 1857, and with her parents came to Coos county in 1872. On July 7, 1874, she and Joseph E. Fox were married at Coaledo, Ore.

She had been ailing from acute Bright's disease and uremic poisoning for some time when on August 24 the family took her to San Francisco. With the exception of this time and several years spent in Alaska, she had resided in Coos county practically all the time since the arrival of the family here in 1872.

Besides her husband, who is engineer of the tug Kihyam at Bandon, she is survived by several children. They are Robert E. Fox and Mrs. Emil Ogren of San Pedro, Elizabeth Fox, who was with her mother, Wesley Fox of San Francisco and E. E. Fox of Alaska.

She has several relatives on the coast, among them being Mrs. Jud Mills of McKinley, Mrs. E. C. Raymond of Templeton, Mrs. Caddie Lockwood of Santa Rosa, Mrs. Bush of San Diego, Is. Dunham, formerly of Coquille but now of Santa Rosa, and an uncle, Hark Dunham, of Coquille.

The following poem on her demise was written by J. P. Lux of Bandon:

The one that we loved has departed, She has passed from this earth to her rest, And I hope that Our God in His mercy, Will grant her sweet blessings of rest.

Sister and brother and father Are sad for dear mother the best, But we know that she will be taken care of, In Heaven the blessing of rest.

Since mother has passed from caressing, And laid in her grave the last rest, We mourn since the angels have taken Her from our home and our nest. Her place in our home is now vacant And the arm-chair she used to recline, But the mottoes on the wall are still hanging Where she placed them with her hands and mine.
