JOLLY DOZEN MEETS

The Jolly Dozen Club spent a pleasant afternoon of sewing with Mrs. Brockmueller last Wednesday at the close of which the hostess served refreshments to Mrs. Marhoffer, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. A. B. Snow, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Christensen, Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. R. F. Bush who will be hostess at the next regular meeting.

ENTERTAINS AT SEWING

Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. Going and Miss Dorothy Chantler were guests last Wednesday afternoon of Mrs. C. W. Cumbers at sewing at her apartments in the Myrtle Arms.

N. B. CATHOLIC GUILD

Last Tuesday afternoon the Ladies' Guild of the North Bend Catholic Church met at the home of Mrs. George Black for their regular business and sewing session which was followed by dainty refreshments. Mrs. Archie Phillips, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Clarke were present as guests and the members being in attendance were: Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. A. Hoelling, Mrs. Walter Russell, Mrs. Leighton, Mrs. Redmond, Mrs. R. Banks, Mrs. Sticklish, and Mrs. Geo. Black.

The ladies are planning to give a ball at Eckhoff's hall on the evening of the first Monday after Easter, which will be April 5.

Mrs. McDonald will be hostess to the Guild the second Tuesday in April.

PROGRESS CLUB

The regular meeting of the Progress Club was held last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Morrow with the topic "The Southwest" for discussion.

Mrs. Ben Chandler assisted by Mrs. R. K. Booth and Mrs. A. T. Lagerstrom read a very interesting and instructive article on the "Grand Canyon." "Cliff Dwellers and Their Homes" was the subject of Mrs. Fred Powers' paper.

The name of Mrs. Harry Nasburg was added to the membership roll.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. F. W. Payne and the topic will be "The Pacific Coast States" and the following ladies will have papers: Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, Mrs. A. B. Gidley, Mrs. Otto Schetter, Mrs. Rolfe Nerdrum and Mrs. W. T. Stoll. Present last Monday were: Mrs. W. M. Blake, Mrs. R. K. Booth, Mrs. Ben Chandler, Mrs. R. H. Corey, Mrs. A. B. Gidley, Mrs. J. S. Lagerstrom, Miss Esther Silverman and the hostess, Mrs. R. W. Morrow.

ST. MARY'S GUILD

St. Mary's Guild, of the North Bend Episcopal Church, met on Thursday afternoon at the rectory in Marshfield. Owing to the absence of Mrs. Bartle through illness, the President, Mrs. Byler, decided that the business part of the meeting be transferred to the next meeting. The Rector, in a few appropriate remarks introduced Sister Janet, of St. Mary's Mission House, Chicago, of which institution she is Sister Superior. He said that it was most appropriate that the first address to a woman's guild since coming here should be one bearing the name of her own order of St. Mary. Sister Janet gave a most inspiring and helpful talk on her work in Chicago telling of the many forms of helpfulness which the Mission House carried on in the great metropolis, especially among the woman and the children who found for themselves at the Mission House a haven of refuge and an inspiration with which to begin life anew. She spoke of the splendid efforts of Bishop Sumner in the heart of the worst district of Chicago, how as the head of the Commission appointed by the Mayor of Chicago, the whole city felt the beneficial effects of what he had undertaken, an influence which has spread to other large cities in the country. Those present were so inspired by the recital of what St. Mary's Mission House had undertaken and accomplished among the poor and unfortunate that they felt it would be a helpful thing to St. Mary's Mission in North Bend, to have a part in the work and Sister Janet agreed to let the ladies of the guild know what they could work for, especially in the way of making clothes, for poor children.

After a pleasant afternoon spent in sewing, the meeting adjourned to partake of refreshments, which the hostess, Mrs. Robert E. Browning served, with the assistance of Mrs. E. Lothard McClure and Miss Florence Flanagan.

Those present at the meeting were: Mesdames: C. M. Byler, John Lennan, E. A. Morton, George Everett, Archie Phillips, Mrs. Layton, Mrs. W. Ladd, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Layton, Jr., Mrs. Charles Metlin, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. E. Lothard McClure, Florence Flanagan, Mrs. Robt. Browning. The next meeting of the Guild will be held Thursday week at the home of Mrs. Parr, in North Bend.

COTILLION CLUB

The social given last Wednesday evening by the Cotillion Club was attended by an unusually large number of guests and members and all report a fine time.

The club meets at Dr. Motts, Thursday evening, March 18 for a social meeting, also to talk over the big launch ride to be held, Sunday, March 21, given as a welcome to Miss Kate Martin, who recently arrived here from California. The members of the club all hope that Miss Martin will enjoy her first visit to Coos Bay and also hope that it will not be her last.

The latest member to join was James Cavers, the only accordian player in North Bend.

About the middle of April, the club will have its first entertainment. So far, the following members of the club have volunteered their services:

NOR. LUTH. Y. L. A.

Last Thursday evening, the members and friends of the Norwegian Lutheran Young Ladies' Aid enjoyed a pleasant time with Miss Maule Mathison in Bunker Hill. Following the social session, appetizing dainties were served the guests who included: Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. P. Jacobson, Mrs. Bergland, the Misses: Elsie Larsen, Jennie Johnson, Signa Stamos, Hannah Sunne, Sennie Ratsland, Ruby Carlson, Cora and Alice Mathison and the Messrs: H. Peterson, P. Thorpe, Jelmar Ratsland and Bert Iverson. In two weeks Miss Sennie Ratsland will entertain the society.

RAINBOW CLUB

On Thursday was held the first meeting of the Rainbow Club in their new Club House on South Coos River. Through the generosity of the members, the Club House is now being furnished throughout with everything which might contribute to the comfort of the members. Hitherto the Club has always met at the home of the hostess for the day, but on this occasion they were entertained by a committee of four: Mrs. Clinkenbeard, Mrs. Dungan, Mrs. Dexter, and Mrs. Rogers.

