Moves Today.—Court Reporter A. B. Loud and family have moved into A. J. Savage's new house on Johnson avenue between Fourth and Fifth.

Can't Go East.—L. J. Simpson has wired Henry Seungstacken from San Francisco that he will be unable to go to Washington for at least two weeks and possibly cannot go then.

Issue Licenses.—Fifteen saloon licenses were signed today by Mayor Allen and will be posted in the various saloons. These are the licenses that were granted at a meeting of the city council held on December 31.

On Wrong Side.—Oliver Kephart, driver for Lynn Lambeth, was arrested last night by Officer Richardson on the charge of stopping his auto on the wrong side of the street. He will probably be arraigned before Recorder Butler today.

Gets Degree.—Yesterday morning the Marshfield Masons held a special session in order to give Stewart Dietrich of the George W. Elder his third degree. Following the ceremonies, he entertained the officers of the lodge at a luncheon on the Elder.

New Store Here.—E. Omer, of The Fashion Store at North Bend, has leased the storeroom in the Coke building opposite the Chandler, and will move his store there about February 5. They will carry a fine stock and will have one of the most up-to-date stores in this section.

Sells Car.—Matt Nelme has sold his auto to Chas. Skerrett of the Bunker Hill line. The Nelme car was one of the first for rent cars brought to Marshfield. This leaves only four autolists engaged in the for rent business in Marshfield now, a decided reduction.

For New Boat.—V. C. Gorst and Captain Cornwall of Gardiner were at Bandon yesterday figuring on a new boat to take the place of the Gasgo for the stage line service. Nothing definite was done. They plan to get a more commodious and speedier craft.

Hit by Auto.—Yesterday George Goodrum's auto collided with Mr. Rehfeld on his bicycle at Second and Central. The bicycle was badly damaged. In an endeavor to prevent the crash, Mr. Goodrum put on the emergency brakes and slid the machine fifteen feet. Mr. Rehfeld barely escaped falling underneath the auto.

Pruning Demonstration.—Professor Walter S. Brown, horticulturist of the O. A. C. Extension Department, arrived here yesterday from Eugene. This morning he led a delegation of farmers to orchards on South Coos River, where he will give a pruning and spraying demonstration, showing the farmers how to take care of their trees.

Doe Sisters Up.—In the absence of the city attorney today the case of the Doe Sisters, Alice Holden and Sadie Blair, on the charge of selling liquor without a license, was not brought up before Judge Butler. The women appear before Justice Stanley at Coquille tomorrow on the charge of keeping a house of ill fame.

Warrant Not Served.—Frank Lapp, charged by his young wife with cruel and inhuman treatment and who had a warrant issued for his arrest, appeared this morning before Justice Pennock. He was told that the warrant would not be served during good behavior, as long as he keeps away from his wife, who has taken up divorce proceedings.

Gets Old Paper.—Mrs. Eugene O'Connell today presented the Marshfield Public Library with a copy of the Ulster County Gazette, printed in New York, January 4, 1800, containing a detailed account of the death of George Washington. The paper has been in possession of members of Mrs. O'Connell's family for years and is framed to save it.

Eight Point Elk.—An alluring offer has been received by Dr. G. W. Leslie from a Portland man who wishes to secure possession of a monster eight-point elk head in the doctor's office. The specimen is said to be one of the most perfect on the coast and is extremely large. The elk was killed near Myrtle Point several years ago. Dr. Leslie has not decided to part with the trophy.

Change Here.—Geo. W. Carlton, who has been in charge of the local offices of the Allen & Lewis Company under Manager F. G. Horton for the past 18 months, has resigned and will leave soon for California, where he expects to spend some time for the benefit of his health. He is succeeded by L. A. Woodworth, long with the Portland offices of the company.

Settles Loss.—Fred Tebben, special agent and adjuster of several insurance companies, was the guest yesterday of E. D. Noonan while en route to Bandon to settle a $1000 loss which his companies sustained on the Bachelor residence which was burned last week. Mr. Tebben says that the present year has been a bad one for the insurance companies in Oregon, the losses exceeding the income considerably.

Engineer Gets Invitation.—F. A. Haines has just received an invitation inviting him to an engineers' banquet to be held in Chicago this month, Colonel Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal, being the guest of honor. The two societies issuing the invitation and to which Mr. Haines formerly belonged before coming to Coos Bay are the Western Society of Engineers and the Chicago Engineers' Club.

