EXTEND WELCOME TO NEW ARRIVALS

"Get Acquainted" Slogan of Successful Gathering at Millicoma Club

Were you welcomed to the city last evening at the Millicoma Club? If not you missed something. Several hundred men and women gathered there, some of them old citizens here, others newcomers. Together they mingled, became acquainted and all were brought face to face and made to feel that this is a good world after all and that every person on Coos Bay wishes the other well.

The occasion was the "get together" planned by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce, and the entertainment committee appointed some time ago. "Women should be allowed to join the Chamber of Commerce," said one of the members at a meeting of that body a while back. Every one thought it a good move, the motion was seconded and unanimously passed. And with this done the invitation was sent out to the women inviting them to become honorary members. The way in which they responded to their new duties was plainly evident last evening. They said: "Here we have new people arriving in our midst every week. There should be some way of getting acquainted with them." And so acting on this the women with the Chamber of Commerce immediately planned a "get acquainted" gathering.

In All Ways a Success It was a success. At least three hundred people assembled in the club rooms, graciously given over for the occasion. Director R. N. Fenton, of the Coos Bay band, was congratulated on the first appearance of the 30-piece symphony orchestra. It was a musical treat, the playing of trained musicians and time and again was vigorously applauded by the delighted visitors.

Assisted by Mrs. Turnbull and Miss Sherwood. Those present were Mr. Mrs. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Evland, Mr. and Mrs. Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Folsom, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull, the Misses Sherwood and Mr. Harlocker and Mr. McKenna.

On last Friday evening the members of the Kokeel Klub entertained their wives and sweethearts at a Valentine party. The club rooms were prettily decorated with hearts and Cupids and also in flags it also being Lincoln's birthday. A large crowd was present and tripped the light fantastic until a late hour. Punch was served during the evening and later lunch was served.

Mrs. Wm. Cundlin was hostess on Monday afternoon to a few friends at sewing. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. Those present were Mesdames Folsom, Liljeqvist, Endicott, Sanford, Sterling, Lamb and Miss Sherwood.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. A. Collier was hostess to the 500 club, it being the election of officers. The following were elected: Mrs. Robinson, president, and Mrs. Currie, secretary and treasurer. Lunch was served, Mrs. Currie assisting the hostess. Those present were Mesdames Robinson, Evland, Collier, Folsom, Currie, Sherwood, Hazard, Liljeqvist, Sterling, Ed Lorenz, Henry Lorenz, Geo. Lorenz, Sinclair, Hartson, Pierce, Nieman, Gamble and Miss Sherwood.

On last Tuesday evening Mrs. Williams and Miss Woodford entertained the J. G. W. Club. The evening was spent in sewing, music and merry-making in general. At a late hour we were told to take our partners for a grand march and following the leaders we all marched to the home of Mrs. Fred Slagle where a delicious lunch awaited us. The table was prettily decorated with violets and hyacinths. The guests found their places by pretty little Valentine place cards. Those present were Mesdames Slagle, Lamb, Johnson, Folsom, Endicott, Hawkins, Gould, Cary, Lawrence, Jones, Cundlin, Ed Lorenz, Geo. Lorenz, Henry Lorenz, Hartson, Sterling, Lyons, Fuhrman, Howard, Sanford, Liljeqvist, the Misses Sherwood, Jones and Davenport. Mrs. Slagle and Mrs. Lamb assisted in serving.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Archie Phillips was hostess to a few friends and the evening was spent in music. The hostess served a dainty lunch, being assisted by Mrs. McKinley. Each guest found her place by a dainty Valentine place card. Those present were Mesdames Pierce, True, Nieman, Jusa, McKinley, the Misses Boss Maury, Myrtle Lund, Dorothy Watson and Mae Jones.

Then followed a vocal solo by Mr. Roy Miller, who responded to the encore with "A Jolly Monk." Mrs. Miller was obliged to appear three times and even then she was loudly applauded for another encore. Mrs. Ballinger and Miss Esther Asplund rendered very good piano solos.

And through all the entertainment there went the spirit of informal good fellowship, the feeling to even the newcomers that they are welcome here and that others are taking an interest in their welfare.

The members of the refreshment committee were: Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mrs. J. A. Matson, Mrs. William Grimes, Mrs. R. M. Jennings, Mrs. Harry Nasburg, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. Ward Blake, Miss Louise Blatt.

Welcomes Newcomers. "Some of us are old-timers here," said Judge John S. Coke, in his address of welcome, "but in this I mean that we have only partly watched this community grow up. You newcomers are here in time to watch it grow into one of the largest and best developed communities in the state—perhaps second only to Portland. We who have been here for some time, we welcome you who are new. May good fortune come to you here and may you always feel that we are ready to do our best for your good boost."

In a happy, laughing long line the guests gathered and passing by the "cafeteria table," were helped to deliciously made coffee and sandwiches and it was not until after eleven o'clock that even the older persons began to leave.

President Hugh McLain, of the Chamber of Commerce, some time ago appointed a committee of five women to have charge of the social entertainment of visitors to the city. The members of this committee were Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, chairman, Mrs. C. R. Peck, Mrs. R. M. Jennings, Mrs. F. E. Allen and Mrs. J. S. Kaufman. The personnel of the program committee of last evening was: Mrs. G. W. Kaufman, chairman, Mrs. C. R. Peck, Mrs. J. H. Flanagan, J. Albert Matson and Tom T. Bennett.

EVER HAVE THIS EXPERIENCE ?

Start again and again to save, and have some small demand cut into your surplus till you got discouraged? That's the common experience, and the reason's just this:

Saving, to be successful, must have a definite and compelling object and plan.

When you can secure valuable property on an easy savings plan you place yourself in just the right position to succeed, and you have, besides, a sense of ownership and achievement that soon becomes a habit.

The first successful effort encourages you to greater ones, and you've no idea how the habit of "getting ahead" grows on you and develops the ability to persist and make good.

We Know You Can Make Good in Bay Park

We believed in this property heart and soul when we first put it on the market.

Its development has exceeded our expectations.

Now its success is certain—that's evident to all who see it. And you can buy lots there for only $100.00 each, and have practically your own time to pay for them, although you get possession at once.

Isn't it worth while? Ask us more about it.
