BORN

EDE—To Mr. and Mrs. Will Ede, at their home in Bunker Hill, Thursday, February 4, a daughter, their first child.

To Hold Church Meeting.—The church council of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Meet Today.—The Young Matrons' Club is meeting this afternoon with Mrs. R. W. Morrow. The ladies were to have met last Wednesday with Mrs. Guy Kendall, but the meeting was postponed until today.

New Cooson Officer.—W. L. Walker, of Cooson, has been appointed peace officer for that district by the Eastside City Council, Marshal McGriff of Eastside, not being able to take in that territory on his beat.

Carload of Cider.—An entire carload of Hood River cider has arrived at the Smith Terminal Dock, said to be the largest shipment of this sort that ever arrived here. It came for the Coos Bay Produce Exchange for shipment over the county.

Builds New Residence.—P. F. Crouch, a prominent rancher and dairyman on Haynes Inlet is preparing for the erection of a modern home. He has ordered 14,000 feet of lumber, half of which was towed up today by the Messenger. He expects to start the building immediately.

Many Get Licenses.—The office of Harry J. Kimball, Jr., collector of customs, was crowded yesterday by boatmen to make their applications for boat licenses. Inspectors Edwards and Fuller allowed more than 24 of such applications. These must be forwarded to Portland and the licenses will not be granted until some time later.

Turns Ankle in Practice.—Turning out for practice last night in the game of Saturday when the Marshfield Independents meet the Coquille Independents, Ben Fisher, center, turned his ankle and today is limping about. He will not be able to play on Saturday. His place will probably be taken by Landers, who has been playing at guard. Coach Niles, of the high school team, today stated that he may be able to play in the Coquille struggle, although his team is slated to appear in Bandon that night.

Broken Back Is Fatal.—Rade Kovich, an Austrian laborer, died at the Mercy Hospital this morning after hovering for a week between life and death as the result of his back being broken last Thursday while he was at work on one of the tunnels on the new Willamette Pacific. The man at that time was hurried to the hospital, but the injury was said to have been too serious for the doctor's aid to help him. It is believed that Kovich had no relatives in this country. He will be buried from the Wilson Undertaking parlors.

May Replace Equipment.—That the equipment destroyed in the fire at the Oregon Power Company's plant at the Porter mill on Tuesday night will probably be replaced, is the belief of R. M. Jennings, local manager. He states that the loss was well covered by insurance in 12 different companies. There was damaged a long 130-foot belt, costing about $1800, the windings on the generators and switches and switch-board instruments amounting to about $2500, according to a late examination by Mr. Jennings. The damage to the building was very slight, he states.

Allegany People Marry.—At the Methodist parsonage today at noon Miss Millie Gould became the bride of William Roberts. Mrs. Roberts is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gould, who formerly lived on a ranch near Allegany, and Mr. Roberts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts, of the same place. The young couple will leave on the next boat for San Pedro from where they will go to Nevada to visit with a brother of the groom. They will be accompanied by Mrs. G. A. Gould. Word of the coming marriage was early made known to Capt. Edwards of the Millicoma and the craft came down the river this morning well decorated with old shoes.

Go After Witness.—The gasoline boat Agnes H. was sent to South Inlet this morning for Mrs. George Wasson, who was brought up as a witness for tomorrow in a deposition that is being taken by the defendants in the Waters vs. Davis case. This case involves to a great extent all the old pioneers of Coos Bay who can remember events back to the early fifties when Martin Davis is said to have first come here. Testimony is being taken by the attorneys for both sides. Mrs. William Waters of North Inlet, is contending that she is a daughter of Martin Davis by an Indian wife and therefore is legally entitled to a share in the Davis estate.

Moves Office.—Judge Coke is busy today getting together his papers and files for moving from the Irving building across the street to the Coke building. His new quarters will be larger and more commodious.

Johnson Dying.—W. C. Laird, who was here from Coquille last evening, said that the last word received from Alfred Johnson, Sr., at San Rafael, Calif., was that he was gradually sinking. He was unconscious at times.

