The Hysocrie will present the Marshfield Public Library with one year's subscription to the Outlook. Six pieces of furniture made by the students in the Manual Training Department of the Marshfield Schools and destined for the Oregon Building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, are on exhibition and those interested will find them in the window of the Marshfield Hardware Company's store on Central Avenue. They will be taken out Monday and crated and shipped. These pieces are the work of the following students: Leo LaChapelle, Clarence Burrows, Emil Backman, Carl Back and Ralph Christenson.

The University of Oregon will offer a "Summer Field Course for Teachers" in the summer school this year. It may be of interest to know that the trip includes Siuslaw River Valley, the Coos Bay section and Crater Lake.

Marshfield's second basket ball team is showing up well in practice. It is hoped to arrange a schedule of games for this team.

All pupils in the Marshfield High School give either declamation or oration in class during the year. The twelve best are chosen from each class by a process of elimination and these compete in class contests. The best from these class contests compete in the annual Red Cross Medal contest.

UNANSWERED PRAYER

Dost thou of God a special favor crave?
And doth the prayer remain unanswered yet?
O, supplicant, wait a while. Do not forget and be brave.

For thou shalt have an answer to thy prayer
If only thy petition seemeth good.
God's laws are true when rightly understood;
He cannot cease for humble hearts to care.

Renew thy prayer with perfect confidence,
Although God's laws thou dost not understand.
He trieth hearts that he may prove their love.

And though thy longings may be most intense,
Live thy hand,
And he will shower his blessings from above.
—Henry J. Cox.
