BORN

CORTHELL.—To Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Corthell, of Bay Park, February 1, 1915, a 10-pound girl. Both mother and daughter are doing well.

Builds Creamery.—C. E. Broadbent, the Coos county cheese and butter king, is erecting a new creamery about four miles above Myrtle Point.

Meet Tomorrow.—The Girls' "Hysocerie" will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the High School Auditorium. "Alaska" is the topic for discussion.

Rough in South.—The Golden Gate is said to have been the roughest last week that it has been in years. A number of vessels were compelled to remain outside for a day. Among them was the steamer Elizabeth from Bandon.

Thorwald Owns House.—It was erroneously stated that August Fritzen owned the house at Bunker Hill in which Mr. Thorwald resides. Mr. Thorwald has owned the property for several years. Mr. Fritzen's property is some distance away.

Gets Marriage Application.—Justice Penneck this afternoon issued a marriage application to John Hogan and Marie Smith, both of whom live in North Bend. The application states that both are more than 21 years of age.

Groundhog Prophet.—The believers in the groundhog as a weather prophet have at least weeks more of bad weather to look forward to. Early this morning and a few times later in the day, the groundhog could plainly see his shadow if he came out.

Elder Goes South.—Six passengers from Marshfield were aboard the George W. Elder when she left out this noon for Eureka. They were Chester Pohler, Archie Pohler, Mrs. Edna Pohler and W. S. Pohler, of Myrtle Point, Harry Tummen and D. I. Macegee.

Rewards Department.—For the efficient work of the fire department at the fire Saturday evening in Bunker Hill, A. E. Gagnon has sent a $10 check to the members. The house of Mr. Gagnon was in the path of the flames and in danger of destruction until the department arrived on the scene.

Still No Judge.—There still is no Coos County Judge, no word having been received from the Supreme Court this afternoon. Judge Hall has gone to Coquille where tomorrow he will sit with James Watson, County Judge-elect, in a meeting with the County Commissioners attending to county business.

Want Hydrants.—Supt. A. E. Gagnon, of the Eastside Smith mill, was in town today. He states that an effort is now being made to secure a number of hydrants for Bunker Hill as a better protection against fire. For the blaze of Saturday evening it was necessary to lay 1000 feet of hose from a hydrant in the Smith lumber yards.

Sheriff Returns.—Sheriff Alfred Johnson, Jr., left on the afternoon train for Coquille after several days here. He received a long distance message from the county seat this morning saying that no word had yet been received from the chemical examination of the Russell body, though it has been expected for several days.

Little Baby Dies.—Nellie Anna Aasen, four months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aasen, of Ferndale, died at three o'clock this morning after an illness of several days. The father is an employe in Camp 1 up Coos River. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock from the Wilson Undertaking Parlor.

Want Ad Gets Watch.—Through a Times lost ad, J. L. Kyle of Coos River has recovered a fine gold watch which he lost Sunday. One insertion of the ad did it. J. L. Blakely of the White Grill found the watch near the Lemanski theater and soon after The Times was issued last evening he discovered the owner and brought it to The Times office.

Barometer Low.—The barometer in the Chandler Hotel shortly after noon today went down to 28.65. It was adjusted by Captain Macgenn the last time he was here and so is supposed to be in good order. This is the lowest the barometer has been for months, Mr. Welch stating that 28.70 of last year was the lowest he had ever seen it here.

Beat Groundhog.—For several years there has been rivalry between C. H. Coddling and S. B. Cathcart as to which could spring the groundhog story first. Generally they have been getting up early and phoning the other one. Mr. Cathcart announced last evening that he was going to get up at 4 o'clock this morning and call Mr. Coddling and ask him if the groundhog was out yet.

Plan Big Time.—At the regular semi-monthly meeting of Myrtle Lodge No. 3, Knights of Pythias, last evening, it was decided to celebrate the fifty-first anniversary of the founding of the order at the next regular meeting. A big attendance is expected as there will be "eats" and other things of a tempting nature. It was decided to confine the celebration to members of the order this year.

Shows Gold Here.—J. R. Smith and son, who claim to have discovered a valuable gold deposit near Lobster and Boulder Creeks, in the southern part of Coos County, arrived here last night. They were showing some nuggets here today. Mr. Smith says that the parties who are trying to belittle his discovery will soon be shown up. Someone started the report that the gold he had was not Coos County gold, but suggests that came from other districts.

Crab Bill Passes.—The bill permitting the shipping of crabs to points outside of Oregon passed the House and passed the Senate. It is now up to Governor Withycombe. It is likely that a strenuous effort will be made to have the Governor veto the measure, as it is claimed that the crabs will be soon exterminated unless they are protected by law. T. H. Barry several years ago fixed up a cannery to engage in the business, but the law prohibiting the shipping of them compelled him to close the plant.

Among the Sick

F. A. Golden, who has been quite sick, is reported improving at his home in Ferndale.

Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, who has been confined to her home by injuries sustained in a fall is rapidly recovering.

Albert Burroughs of the C. A. Smith lath mill, is able to be up and around after a week's illness.

Joe Rooney, who has been at Mercy Hospital receiving treatment for a crushed foot sustained in an accident at one of the camps, was able to leave Mercy Hospital today.

Claire Swain is in from Wagner for treatment.

Mrs. Tom Harvey is at home suffering from an attack of neuralgia and a gripe.

Mrs. W. H. Clarke of Bunker Hill is today confined to her home on account of sickness.

Mercy Hospital and will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Signa Larson is out again after an attack of pneumonia.

C. L. SMITH and wife, of Coos River, were here today on a shopping trip.

J. TOM HALL left today for Myrtle Point to be gone until tomorrow on legal business.

W. J. MITCHELL left on the afternoon train for Coquille after several days of business here.

JOHN LEISMAN, of Coos River, was a Marshfield visitor today, having come down last evening.

JOHN C. KENDALL went down to Bandon this morning on legal business and will be gone for several days.

GOVERNMENT STEAMBOAT INSPECTORS Captain E. S. Edwards and George F. Fuller arrived last evening on the Elder.

MRS. GEORGE POREP is spending a few days with friends on Coos River this week. She will return to her home in California next week.

A. R. GARDINER and wife, who have been living at Beaver Hill for some time, have left for Seattle, where they are expecting to locate.

D. I. MAGEE, pharmacy salesman, left on the Elder this morning for his southern district and a visit in San Francisco. He expects to be gone for about three weeks.

MISS MABLE BILLINGS was an arrival on the Elder last evening from Portland. She is a graduate of the Mercy Hospital course in nursing and has been gone for some time.

MISS MARY E. PRICE, a graduate of the Marshfield High School, returned home last evening from Portland on the Elder. She has been attending school at the Monmouth Normal.

K. W. GOODALE, manager of the Portland branch of the Fisk Rubber Company, and C. B. Prewitt of the same company, are in the city conferring with "The Gunnery," distributors of Fisk tires in Southwestern Oregon, over the coming season's campaign.

MRS. J. A. BUNCH returned to her home in Florence today after visiting here with her sons, Henry Bunch having been taken to the hospital for treatment and J. W. Bunch having been brought down from the camps laid up because of an accident.

HENRY MILLER, the old pioneer who three weeks ago celebrated his 100th birthday, came over today from Coquille as a witness in the Davis-Waters case. He is quite feeble, but walks fairly well with the aid of his cane. He remembers fairly accurately the olden days when Indians in great numbers inhabited Coos Bay.
