WHEN JOY COMES IN.

When joy comes in, an' tells you
You'll miss yer time an' chance
Unless you shake yer troubles,
Or whirl 'em in the dance:

Then you rise,
You rise,
With a sparkle in yer eyes,
An' the world's a world of gladness
That's rolled away from sighs.

When joy comes in, you never Stop to grieve 'bout what
Has been,
Yer troubles they go flyin'—
He lets the blessings in!

An' you rise,
With yer eyes
On a brighter patch o' skies
An' the world's a world of gladness
That's rolled away from sighs.

—F. L. Stanton.

CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m. Friday of each week. Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where the events occurred later than the time mentioned.

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the society department. Telephone 133. No topics of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

because he refuses to try new methods.

In fact, for the never-say-at-homey they see a thousand and one excuses, and sometimes household "duties" are a real detriment in the direction of enjoying the hour. It is the little things all heaped up that eventually make home desolate or a place to go to only when there is no other place.

I know a man who usually left home because of too much order. He was the most unhappy creature. Every few weeks his wife would have a "spring cleaning," and the whole house would be upset. How men have disorder this woman did not realize. Also, once a week his particular den would be turned upside down and everything put out of the position in which he had left it. So that things might be "tidy" he could not call anything his own except the bills.

There is many a woman who doesn't realize her little shortcomings until, from mole-hills, they become mountains—in fact, veritable volcanoes. These women overlook the truth that such a home is a place:

Where a fool and his money are easily parted; where the family history should be a closed book; where even a hen-pecked worm will turn; where, too often, words speak louder than actions; where trouble always has a resting place; where a nagging woman is like the brook; where the early bird catches the worm; where it should be one place that man may tame his wild oats; where the walk to the door is paved with good resolutions—

And where a little love now and then is relished by the best of men.

AFTERNOON PARTY

Mrs. E. S. Givens was the delightful hostess, informally to a little party of friends Friday afternoon, her guests including Mrs. A. O. Haas and little daughter Jean Elizabeth, Mrs. R. W. Morrow, Mrs. D. E. Maloney and daughter Elizabeth, and Miss Margaret Shaw.

BAY CITY LADIES

Mrs. Charles Denison entertained the Bay City Ladies' Aid last Wednesday afternoon.

The parlors were very prettily decorated in Oregon greens.

Misses Rose Moloney, Bruce Kelley and James Moloney rendered several pleasing instrumental solos and a number of vocal selections were sweetly sung by Mrs. Kenneth Kelley and Mrs. Charles Tower. A dainty lunch was served to the following guests and members: Mrs. Park assisting the hostess:

Mrs. L. F. Kelley, Mrs. A. B. Barnes, Mrs. A. C. Allard, Mrs. A. L. Foster, Mrs. J. Hemmingway, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. J. P. Moller, Mrs. J. B. Pease, Mrs. Chas. Tower, Mrs. Kenneth Kelley, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. A. K. Day, Mrs. J. C. Blodman, Mrs. T. W. Bielman, Misses Bruce Kelley, Rose Moloney, and James Moloney and Fred Sandberg. The ladies will meet in three weeks which will be February 17, with Mrs. A. L. Foster.

YOUNG LADIES' AID

The Norwegian Lutheran Young Ladies' Aid spent a pleasant evening of sewing, music and games last Thursday with the Misses Edna and Jennie Johnson in Ferndale. The boys didn't sew, yet found plenty of enjoyable pastimes while the ladies were engaged in the domestic art.

Light refreshments were served. Following were the ones present: Mrs. R. O. Thorpe, who will entertain the Aid in two weeks, Mrs. D. L. Buckingham, Misses: Sonnie Refsland, Elsie Larsen, Dorothy Locke, Mabel Cora and Alice Mathison, Jennie and Edna Johnson, Messrs. E. G. Mellem, Jelmer Refsland, Peter Thorpe, Oliver Larsen, Bert Iverson.

STAR SOCIAL

The Eastern Star held its regular monthly business and social session last Tuesday evening at the lodge rooms. There was a good attendance and a pleasant evening of dancing and cards, followed by refreshments, was enjoyed by the Star members.

