MUSIC -- AND -- MUSICIANS

Several Good Programs To Come Soon

LONG DISTANCE MUSIC. HERE may come a time when we will be able to sit at the fireside and listen to an opera or a concert over the telephone, says an exchange. It is claimed that a phonetic apparatus has been perfected that will enable us to do so.

There may be some gain in this but on the other hand there will be a distinct loss. Music is something more than sound. There is the personality of the artist, that mysterious quality called temperament, which can not be conveyed by a wire. It is unfair to a singer to be judged by tone alone.

Canned music is a fine thing in the absence of any better, but it can never supply the living, breathing actuality in art.

COMING PROGRAMS. Several interesting programs have been announced for February. Mr. Henrik Gjerdrum will present Miss Edna Larsen in recital February 15, the Girls' Glee Club of the High School will give a program at the school February 12th and the song cycle, "The Morning of the Year," under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Gidley, it is expected, will be given early in the month.

Mrs. Franklin E. Conway will give a recital in the entertainment hall at Myrtle Arms some time the first week of February. Mrs. Conway will be assisted by Mr. Henrik Gjerdrum at the piano.

CHAMINADE CLUB. The Chaminaide Club met Friday morning at the library for their regular rehearsal and business meeting. Mrs. R. K. Booth read an interesting paper on "The Orchestra and Orchestral Music," which will be continued at the next meeting in a paper by Mrs. J. S. Coke. The Club plans to hold a social meeting and musical program during the early part of February. Three new members, Miss Louise Blatt, Mrs. Carl Evertsen and Mrs. B. H. Smith were enrolled. The club now numbers forty-one and is the strongest club in membership in the county. Since their organization in 1904 they have done much to foster the true music loving spirit in this community and are to be commended for their efforts in this direction.

The members present Friday were Miss Evelyn Anderson, Miss Bessie Ayre, Mrs. Ballinger, Miss Blatt, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Coke, Mrs. Conway, Mrs. Daigle, Mrs. Dano, Mrs. Dolan, Mrs. Ekblad, Mrs. Evertsen, Miss Farringer, Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Horsfall, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Knotts, Misses Myren, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Ostlund, Miss Preston, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Savage, Miss Sengstacken, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Stauff, Mrs. Sweetman, Mrs. Thomas, Miss Tickell, Mrs. L. Tower, Miss Nora Tower, Mrs. Walter and Mrs. Watkins.

Processional, Hymn 311, "Ancient of Days" Jeffery Venite Nevin Gloria Patri Mornington Te Deum, found on "Adeste Fidelis" Read Jubilate Decevee Hymn 602, "I Need Thee Ev'ry Hour" Lowry Hymn 491, "The Church's One Foundation" Wesley Anthem, "Seek Ye the Lord" Roberts Soprano solo by Mrs. Charles Stauff with choir accompaniment.

Presentation of Alms, "All Things Come of Thee, O Lord" Whitney Recessional, Hymn 63, "Earth Has Many a Noble City" Hassler Mrs. William Horsfall, Jr., Organist and Choir Director.

BANDON RECITAL. "An Evening of Music" is the title of a dainty program given by Mr. Arthur Richards and his pupils at Bandon-by-the-Sea last week. The program included vocal selections, piano and violin solos. Mrs. Albert Garfield acted as accompanist.

Hubert Robbins, who received much praise for his well rendered piano selections, is a nephew of E. H. Meade and Mrs. Helen Harvey of Marshfield and they are justly proud of his well merited praise.

Following is the program:

CURRENT MUSICAL NOTES. Madame Gerville-Reach, the noted contralto, died recently in New York.

Fritz Kreisler has entirely recovered from a wound received during an engagement against the Serbians in which his regiment took part. He is on a tour of the eastern states and is playing to crowded houses.

EMBELLISHMENTS. Mrs. E. Stanley Henderson will sing at the evening services at the Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday.

Low Keyzer, violinist, who has been spending the past week in Marshfield, expects to leave shortly for Los Angeles, where he is playing first violin in a theater.

Miss Marie Gregg, pupil of Mrs. A. B. Gidley, will leave soon for Washington, where she will conduct the music and singing in a series of evangelistic meetings at which her father, the Rev. Samuel Gregg, will speak.

There was a large attendance at the band concert last Sunday afternoon. All the numbers were received with appreciation, but "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" proved the favorite and was encored repeatedly. The next concert will occur Sunday.

A very fine collection of Victrola records has been ordered for the music department of the public schools. Among the number are records of primary songs, intermediate songs, upper grade and high school choruses, folk dances to be used in playing games, several records for teaching different orchestral instruments, one characteristic folk song of every nation, opera gems from "Il Trovatore," "Faust," and "Tales of Hoffman," selections from "Messiah," and several recitations. The collection contains forty records which will be used for the study of music appreciation in all grades and the High School.
