BORN
THORP.—To Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Thorp at their home on Knob Hill a daughter. She is their first child.

LINDBERG.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lindberg, a daughter, their first child. Mr. Lindberg is a driver on the Gorst King line.

Go To Hatchery.—Dr. Straw, H. J. McKeown and a number of others enjoyed a trip to the South Coos River hatchery late Wednesday.

Basket Social.—The Methodist Epworth League will give a basket social and program Saturday evening in the church hall. A big time is anticipated by the young people.

To Give Dance.—C. C. Dana, one of the popular members of the engineering crew of the railroad work at Ten Mile, is planning to give a big ball at Lakeside soon for his friends.

Lenten Service.—There will be a Lenten Service in the Episcopal Church this evening at 7:30. The subject of the devotional instruction will be: "The Foundation of Happiness."

Funeral Sunday.—The funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Enegren who died as a result of the shock of falling into the river, will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 from the Swedish Lutheran church.

Jitney Is Success.—That the jitney bus is a success in Marshfield is indicated by the business on the First Addition line. It is stated that the jitney car on that run averages between 150 and 200 passengers daily and on Sunday has carried more than 300.

Return Here.—F. L. Grannis and wife and daughter returned yesterday from Turlock, Calif., where they have spent the past year on a ranch. Mr. Grannis says that he became too imbued with Coos Bay to become a Californian and they expect to locate on the bay again. Mr. Grannis was formerly director of high school athletics here and their many friends on the Bay will warmly welcome their return.

In From Ten Mile.—Mr. and Mrs. James Cowan came in from Ten Mile yesterday. They walked down Ten Mile Creek to the beach and caught the auto line. They made the walk in forty minutes but had a very cold ride from there to Marshfield.

To Panama.—Martin Luther, who has been working with Kenneth Hauser on the railroad work at Ten Mile, will leave tomorrow via Panama for his home in the East. He will take in the Exposition and also visit New Orleans and New York before returning to Minneapolis.

Sentence Suspended.—On the charge of having his machine standing in front of the Right Cafe after having been told by an officer to move Roy Ruffner was yesterday brought into the police court, but sentence was suspended on his promise to hereafter obey instructions.

Postpone Deal.—V. C. Mattson who has been figuring on reopening the Royal on North Front street has postponed the matter indefinitely. He says the $110 per month is too much to pay for the building in its present condition and G. J. Lemanski who holds a lease on it dislikes to sublet it for any less.

Sixty-nine Today.—William Centers, of Eastside, is being congratulated today on his 69th birthday, and also the fact that he is one of the oldest native-born Oregonians in the county. He is still hale and hearty and able to do teaming and sub-contract work. Mr. Centers was born in Oregon City in 1846 and has lived in this state practically all of his life.

Home Yesterday.—J. A. Albert Mattson has returned from San Francisco where he took in the exposition and met a number of eastern salesmen. He says the Exposition is a great success and that the business outlook is much improved. He was detained there several days owing to the lack of passenger ships north from San Francisco, the Nann Smith having been on the dry dock and the Redondo being sent away.

Closed Nights.—Manager Jay Brown of the Palace Cafe has decided not to keep the restaurant open all night after this. For nearly twenty years, the Palace has been open night and day and it seems strange to some of the "night hawks" to find it closed.

Gets Out Piling.—Al Smith who is now operating a tie-camp in which a half dozen Smiths are employed, came in yesterday with the Southern Pacific officials relative to the work. He has been working strenuously, reducing his avoirdupois from 210 to 186.

Losses $20 in Purse.—When W. M. Cox entered the Finagan and Bennett bank yesterday he carried $10 to deposit for a lodge and also had $20 in his purse. This latter he absently left on the desk when he went out and it was some time before he missed the money and returned to make inquiries. Many had been in the bank since that time and Cox is still looking.

Trifle Too Keen.—Carl Hone went walking down the street last night feeling too keen for anything, that is, almost anything. He took several "jolts" of strong hair tonic along the way and when pretty much on an edge was picked up by Officer Shoup and placed "inside looking out." Hone was not keen this morning; the edge was gone entirely, so was his money and all he could do was gasp when Judge Butler levied a $5 assessment.

Caught Dynamiter.—J. H. Shattuck, sheriff of Kitsop county, Washington, came here yesterday from Portland with a warrant of arrest for a Marshfield negress. He came in on the Breakwater and at Empire passed the Elder outward bound with his quarry aboard. Undaunted he got the Chief of Police in Portland on the line and told him to make the arrest. Mr. Shattuck aided in the arrest of Caplan, the last of the gang who dynamited The Times office in capture was made near Tacoma less than two weeks ago. Today he showed the officers a partial confession from Caplan in which he states he will not "squeal" on his confederates. He told where the dynamite was secured. Mr. Shattuck went back by way of Myrtle Point this afternoon.

Percales

MRS. E. F. STUTSMAN has returned from San Francisco after a visit there.

GEORGE SHERIDAN of North Bend was a Marshfield business visitor last evening.

L. E. DOLL, superintendent at the Libby Mine, returned from San Francisco on the Nann Smith yesterday.

JUDGE COKE and A. B. Loud, court reporter, went to the county seat this morning for a session of the equity court.

W. E. BEST, manager at Bandon of the lumber department of the A. P. Estabrook Company, was in the city last evening on business.

J. R. LIPPS, who for several months has been employed at the mines at Beaver Hill, is in the city and will leave on the next boat for Portland.

MR. and MRS. J. O. STEMMER, of Myrtle Point, returned yesterday afternoon on the Nann Smith from San Francisco where they visited the Exposition.

SCHILLER B. BERMANN is back after a visit of several days in the Coquille Valley. He came in from Portland last Sunday via the stage route.

MRS. WILL STODDARD, who now resides near Myrtle Point where her husband is employed on the Smith-Powers line, was a Marshfield visitor yesterday.

ANDREW GREER, who claims to represent an eastern concern in Curry county iron mines, has returned from Duluth, Minnesota and expects to leave soon for Curry again.

H. R. DEWART, attorney representing the Credit Men's Association of Portland, returned to his home this morning following the meeting of creditors in the Murphy-Westerburg bankruptcy case.

LEO W. MEYER, a graduate of the University of California, arrived yesterday to enter the employ of the Smith-Powers company where he expects to get practical experience in lumbering before taking two years forestry course at Yale.

W. P. SCHIEFFELE, head filer at the Smith Mill several years ago, with his wife returned yesterday from Waterman, Texas where he has lived subsequent to his return from Mexico where he went on leaving here. Mr. Schieffele may remain here permanently.

WATERFRONT NEWS

Bound here from San Francisco the steam schooner Yellowstone is due in this afternoon, according to the agents of the Swayne and Hoy line. She will leave tomorrow for Portland after unloading freight here.

With a cargo of merchandise the Roamer will leave out tomorrow for Florence, from which port she will proceed to Portland where she is to load cannery supplies for the Rogue River. The Rustler is in the north now on a similar trip.

On Sunday morning the Nann Smith will leave down for San Francisco from the Smith Terminal Dock.

Finished loading the Adeline Smith left down the Bay early this morning bound for San Francisco. She arrived in late Wednesday night from the south.

From Gardiner the Gleamer arrived in this afternoon and is now loading merchandise for a return trip. It was reported some time ago that the Gleamer had been laid up because of slack shipping.
