Library Opening.—The program for the formal opening of the new Marshfield Carnegie Library will begin at 8 o'clock this evening.
Meet Wednesday.—The Baptist Ladies' Aid Society will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. H. Storey, 435 South 8th street.

Pay Fines.—W. J. Conrad and Dr. R. E. Morrow appeared in Judge Butler's police court this afternoon and paid fines of $5 each for violation of the traffic ordinance in their machines.

Revival Meetings.—The meetings in the Christian church continue this week. George A. Webb and wife sing at each service. The service for tonight will consist of "Modern Gateways to Hell" profusely illustrated. Ben Hur will be given on Friday night. All these services are free.

Chamber of Commerce to Meet.—The annual meeting and election of officers of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow evening there. Reports of all officers and committees for 1914 will be read at that time and plans for the procedure and projects of 1915 will be discussed and outlined.

Gets Quick Results.—R. M. Kyle of the Johnson Rooming House yesterday inserted a want ad of a housekeeping suit for rent and within an hour or so after The Times was issued, he had rented it. The Times want ads generally get results so quickly that one or two insertions are nearly always sufficient.

Plan Dance.—Six Marshfield young men have arranged to give another of a series of dancing parties at the Eagles' Hall next Saturday evening. Through an error the date of the ball was given as January 15 when it should have been January 16. The dance will be open to the public, but will be carefully conducted.

Land Company Incorporates.—Articles of incorporation for the Coos Bay Development Company were drawn up this morning in the offices of Graves and McInturf. This takes in the Budzien Park and $75,000 is mentioned in the articles as the amount of capital stock. The members of the corporation are R. Von Shipman, Mrs. R. Von Shipman, L. C. Shipman and J. W. McInturf. R. Von Shipman and Mr. Fawcett left this morning for Eugene. They will conduct an outside sale and expect to be gone several weeks.

Barber Charter.—At a meeting of the journeyman barbers of Marshfield and North Bend last evening, it was decided to send for a charter to organize a local union on Coos Bay. One Gardner barber and a Bunker Hill barber have signed up, besides many in Marshfield and North Bend. There are about twenty-five here who are eligible to membership. The organization of the union is expected to eliminate the 15-cent shops, making a uniform schedule of 25 cents for shaves in Marshfield and North Bend.

Taken Ill.—Purser Miller of the Elder, after ailing for several days, was taken to the Mercy Hospital at North Bend this morning. He will be unable to accompany the ship to Eureka.

Will Handle Fine Engines.—On Friday Gordon Smith and wife, with their little son, who has been ailing for weeks, and who must have a change, according to the doctor's orders, leaves on the Redondo for San Francisco and the old home of Mr. Smith near Fresno. Mr. Smith will accompany his family to the South and return on the next boat, being gone about a week. In his absence the auto fire truck will be handled by Harold Carlisle, who has been practicing with the machine, and who has had experience as a gasoline engineer. Wm. Cox will look after the steam engine in case of a fire and Chas. Jensen will be on duty at the fire station in case of a call.

No Charge Preferred.—No charge has been made out against Vernon Barker and Dallas Foote charging them with "beating up" Jack Fuller, of the Blanco Bar, on Saturday evening, in Bunker Hill. It was expected that some action would be taken today. The local police are unable to act because the scene of the fight was out of the city limits. According to the story of the men, Fuller had been drinking, and started the trouble, after which he was severely handled. Both men were taken in charge early Sunday morning by Night Officer Shoupe and for a short time placed in jail but no warrant could be sworn out and the men were turned loose. Fuller is in Mercy Hospital. The police today were investigating a report that Barker was leaving town.

He is spending the week at the ranch of Charles Dungan on Coos River and talking over old days down on Humboldt Bay, where they grew to manhood together.
M. D. HAMMIL, who recently retired as manager of Fourier's White Elephant Cafe, and wife, left on the Nann Smith for San Francisco, where they will spend a few months with a friend of his who has the Inside Inn at the Exposition. He stated that he would return here in June to help his father in the North Bend hotel project.

THIRD PARALYTIC STROKE IS FATAL

Mrs. Phoebe Clark, Aged 80, to be Buried Alongside Her Companion
Mrs. Phoebe Clark, aged 80 years and for 15 years a resident of North Bend, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Everitt, yesterday, and her body was taken south this morning on the Nann Smith to her old home at Capa, California, where she will be buried by the side of her husband, J. R. Clark, who died there 13 years ago.
For several months Mrs. Clark had been in poor health. Two paralytic strokes had been a great drain on her vitality and the third one coming yesterday noon proved fatal.
The deceased leaves four daughters and one son. Mrs. M. E. Everitt and Mrs. A. J. Savage of Marshfield are the only daughters residing on Coos Bay, though Mrs. A. E. Whan, of Washington, came here a few days ago. A third daughter, Mrs. L. M. Kittle, lives in Modesta, Calif., and the son, S. T. Clark, lives in Guinda, Cal.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. Everitt and Mrs. Whan accompanied the body south.
Mrs. Clark was born in Perry county, Ohio, in 1835 and in her youth came west, living most of the time in California until the death of her husband, when she moved to Coos Bay.
MRS. L. B. ROBINSON DIES FOLLOWING AN OPERATION
Death Brings Long Illness to Close at Mercy Hospital Today.
Mrs. L. B. Robinson died at Mercy Hospital about noon today following an operation for cancer performed on her a week ago. For several years she had been so affected, and the shock of the operation, which the doctors knew was her only chance proved more than she could stand and she failed to rally.
The deceased leaves no children, but is survived by her husband, L. B. Robinson. She will be buried Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church, of which she was a prominent member.