County Meeting Next Week.—Judge Hall returned this morning from Coquille, where he went to attend a meeting of the county court. Nothing was done as the court was immediately adjourned. The judge believes that word will surely be heard from the Supreme Court by next Thursday, when there is an important meeting of the county commissioners to be held. Road matters will probably come up for adjustment at that time.

J. A. Ward to Leave.—J. A. Ward is a busy man these days making a final roundup of the exhibits for the Panama Pacific Exposition from Coos and Curry counties. He expects to leave on the Nann Smith Friday morning and the crates displays will go south on the next sailing of the Redondo, no freight being allowed on the Nann Smith. Mrs. J. Wright Wilson is making preparations to ship several of her oil paintings to the Exposition for display.

About Ready to Leave.—Word has been received here that the Hazel Dollar is about ready to clear out of Puget Sound for the Orient. She left here last week taking out of this port 1,220,000 pounds of pulp for Kobe. In addition to this the vessel carried from San Francisco 10,306 gallons of distillate for Manila. The big steamboat will put in with cargo at Vladivostok, Koke and Manila. She is loading lumber on the Sound.

Hold Public Sale.—For the amounts of delinquent taxes and assessments, several lots on Eighth street between Pine and Hemlock avenues, were put up for sale yesterday by Marshal Carter at the city hall. Robert Swanton, appearing for the Bennett Trust Company, bid in lots 5, 6 and 7 of Block 1 for sums ranging respectively $40.81, $37.47 and $39.74. The remainder of the lots that were advertised were bid in by the city. There were no other bidders.

Says He Was Robbed.—Fred Nieme yesterday sought a warrant for the arrest of two men whom he accused of robbing his pockets of a $100 bill. Last evening he applied to Justice Pennock, but no arrests were made. Nieme sold his automobile two days ago and carried part of the proceeds about in his pockets. Yesterday afternoon he discovered his bank account short and immediately raised a hue and a cry. So far he has not recovered his money.

Court Has Lull.—Judge John Coke returned yesterday from the county seat, having finished with his equity business there, only some small court matters coming up for his attention Monday. The judge expects to attend to some matters here that are requiring his attention. There are several equity cases yet on the docket and the judge declares that he may have the lawyers concerned come to the county seat to try the cases. A large share of the last equity term was held in Marshfield.

Suit No Judge.—Yesterday being the day of the week upon which the Supreme Court hands down its decisions, no word was received by Judge Hall regarding the County Judgeship question. This probably means that the decision is put off for at least another week and in the meantime, while the wheel of the Supreme Court turns slowly, Coos County is without a County Judge, and business connected with his office is at a standstill. It was believed at the first of the year that a decision would be handed down within a few days.

IT'S HERE AT LAST

It is self starting,
It has no cylinder at all,
It needs no garage,
It needs no skid chains,
It needs no license.

The bicycle is used by war correspondents and soldiers.

Of course, the possession of a bicycle will not make you a war correspondent any more than the possession of a "Tin Lizzie" would make you an automobile owner.

But for a cheap, safe, quick way of going to and from work the TIMESAVER bicycle is the only thing most of us can afford.

LEMANSKI THEATER TONIGHT

THE HOME OF BIG FEATURES AND VAUDEVILLE

"Little Jack Hall," the smallest singing and talking man on the American stage.

O'Dell and Hart, in a complete change of laugh producing food for merriment.

The World Firm Corporation presents "Uncle Tom's Cabin," in five acts, by Harriet Beecher Stowe, America's most famous play, with a famous cast and wonderful photography featuring Irving Cummings and Mary Elaine, the Thannhouser Kid, as Little Eva.

This is a play that every one knows and most everyone has witnessed and read the book and is one that people never get tired of seeing. It is a favorite on the legitimate stage and is proving a high success in motion pictures.

Don't forget that there will be a special matinee tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m., showing this splendid picture.

Admission tonight, lower floor and first balcony, 15c; 2nd balcony, 10c; children under the age of ten years occupying seats, 5c.

Here tomorrow night, "Little Bert and the Marichettes," a new fun-making vaudeville act and one that will make your sides ache. A remedy for sour and stale feelings. Also Jesse L. Lasky presents "Brewster's Millions," with Edward Abeles in his original role, in motion pictures of five parts and 215 scenes.