M. E. SOCIETY

The regular business and social meeting of the Methodist Home Missionary Society was held at the A. B. Woodworth home last Wednesday afternoon. Preparations were made for a silver tea to be given in the near future and a short program was listened to. Owing to sickness just a few were present.

HARD TIMES SOCIAL

At the Guild Hall next Friday afternoon, February 5, a "hard times" social will be held. The children request all grown ups to be present. Interesting features will be announced at that time. Come and see what they are.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

A lively membership contest is on among the young people of the Methodist Epworth League, which closes the first of March. The left and the right wings are under the captainship of L. C. Von Shipman and Charles Raymond respectively. The former seems to be in the lead but no one can tell what the outcome will be as both sides are fighting valiantly. Last Wednesday evening at the regular business and social meeting seven new members were added to the roll as a result of the young people's efforts. They include Mrs. Frank Ross, Misses Emma Quaternass, Emily and May Blake, Mable Long and Mr. Abbott.

Miss Hattie Hansen won the guessing game prize and Ira Howe must be satisfied with the booty.

Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour when refreshments were served to the members and friends present. These included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ross, the Misses Hattie Hansen, Mabel Lang, Gertrude Robinson, Bertha Davis, Emily and May Blake, Irene Preuss and Messrs. Chas. Raymond, Ira and Frank Howe, L. E. Von Shipman, Lee Hyerly, Shrode and Clay Church.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY

The Wm. Schroeder home with its parlor decorations of woodland greens and poinsettias, was the prettily scene of a card party last Thursday afternoon. Five tables of five hundred were played, Mrs. R. N. Fenton being the fortunate prize winner. The hostess served a sumptuous luncheon at the close of the afternoon's enjoyment.

Mrs. Schroeder's invited list included: Mrs. Perry Dodson, Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, Mrs. Henry Fourrier, Mrs. H. Wells, Mrs. C. Wells, Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Mrs. J. H. Stadden, Mrs. R. N. JOLLY DOZEN

The election of officers occurred at the regular meeting of the Jolly Dozen Club last Wednesday with Mrs. A. B. Snow in Bunker Hill. The following members were placed in office:

President—Mrs. F. M. Marhoffer.
Vice-President—Mrs. Davis.
Secretary—Mrs. L. Christensen.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. B. Snow.

Sewing and refreshments filled in the afternoon hours, which were enjoyed by Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. J. Brockmueller, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. F. M. Marhoffer, Mrs. R. P. Bush, Mrs. H. M. Albee, Mrs. L. Christensen, Mrs. A. L. Butz and Mrs. A. B. Snow.

Mrs. H. Olsen and Mrs. Rourke were unable to be present.

Mrs. H. M. Albee will entertain in two weeks.

MINNE-WIS CLUB

The members of the Minne-Wis Club spent the afternoon last Thursday with Mrs. Charles Davis on Fifth street, in sewing, followed by refreshments. Mrs. F. H. Dresser will be hostess in two weeks.

The following were present: Mrs. W. Brown, Mrs. F. H. Dresser, Mrs. John Dashney, Mrs. A. Z. Downs, Mrs. W. E. Hoagland, Mrs. E. A. Harris, Mrs. E. Kelley, Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mrs. Mary E. Thompson and Mrs. Charles Davis.

FAREWELL PARTY

In honor of Miss Marie Gregg, who leaves next Thursday for Washington, Mrs. Erros Torrey Leyland entertained with a handkerchief shower at her home last Wednesday evening. A large pink rose in the center of the table concealed the dainty gifts which, later were showered on the honor guest, and evergreens were used effectively in the parlor decorations. Music and games were indulged in until a late hour when refreshments were served by the hostess to her guests, who were: Mrs. R. Von Shipman, Mrs. Ida Patterson, and the Misses Ruth Matthews, Ruth Gilbertson, Esther Nelson, Myrtle Downer, Anna Holland, Nellie Holland, Harriett Collins, Ida Downer and Marie Gregg.

BEACH PARTY

A party of Eastside people spent last Sunday at Charleston Beach, making the trip in the launch Buffalo Bill.

Those enjoying the outing were: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee, of Idaho; Miss Maggie Robertson, Miss Hilda West, Miss Edith Franklin of Elkton and Messrs: John Johnson, Roy Robertson and Harry Johnson.
