Hotel Anniversary.—Six years ago last evening, the formal opening of The Chandler Hotel in Marshfield took place. H. J. McKeown recalled the anniversary yesterday.

On Wheat Ranch.—J. Wright Wilson and family, who are leaving this week for Montana, will locate on a big wheat ranch near Hamilton, Mont. Claude Wilson will be associated with his father.

Meet Tonight.—There will be a meeting of the Anglican Young People's Association in Guild Hall of the Episcopal church Wednesday evening of this week at 7:30. It is urgently requested that all be present.

Is Recovering.—Foreman Varney of the Smith-Powers railroad construction camp south of Myrtle Point, who sustained some broken ribs in an accident a few weeks ago, is recuperating rapidly now.

Gets Commission.—John T. Maguire has received official notice of his confirmation as postmaster at North Bend by the U. S. Senate. He is arranging his bonds, papers, etc., and will shortly relieve Postmaster Russell.

Goes to Eureka.—Geo. Laird, former owner of the Bandon water-works, is now closing out his affairs at Bandon and plans to move to Eureka soon to take his home. He has not definitely decided what business he will engage in.

Swedish Lutheran Services.—There will be services held in the Swedish Lutheran church in North Bend on Wednesday evening, Feb. 17, at 7:30 by Rev. B. F. Bengtson and in Marshfield in the Swedish Lutheran church on Thursday evening.

Bank President.—A. J. Radabaugh, a well known Coquille Valley ranch owner and business man, has been elected president of the Bank of Myrtle Point, succeeding the late Mr. Lunday. R. A. Annin was re-elected cashier at the annual meeting.

Send Booklets.—For the visitors at the Panama Pacific Exposition who may be interested in Coos Bay a shipment of booklets and literature regarding the vicinity was shipped south on the Nann Smith this morning to J. A. Ward, director of the Coos and Curry county exhibits.

Sues for Commission.—W. A. Reid today began suit against John Alena and Harry Sperris for a five per cent commission of the $1700 contract price for the pool and billiard hall on Front street recently sold to Hugh Sneddon. Mr. Reid claims the contract so stipulated and that the amount is $85.

Starts Suit.—Sheriff Alfred Johnson, Jr., was over from Coquille last night to serve papers on the C. A. Smith Company for Luis Kalinowski, a laborer who is suing for damages. Mr. Johnson's father is still no better in San Rafael and the son believes it is only a question of a few days before the end will come.

Elder Carries Five.—Five passengers from Coos Bay left on the George W. Elder when she departed for Eureka last evening at 9 o'clock. They were Mrs. H. Edwards, J. M. Nye, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Nye, Jr., and son, A. Leby and Sam Anderson. The Elder is expected here again on Thursday morning and will sail at 1 p. m. that day for Portland.

Decay Social.—On account of sickness, the Baptist Ladies' Silver Tea has been postponed from tomorrow afternoon to Wednesday, February 24, when it will be given at the home of Mrs. J. T. Byers.

Enjoy Music.—A large number of interested friends and relatives of the pupils of Henrik Gjerdrum gathered at his studio last evening and enjoyed a recital at which several of his talented pupils appeared. A complete report of the musicale will appear in Saturday's Times.

Spends Night in Jail.—Milton Hirst made a lot of noise in the alley beside the police station early last evening and the officers, believing that he wanted to get inside, opened the door and brought him in. He was booked on a drunk charge and this morning was sobered up. He paid his $5 war tax and departed with the change.

To Take Inventory.—Inventory of the estate of John Golden, deceased, will be taken February 25, according to Judge Hall, attorney for the estate. Letters of administration were sent yesterday to Sister Agnes, of the St. Agnes Baby Home, Portland, who is executrix of the property according to the will. The inventory must be taken before any disposition can be made of any of the property.

Sell Cotton.—J. L. Brice has received a letter from a friend who has a cotton plantation in Texas. The latter writes that the cotton buyers have secured the entire crop instead of shipping it now are storing it in the local warehouses. There was little competition this year, the European war knocking the bottom out of the demand. The average price was less than eight cents.

Bank Statements.—Coos county state and national banks are being compelled to make out new bank statements in order to comply with a new form. The new form of bank statements was decided upon just prior to the last call for bank statements and they had not been forwarded here. In consequence the banks in the Coos county towns made out the statements on the old forms and the banking department officials insist that they shall be on the new forms.

