

Unusual Value Giving

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes
now under-priced

TOMORROW MORNING we begin our clearance sale; the goods we bought for fall and winter selling are now to be closed out in preparation for the Spring Stocks already ordered.

These clothes are just as good as they were at the beginning of the season; the prices were low enough then. Now we're making them still lower; that means the values to you are much higher.

Story Hour.—The children's story hour at the library will be held at 3 p. m. in place of 10 a. m., Saturday, Jan. 30.
Special Sermon.—At the Episcopal church on Sunday at 11 a. m., the Rev. R. E. Browning will preach on the theme: "The Relationship Between Faith and Christian Conduct." The subject for the instruction will be: "The Holy Catholic Church."

New Shop.—Chas. Smith is arranging to open a gun repair shop and bicycle and motorcycle shop on Front street, occupying part of The Gunnery store room.

Takes Over Lease.—It is announced that Bert Ohman, of First Addition has taken over the Bernitt rooming house on South Broadway which Mrs. Lola Delleu has been conducting.

Has Blood Poisoning.—T. C. Russell, superintendent of the Beaver Hill mines, is suffering from an attack of blood poisoning in his right hand. It resulted from a slight wound becoming infected.

Physicians to War.—Arehie Phillips, of North Bend, states that Dr. White and Dr. Lund, who have been looking after the hospital work for Porter Brothers and Grant Smith will leave shortly for Russia where along the Coos Bay-Eugene line, they will join the Czar's army hospital corps.

Make Test Case.—Dr. Mingus expects to make a test case of the city traffic ordinance. He declares that his machine did have lights on at the time he was reported by the officers and pleaded not guilty through his lawyer. It is expected the matter will be brought up for trial tomorrow in the police court.

Want Ad Gets It.—Although fearing that her glove was forever lost, Miss Frances Stack of South Fifth street decided to try a lost ad in The Times, two insertions of which brought the lost silk glove back to its rightful owner, one of the cold storage employes finding the article. She dropped it out of an auto while riding home.

May Come Here.—Engineers Hoey and Fontaine left Eugene Wednesday on a trip over the line and may come to Marshfield before returning home. Mr. Hoey recently returned from San Francisco. Engineer J. E. Gardiner and wife, who have been located at Lakeside, are now at Eugene.

Finish Long Pier.—Anderson & Klockers have finished their contract to replank the long Eastside pier. No new pilings were set, though in many cases the old piles were sawed off at their weak points and new posts put in on top of them. In all there was about 2700 feet of planking 22 feet wide, completed at a cost of about $4000. This work is paid for by the county court.

Blossoming Proves Fatal.—Joe Bloom sailed forth last evening, poured a few drinks down the proverbial funnel and shortly afterward blossomed out with a "daisy bun," on and it was all a policeman could do to direct the blossomed Bloom to the daisy bed in the city jail. This morning he was given a send off by Judge Butler and told to seek greener pastures elsewhere.

Is Debate Judge.—Judge John F. Hall went to Coquille this afternoon where he will be one of the debate judges this evening in the argument between the teams of the Coquille and Bandon high schools. The court decision on abolishing the position of county roadmaster, a berth now held by P. M. Hall-Lewis, has been deferred until next Wednesday, when the commissioners are planning to meet in the event that the Supreme Court passes on the county Judgeship question by that time.

Youth Goes to Jail.—Constable Cox left on the afternoon train for Coquille, having in custody Ed Leneve, the 20-year-old youth who was sentenced to 30 days in the justice court yesterday for stealing clothes from James Logan. Leneve at the age of 15 years was paroled from the reform school at Salem, where he had been sent for stealing. After his theft of two days ago all went well until Logan recognized his pants when they appeared on the street, and found Leneve inside of them.

Pitcher Goes North.—Byron Houck, pitcher for the Brooklyn Federals, came back today with his wife from North Inlet, where he has been visiting his two sisters, and expects to leave tomorrow for Portland. He visited here with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hanson. Houck was formerly at the University of Oregon and later was drafted by the Spokane Indians in 1912 and the following year went East to the Philadelphia Americans before transferring to Brooklyn.

Edgerton's Mother Writes.—A letter was received yesterday by the police from Mrs. William Burnside, mother of Tom Edgerton, who was found dead in the bay several days ago. She is unable to pay the expenses of the funeral, she writes. This will be paid by the county. Edgerton was her only son and she had not seen him for seven years. The last letter she received from him was before Christmas and at that time he stated he expected to go into the mountains and would be gone for some time. A packet of pictures taken from the dead man's belongings were sent today to the mother.

Sells Chickens.—As a result of one insertion of a for sale ad in The Times, W. H. Kennedy disposed of all his poultry. He says that he could have sold many more if he had had sufficient birds to supply the applicants.

Debate Tonight.—This evening in the high school the local affirmative debating team will meet the Coquille negative on the question: "Resolved, That the Government should own and operate all interstate railroads acting as common carriers, and all intra-state lines competing with them, constitutionally waived." In North Bend the Marshfield negative will argue with the North Bend affirmative this evening and at Coquille the Bandon negative will meet the Coquille affirmative. In Bandon the Bandon affirmative will cope with the North Bend negative. These debates will decide the championship of the county and at the same time select the representative to represent Coos County in the inter-district debate when the representative team to the state debate at Eugene next spring will be decided upon.
