NEWS FROM MYRTLE POINT

(Special to The Times.)
MYRTLE POINT, Or., March 8.—George Guerin, Jr., returned today from a visit to his parents at Oakland, California, and attended the exposition in San Francisco. While he was there his father suffered from a hemorrhage of the lungs but was improving.
 Word from Mrs. E. A. Beales states that she will not return to Coos County but will make her home in Butte, Montana. Myrtle Point loses a splendid trained nurse and the friends she has made here regret to have her leave.
 Alfred Ellsberg was a business visitor here the first of the week. Tuesday evening he spent at Wagner, returning to Myrtle Point on Wednesday.
 Frank B. Tichenor is the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. D. Guerin at the Guerin Hotel.
 The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. L. A. Roberts.
 Mr. Cleve Sumerlin was injured slightly in the Lawhorne camp up the North and East Fork of the Coquille. He will be unable to work for a while and came to town to be with his mother.
 The little Norton boy remains about the same at the Guerin Hotel. The nurse, Miss Underhill, of Marshfield, is remaining another week. Dr. Johnson is quite hopeful that the child will live.
 The W. C. T. U. will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Jake Strong. A good program is prepared and probable candidates for the city election in April will be discussed.

ALERT CLUB

Mrs. Jas. Nowlin was hostess at a very interesting meeting of the Alert Club Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Ed Noah was leader. Mrs. Heap read a paper on the subject: "Tardiness and Its Remedy." Mrs. E. C. Barker on "Advantages of Positive Teaching of Children in the Home," and Mrs. W. B. Piper related in an entertaining and instructive way a Bible story to the children who were present. This was followed by a sweet vocal solo: "If you Love Them, Tell Them So," by Mrs. F. B. Rood.
 Fancy work occupied the remaining hours until the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. B. Piper, who will entertain the club in two weeks.
 The Nowlin home was very prettily arranged with wild currants, pussy willows and daffodils with table favors of blue violets.
 The members present were: Mrs. H. S. Larson, Mrs. E. C. Barker, Mrs. W. B. Piper, Mrs. J. E. Noah, Mrs. C. D. Piper, Mrs. V. K. Rood, Mrs. F. B. Rood, Mrs. Heap and Mrs. Jas. Nowlin, and the visitors: Mrs. James Landrith, Mrs. Eugene Terry, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Mrs. C. H. Mahaffy, Mrs. W. C. Morgan, Mrs. Ella Bowman, Mrs. Beattie and Miss Mahaffy. The following children were also present: Adeline Larson, Irene Barker, Elsie Terry, Jack Piper, Robert Rood and Baby Morgan.

ANOTHER COOS COUNTY INDUSTRY TRY IN THE MAKING
 Editor Times:—In the first place I wish to express my heartfelt appreciation to the druggists of Coos County, who almost to a man, have given me orders for my proprietary medicine, Laxatena, to be sold at their store.
 The plan is to have these tablets manufactured on Coos Bay, but until such can be done, they will be made elsewhere, shipped to Coos Bay in bulk, and here be placed in pretty little boxes and re-shipped to other localities. There is here an opportunity of building up another Coos County industry and it is sincerely hoped that the general public, like the druggists, will give home enterprise and home medicine a thorough trial and if it is all that is claimed for it, patronage is assured for it also in the future. Why not purchase some of these dainty boxes and send to your friends elsewhere and in this manner advertise Coos County and your home section and help build up another home industry? Many have kindly offered to do this, will you? Yours respectfully,
 W. M. E. HOMME.

THE REAL QUESTION
 The question is not, will men honor you for your work? But does your work honor you? Your concern is not only to create profit for yourself, but to make that which will profit many besides yourself.

WHEN SPRING COMES

THE APPROACH of Spring, even in this mild climate where the seasons melt and merge into other almost imperceptibly, has to be associated with so many material changes, that we times fail to appreciate the subtle possibilities that the brings. In a general way regard it as a time for new and suits and a reduction in cost of heating and lighting. We are likely to complain of the less and the wetness and to so that it is beastly weather olds and spring fever. Yet are really beautiful and grateful qualities about as the poets have suggested time to time. The first early and the green grass growth round, are genuine delights to average person, and besides the sense of a new start, a bit of faith and growing beliefness unseen that the refurbishing Nature seems to typify. The old grandfathers hobble into porch chairs or for brief in the vernal sunshine. Children the gypsy call that them forth. Old disappointments are forgotten, and fresh are born with the leafing of maples and willows. It is a for new clothes, new resolved opportunities. A romantic of promise hangs over the roadways and even creeps the corners of city streets. There is to be pitied to whom there none of this exquisite revival rit when Spring comes.