Interesting addresses were given by Mrs. McCann, of North Bend, and Mrs. Mary R. Smith of Marshfield, tracing the development of the social-organization-idea on Coos River from its origin, forty-eight years ago, when the people came in row boats and met at the church to discuss civic questions after the service was over, up to the present time, when they have a civic club with its own club house.

This was the first meeting held under the supervision of the recently elected officers, and being also the first meeting in the club house, it was an occasion of more than ordinary interest. It is now felt that they are well prepared to proceed with their program of social and civic improvement of the community.

The meeting was attended by the following members: Mrs. T. T. Smith, Mrs. Frank Rogers, Mrs. H. E. Bessey, Mrs. J. A. Goodwill, Mrs. C. H. Dunstan, Mrs. E. R. Hodson, Mrs. M. Justrum, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Morgan, Mrs. W. L. Wirth, Mrs. Lorenzo Cutlip, Miss Ada Clinkenbeard, Mrs. E. L. Dexter, Mrs. Wm. Richards, Mrs. S. B. Cutlip, Mrs. E. Don McCrary, Mrs. David Bunch, Mrs. Robert Robertson, Mrs. Eva E. Colwell, Mrs. R. M. King, Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, and the following visitors: Mrs. J. Bodell, Mrs. Rowney, Mrs. A. F. Coffelt, Mrs. Mary R. Smith, Mrs. Geo. Mullen, Mrs. E. A. McDuffee, Mrs. Robert McCann, Mrs. H. H. Luce.

The next meeting will be at the club house on the twenty-fifth when the members will be entertained by the hostess-committee consisting of: Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. M. Justrum, Mrs. D. Saunders, and Mrs. R. Robertson.

B. Y. P. U. TO MEET

The B. Y. P. U. will hold its regular business and social session next Friday evening with Mrs. A. Z. Downs.

LITTLE FOLKS BIRTHDAY PARTIES

Miss Evelyn Fourier entertained the Loyal League and a few additional friends in honor of her birthday Thursday afternoon at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fourier.

St. Patrick colors of woodland greens furnished the dining room decorations while shaded green candles and appropriate place cards adorned the table in the center of which a large cake with 13 candles. Various games were played at which Francis Lyons and Mildred Ingram were the winners. Before leaving, the Loyal League presented the hostesses with a beautiful League spoon. The invited guests were: Mrs. C. H. Walters and the Misses: Clara Ferguson, Helen Rees, Maxine Jones, Irene Fourier, Wilma Houtland, Margaret Fourier, Stella Magnus, Francis Lyons, Elsie Thomas and Mildred Ingram.

Yesterday afternoon from 2.30 to 5.30 Little Miss June McLaughlin entertained a host of friends in honor of her seventh birthday and was the recipient of numerous very pretty and useful birthday gifts.

A special feature of the afternoon was the candy baby hunt in which Alice Holmes was declared the winner.

The refreshments as well as parlor decorations were of pink and white and the little hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Thelma Black and Maybelle McLaughlin to the following guests: the Misses: Emma Hansen, Lois Black, Lois Bassford, Evelyn Conklin, Alice Holmes, Alice Manzey, Glenda Abbot, Virginia Daigle, Stella, Daigle, Francis and Phyllis Hall, and Masters: Dale Manzey, Henry Hansen, Charles Vasey, Wm. Dashney, Everett Harrington and Gerald McLaughlin.

At the appointed time, Miss June's friends left for their homes all wishing her many happy returns.

FRIDAY CLUB

The ladies of the North Bend Friday Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Kruse who had as special guests Mrs. Frank Muscus and Miss Laura Kruse. The members out were Mrs. H. O'Mara, Mrs. H. J. Linden and Mrs. J. B. Bartie. Dainty refreshments were served after a few hours of sewing, social chat and music. On account of the death of Mrs. Mandigo's mother the St. Patrick party which was to be given March 16th with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mandigo has been postponed indefinitely.

The club will meet again on Friday evening March 26 with Mr. and Mrs. H. O'Mara.

AFTERNOON OF SEWING

Yesterday afternoon a number of neighbors called on Mrs. D. D. Ross and offered their services in sewing on carpet rags. The time was spent profitably and pleasantly and at the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Ross assisted by her daughter, Miss Carrie Ross, served appetizing refreshments to Mrs. J. C. Doane, Mrs. Nears, Mrs. Walter Hill, Mrs. Volkman, Mrs. J. Nagle, Mrs. C. R. Flanagan, Mrs. J. T. Byers, Mrs. Driscoll, Mrs. McManaman, Mrs. H. E. Reanier and Mrs. Storm.

A. N. W. CLUB

Mrs. F. E. Hague was a pleasing hostess last Thursday afternoon to the ladies of the A. N. W. Club who with the special guests Mrs. H. Reed and Miss Maud Reed spent the time in fancy work and social chat.

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Hague to the following: Mrs. G. A. Bennett, Mrs. Carl Everston, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, Mrs. E. Mingsus, Mrs. Geo. Murch, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Hugo Quist and Mrs. Charles Stauff.

NEW GOODS AND LOWER PRICES

In time of war we are preparing for peace. During the past week The Golden Rule has received seventy-six large cases of new goods, aggregating more than twenty-one tons boat measure. It is doubtful if there is another dry goods store in Coos County that will receive as many goods in twelve months.

Prices Reduced on Many Lines

These goods were bought in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and St. Louis, and were bought right. This fact, in connection with the low price of cotton, has made it possible for us to reduce our prices on many lines.
