

AT THE SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES

PLURAL THINGS IN PLURALS.

Begin with a box and the plural is boxes;
 out the plural of ox should be oxen, not oxes.
 Then one fowl is goose, but two are called geese;
 Yet the plural of moose should never be meese.
 You may find a lone mouse or a whole lot of mice;
 But the plural of house is houses, not hie.
 If the plural of man is always called men,
 Why shouldn't the plural of pan be called pen?
 The cow in the plural may be cows or kine,
 But a bow if repeated is never called bine,
 And the plural of vow is vows, not vine;
 And if I speak of a foot and you show me your feet,
 And I give you a boot, would a pair be called beet?
 If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth,
 Why shouldn't the plural of booth be called beeth?
 If the singular's this and the plural is these,
 Should the plural of kiss be nicknamed keese?
 Then one may be that, and two would be those,
 Yet hat in the plural would never be hose,
 And the plural of cat is cats, not cose,
 We speak of a brother and also of brethren,
 But though we say mothers, we never say methren.
 The masculine pronouns are he, his and him;
 But imagine the feminine she, this and shin.
 So the English, I think you all will agree,
 Is the most wonderful language you ever did see.

GENERAL SCHOOL ITEMS

The enrollment in the High School for the year total 169. Actual attendance 154.

A class of twenty-two entered high school February 1. They are Chester Condon, Wayne Painter, Irene Fournier, Herman Glossop, Dudley Hill, Estrede Holm, Abbey Ledward, Thelma Taber, Harold Warrath, Elsie Thomas, Harry Leacock, George Atkins, Hazel Joly, Catherine Colombo, Hanna Fitzgerald, Kathleen Fitzgerald, Eliza McKay, Ivy Noah, Glynn Horton, Anna Major, Olive Moore, Otto Olson.

The Irish linen damask for the high school cooking department has arrived. Table spreads and napkins sufficient to accommodate 72 people will be made. The M. H. S. monogram, designed by Miss Volz of the art department, will be embroidered on the linen by the students in sewing. The hemming is being done by pupils in fifth and seventh grade sewing, assisted by students from the high school sewing classes. Our thanks are extended to Mr. J. Albert Matson for his interest and kind assistance. Funds for this investment were accumulated by the department.

The girls' glee club will give a musical program before the school February 12. The program is now in preparation. The public is invited.

The combined glee clubs of the high school are planning a musical program to be given at Buaker Hill about the last of February. The program will consist of musical numbers by the clubs singly and together and of a short pantomime.

The first of a series of five lunches to be served in the high school kitchen will be served Thursday, February 11 from 12 to 1 o'clock by the second year cooking class. Five members of the class will do the serving. The cost will be 25 cents. A limited number of guests from outside the school may be served by telephoning Miss Moore.

Twenty boys, formerly members of Mr. Tiedgen's old English class, were organized into a fire company this week. Ignatius Chapman was elected chief, Jack Merchant, assistant chief. They will study the high school building so as to know how to get at a fire; the location and use of the fire fighting apparatus will be given attention; some pointers on what to do with chemicals in case of fire will be given attention with the view of knowing what is of first value and should be cared for first.