Church Social.—In the Guild Hall of the Episcopal church this evening at 7:30 there will be a "Hard Time" social to which all are cordially invited. The Sunday School classes are doing all they can to make it a success.

New Angle on Law.—A new angle on the local law was put in force today when two men were placed in jail following their inability to pay a $5 fine for being drunk. Herebefore Judge Butler has had to declare a moratorium. This morning four men were brought before him on the charge of being drunk. One paid his fine and left, another pleaded not guilty and two went to jail. Alex Haquist paid a $5 fine; Erick Hill pleaded not guilty to the charge and was held in jail to wait further trial. Matt Peterson and Matt Matson will probably be let out from behind the bars in time for Sunday dinner on the outside. Haquist claimed that the other three men got away with his watch last night, that they shoved him from the sidewalk and then ran, but when they were captured no time-piece was found on any of them.

AMONG THE SICK

A. E. Neff is laid up with an attack of a gripe.
J. T. Harrigan is just able to be out after a siege of illness.

MISS EDITH MARKHAM was a visitor today from Templeton. GEORGE McCULLOCH of Haynes Inlet, was here today for a short stay.

MRS. JOHN CARLSON came down this morning from Catching Inlet to attend a meeting this afternoon.
R. E. MILLER of the dredge Seattle has returned from a business trip to Portland.
MR. AND MRS. E. W. SMITH were Marshfield visitors today from Catching Inlet.

ARCHIE KRUSE came over yesterday from Prosper to look after business interests here.
W. C. LAIRD, deputy sheriff, returned to Coquille this morning after a two-days' trip here on official business.

MRS. J. C. CULVER was in the city today from Catching Inlet for the purpose of getting medical treatment.
DR. WALTER CULIN, of Coquille, left for his home this morning after meeting with the medical association last evening.

FRED NIEME returned from San Francisco on the Redondo' this morning. He left for the South about a week ago. Mrs. Nieme is still there.
CLAUDE G. HOCKETT and wife of Empire have returned from Portland, where Mr. Hockett was called as a witness in the old Coos Bay Wagon Road land grant case.

WILLIAM EJORQVIST has brought his new gasoline boat down for the installation of the engine. He expects to have it in operation on Coos River within a few days.
W. A. ACKERMAN left on the morning train for Bandon, where he will attend to some legal matters and tomorrow he will be in Coquille on court business.

C. F. McKNIGHT has returned from Roseburg, where he stopped on business following a trip to California. Mrs. McKnight is visiting her sister, Mrs. Porter at Oregon City.
DR. LESLIE G. JOHNSON and Dr. J. L. Masson, both of Myrtle Point, came over last evening to attend the meeting of the medical association. They returned to their homes today.

HERBERT ARMSTRONG, local manager of the Southern Oregon company, has returned from Portland, where he was called as a witness in the government's case to recover the old Coos Bay Wagon Road land grant from his company.

WATERFRONT NEWS

Coming north on the wings of a heavy sou'east wind and swell, the Redondo crossed in this morning from San Francisco. She will sail again for the south at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Bad weather has delayed the George W. Elder and she will not arrive in Coos Bay until tomorrow morning. She is expected to leave soon after her arrival for Portland.

The fact that both the Breakwater and Elder are scheduled to leave out of here tomorrow morning is looked upon by some as meaning a second race between the boats. The last time they went north together the Elder arrived in Portland an hour and a half ahead of the other vessel.

Having left San Francisco today the Nann Smith is expected to arrive in here some time on Sunday.

With her cargo of lumber, the Adeline passed down the Bay shortly before noon today outward bound for San Francisco.

The Hardy is in the Bay unloading her cargo and soon will make ready for the return trip to San Francisco.

The Speedwell was unable to cross out today for the south.

The Daisy, of the Swayne & Hoyt line, crossed out, but the Daisy Putnam, her sister ship, is still detained here.

The A. M. Simpson arrived in today from San Francisco.