Meet Tonight.—The following members of the committee which was appointed at Sunday's meeting in the library auditorium are kindly asked to meet this evening promptly at 7:15 at the residence of Vernon Smith: Messrs. Reed, Gidley, Charles Smith, Niles, Vernon Smith and Browning. Some definite plans are to be discussed relative to organizing the Boy Scouts. The meeting will be open to any young men who are interested in the direction of the Boy Scout work.

Delay Port Tax.—Deputy Sheriff Laird, who was here from Coquille last evening, said that the Sheriff's office was being caused considerable extra work by the Port of Bandon matter. Owing to the litigation pending last summer, few of the property owners in the district paid their port tax and of course they became delinquent when the Supreme Court sustained the Port. Notices were sent out and now many are still holding back, figuring that District Attorney Liljeqvist may knock out the port by his appeal for a rehearing.

Find Abalone Shell.—A large abalone shell, picked up near South Inlet, was brought into the Chamber of Commerce yesterday by L. C. Modlin, who stated that he picked up the peculiar shell on January 28. Abalones are very seldom seen on the Oregon coast, their native haunts being the rocks along Southern California shores. The inside of the shell is mother of pearl and is used for ornamental purposes. The meat of the abalone is dried by the fishermen of the South; is tough and leathery in appearance, but forms a nourishing food.

FIRE LOSS FIXED BY TWO ADJUSTERS

Oregon Power Company Takes Steps to Replace Auxiliary Light Plant at Once

Final adjustment of the fire damage to the Oregon Power Company's auxiliary plant at the Porter Mill was completed yesterday and set at a mark close to $6000 by William Patterson, of Portland, appointed adjuster for the twelve insurance companies concerned, and R. M. Jennings, appointed to represent the power company. To aid Mr. Patterson in making the final estimate, B. E. Davis, of the Davis Electrical firm in Portland, came here and went over the plant closely inspecting the switchboard and the motors that were damaged in the fire of two weeks ago that occurred during a heavy wind and rain storm when high power wires were blown down and short-circuited. As quickly as possible the entire equipment will be replaced, stated Mr. Jennings this morning. Immediately after the fire occurred employees of the company in Portland began negotiations for again equipping the plant here that is used entirely for emergency purposes. There will need to be purchased a heavy belt, 48 inches wide and about 140 feet long that extends from the engine to the main dynamo. This will cost approximately $1800. The switchboard was a total loss and cannot be replaced, according to Mr. Jennings, for much under $3000 and the damage to the building is estimated at between $1100 and $1200.

Mrs. Charles Bonebrake is confined to her home on account of sickness.

The three minor children of Mr. and Mrs. William Bleckford, of South Inlet, are in bed with the typhoid fever.

MRS. ARCHIE BOONE is recovering from her ten-days' illness with a very severe cold.

No Overdrafts.—The U. S. Treasury Department is sending out a circular letter to National Banks announcing that they must adopt a rule absolutely prohibiting overdrafts on checking accounts. The latter states that the State Bank departments will probably do likewise and in consequence parties who have been crowding their checking deposits are likely to soon get a few jolts by having their checks turned down. The Treasury Department says no exceptions must be made.

You Discourage Substitution When You Refuse to Buy "Just As Goods"

THERE are only two types of Retail Merchants—those who do and those who do not substitute.

IF YOUR dealer is one of the type who is always talking "Just as Goods" you can reform him by refusing to buy his ORPHAN BRANDS

TELL him plainly that if he desires your patronage he must cultivate the habit of handling you the articles you ask for without argument.

DO THIS, and you will impress on him the fact that the modern idea, the business-building plan these days, is selling customers what they ask for.

IF YOU and your friends get together and form a "Get What You Ask For" Club you can hasten the day when imitations and "Just as Goods" will be banished from the stores of your city.

IT IS a recognized fact that the dealer who insists on offering something "Just as Good" as the article asked for is on the down grade.

YOU will find that the successful dealer always hands out articles asked for; thus he saves time, argument, effort and sells more goods. He holds your confidence, and this is the soul of success.

WHICH dealer do you prefer to patronize, the one who does or the one who does not sell "Just as Goods?"

"Get What You Ask For" Patronize the store which under no circumstances offers you a "Just-as-Good" substitute. You may well have confidence in
