Official Paper of Coos County

Entered at the Postoffice at Marshfield, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second-class mail matter.

COOS BAY IS ALL RIGHT

Why not spring in the Spring season with a face full of optimism? Drop that grouchy, talk good times, help keep things circulating. Coos Bay is all right. The world is all right. The trouble is with some of the people.

PROSPERITY

WE SHOULD all help towards making better times on Coos Bay this year by doing something a little more than we had planned, and so add a little more activity to the year's energy than would otherwise happen. If a hundred men in Marshfield, or even fifty, will do something more than they had planned to do this year, it will help make Marshfield an active place this season and the year made easier.

If you planned an addition to the house, or a new porch or a new cement walk, why not help by "Doing it Now?"

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING Every time a man smiles, and much more when he laughs, it adds something to his fragment of life.—Sterns.

PAY THE PRINTER.

There's no fuel in the woodshed. No corn within the bin; An empty purse—thoughts in my head.

That fill my soul with sin. Stern creditors do me pursue, And some who read the news, The best I have they misconstrue, And do not pay their dues.

Then, pay the debt while there is time, Health and the means as well; 'Twill be too late in that hot clime Where debtors go—that's h—ll.—Star Key.

Lots of Coos Bay people who wouldn't work for you for $2.00 per day are perfectly willing to attend to your business for nothing.

When a Coos Bay man wants a new hat he goes into a store for two minutes and comes out with an up-to-date lid on his dome. When a Coos Bay woman wants a new hat she goes into a store for an hour and tries on all the "creations" and comes out with some up-to-date ideas to use in making over an old hat she is wearing.

THE QUIET OBSERVER SAYS

"Anyway, Adam didn't have to sit around at night and listen to Eve nagging that she wished she had some decent clothes to wear like other women."

A PERSONAL STATEMENT

There are so-called "honey and tar" preparations that cost the dealer half as much but sell at the same price as the original and genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. We never offer these imitations and substitutes. We know you will buy Foley's whenever you need a cough syrup if you once use it. People come long distances for the true Foley's—over thirty years the leading remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and laryngitis coughs. Owl Brand Cough Syrup, Frank D. Johnson Pharmacy, Frank D. Johnson, Central avenue, Phone 74.

Jim Hunt's Booster Breezes

Editor Coos Bay Times: HERE goes letter No. 1 from Jim Hunt, the Coos Bay booster. Hear that voice? Yes. What is it? Why that's the first overland Pullman train coming into Marshfield over the new cross-country road bringing a train load of wheat ranchers, cattlemen and hay men, and their families, down to the sea. What road did you say? I don't just know the name, but I see one coach labeled Spokane, one Walla Walla, one Pendleton, one Burns and one Roseburg. Hear that whistle coming down the wind? Yes. That's the through freight ten minutes behind, bringing a train load of fat steers, hogs and sheep to Coos Bay markets. Hear that other rumbling? That's a train load of wheat and hay three hours late, trying to make up lost time. Come along bunch grassers! We'll treat you right. You need not go to Long Beach or San Diego. Spend your honest money in Oregon. That's where you make the dough. Spend it building pretty homes, where old ocean's breezes blow; Spend it with a booster's pride, where steel and water meet; Spend it with a lavish hand and you we'll always greet! —Jim Hunt.

WINTER DOUBLES WORK

In summer the work of eliminating poisons and acids from the blood is helped by perspiration. In cold weather, with little out door work or exercise to cause sweating, the kidneys have to do double work. Foley Kidney Pills help overworked weak and diseased kidneys to filter and cast out of the blood the waste matter that causes pains in sides or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiffness of joints, sore muscles and other ills resulting from improper elimination. For sale by Owl Prescription Pharmacy, Frank D. Cohan, Central avenue, Opposite Chandler Hotel, Phone 74.
