Conro Funeral Held.—The funeral of James M. Conro was held this afternoon from the Wilson Undertaking Parlor, Rev. Robert Brown had charge of the services. Many relatives and old friends gathered to pay their last respects to the deceased. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Marv Elizabeth's Shop.—The Art Needlework Department of Mary Elizabeth's Shop will be open this evening with a complete line of stamped goods and needlework supplies. There has been some delay in the shipping of the ladies' furnishings, which were bought in the East, but this department will be opened within the next two weeks.

Sisters Waive Examination.—The "Doe Sisters," Alice Holden and Sadie Blair, appeared before Justice Stanley in Coquille this morning and waived examination and will appear before the grand jury in April. With the return of Assistant City Attorney Kendall this morning it is expected that the case against the women, the charge of selling liquor without a license, will be heard tomorrow some time in the Police Court.

Young Couple Married.—In the study of the Baptist church last evening Miss Margaret Hallowell became the bride of Scott Sullivan Fries. The young couple were intercepted by friends when the wedding ceremony was over and held while the wedding march was played on the organ. The expect to make their home in the city and for the present are staying at the Marshfield Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hampton acted as witnesses for them.

Vote for Chief and Assistant.—Between the hours of seven and nine o'clock this evening the members of the Marshfield Fire Department at the Fire Hall will vote on a chief and assistant chief of the department for 1915. At a meeting held on January 8 Fire Chief Keating was practically elected when no other candidates appeared in the field. The candidates for assistant chiefship are L. W. Traver, J. W. Davis, William Sleep and Homer P. Mauzey.

Sportsmen to Meet.—The newly organized Coos Bay Fish and Game Protective Association, formed a few weeks ago with Dr. George E. Dix at the head, will hold a meeting this evening at the Chandler hotel, when it is expected there will be present Traveling Representative Saunders, of the State Fish and Game Commission, and Inspector Catron of the Biological Survey. All sportsmen have been asked to be present at the meeting as matters of importance are expected to be taken up with the representatives.

Returns for Suit.—W. S. Wiegand, former saloonkeeper of Copperfield, and one of the two men put out of business by ex-Governor West two years ago, returned to Eastern Oregon today after a two-weeks' business visit here. Mr. Wiegand, together with ex-Mayor Stuart, of Copperfield, now has a suit on in the Baker courts against Mr. West for $8,000 damages, the case to be avenue.

tried in April. At the time the militiamen were sent to Copperfield Mr. Wiegand was a member of the City Council.

Asks For Booklets.—A. E. Flak, of the C. A. Smith Company in San Francisco has written here asking that several hundred copies of Coos Bay booklets be sent to him for distribution. Already he has distributed a great many to information seekers. The books will be sent to him at once.

Big Sale Confirmed.—The sale of property at the corner of Third and Commercial was confirmed today by J. E. Cooley. The purchaser of the lot is A. C. Ebbeka, of Nebraska and the price is said to be in the neighborhood of $10,000, being bought from the S. C. Brown estate. It is said that Mr. Ebbeka may erect a building on this corner in the summer.

Gets New Car.—A. S. Hammond has purchased Fred Hollister's Hum- mobile and today is learning the intricacies of driving it. Mr. Hollister has ordered a new Hudson and will have it delivered in San Francisco. He and Mrs. Hollister plan to leave next week for the South and will proceed from there on an extended auto tour of the South. Mr. Hollister was here today with Mr. Hammond.

Accepts Chairmanship.—R. M. Jennings has accepted the chairmanship of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and now is at work making the committee for the year. He will make a special effort to consult all prospective members before appointing them, his chief aim being to get men who are congenial to work with each other. It is expected that these bodies will be announced within the next few days. At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held last Friday evening Mr. Jennings was appointed chairman of the Executive Committee but for a time deferred his acceptance of the post.

Says Borrowed Harness.—Benno Hecker, a German youth of 20 years, was arrested yesterday afternoon and last evening appeared in Justice Pennock's court on the charge of petty larceny afternoon and last evening appeared in Justice Pennock's court on the charge of petty larceny, Mrs. E. Kromminga charging him with the theft of a single harness worth $17. The young man declared his innocence saying that he had merely borrowed it for a friend. Hecker had formerly lived with the Kromminga family in Nebraska, coming west with them some time ago and living with them until lately. On his promise to return the harness he was allowed to go.

Asks Shipping Information.—Information regarding the shipping of Coos Bay, the rates, charges for stevedores, tonnage going out of here and the imports is asked in a letter just received at the Chamber of Commerce from the Terminal Publishing Company of Seattle. This company is now engaged in getting out the annual edition of the "North Pacific Ports", a publication dealing with all ports of the North West. The book was first put into print last year, according to the letter, and was such a success that despite the war several thousand more copies will be sold this year than 1914. The copies, according to A. B. St. John, the business manager, are distributed all over the world.

AMONG THE SICK

Fred Wilson is ill and is confined to his bed today. He was unable to appear today as Coroner.

KEEPING IN GOOD CONDITION

Many people suffer from indigestion and constipation and do not know it. A feeling of dullness and languidness, bitter taste in the mouth, headache, bilious fever—most of those conditions when you "are not sick, but don't feel right"—can be traced to sluggish bowels and torpid liver. Foley Cathartic Tablets cleanse the system, arouse the liver, banish indigestion and make you "feel good all over"—light, energetic and ambitious. Sold by The Owl Prescription Pharmacy on Central
