LOCAL BREVITIES

WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
 OREGON—Rain and cooler in east; southwesterly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., Feb. 9, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist:
 Maximum 58
 Minimum 49
 At 4:43 a. m. 43
 Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1914 47.71
 Precipitation same period last year 42.72
 Wind: South; cloudy.

New Safe.—F. C. Birch of the Rod Cross yesterday installed a fine new compartment safe. It will be especially valuable for his jewelry department.

Improves Store.—Geo. E. Cook is making a number of improvements in his Central avenue grocery. A new balcony, providing additional room, is being built.

Meet Thursday.—The Girls' Athletic Club will meet Thursday, February 11, at 7:30 o'clock in the office of Judge Watkins. Important business will be transacted.

Recovers Glasses.—Mrs. Robert McCann Sunday lost a valuable pair of eyeglasses and yesterday inserted a lost ad in The Times. She phoned today that the missing glasses had been returned to her.

Want Pictures.—The Oregon Farmer, a publication of Portland, has written to the Chamber of Commerce asking for photographs and cuts of farm scenes on Coos Bay to be used in answering queries from outside the state relative to this territory.

In San Francisco.—J. W. Bennett wired here today from San Francisco saying that the crab law recently enacted was not detrimental as some claimed. It is understood that Mr. Bennett will receive medical treatment while in San Francisco.

Remember Birthday.—With post cards covered with birthday greetings in nearly every pocket Constable Cox wore a broad grin today. Old friends in the Wilamette Valley where he formerly lived remembered him well on his 64th birthday, which occurs tomorrow.

Would Forsake Hawaii.—Better Coos Bay than the Hawaiian Islands is the wall of a letter just received here from H. L. Sauer, of Haiku, on the island of Maui. Thirteen years ago he was on Coos Bay. He is sorry now that he didn't stay and asks what opportunities there are here if he will come back.

Many Attend Services.—Much interest is being shown in the talks being delivered at the Methodist Episcopal church by Dr. W. H. Selleck, who will be here until February 28. Dr. Selleck is the speaker who appeared here late in October debating on the prohibition question with Colonel Hofer of Salem.

Committee Meets.—This afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce was being held the meeting of the committee appointed by the ladies' auxiliary of the Chamber to meet with the delegates of clubs and societies in the interest of the "clean up" campaign. The committee of three consists of Mrs. William Grimes, Mrs. W. C. Deubner and Mrs. A. O. Rogers.

Lincoln's Birthday.—Lincoln's Birthday falls on Thursday, February 12. The day will be observed by the banks. They will be closed all day, though the schools will remain open as usual and the matter will be left to the individual teachers as to whether they will hold fitting exercises in honor of Abraham Lincoln. None of the stores will be closed on this date.

Repair Planking.—Repairing of the planking between Ferndale, at the end of the Front street pavement, and the Stave Mill was going on today and traffic was forced to make the trip via the Ferndale routes along Eighth street. The pling has settled on one side of the road and for some time most of the traffic has been traveling on the high side, a fact that has made passage of machines dangerous.

Johnson Very Low.—Alfred Johnson, the pioneer Coquille lumberman who was stricken with paralysis while visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stanley Dollar, in San Rafael, Calif., is very low and it is feared that death is not very far distant. His son, C. McC. Johnson, returned yesterday on the Nann Smith, and his other son, E. E. Johnson, ar-
