BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Last Monday, March 8th, was a day of surprises at School District No. 56, on Catching Inlet. When the teacher Mrs. Preuss, arrived in the morning, she was presented by each of her flock with a bouquet of daffodils and wild lilacs. On entering the school she beheld her abode of had been transformed by some kind fairies into a bower of acacia and daffodils. Her next surprise was when corporal punishment was administered by each of her young hopefuls, and before the counting was over she realized that it was her birthday. Things at last settled into the usual routine and would have ended as the usual day does, had not another surprise been in store. At two o'clock a bevy of good housewives arrived, and after listening for some time to the future "George" and "Martians" they produced well filled lunch baskets and one's imagination needs wide range to picture the delicious picnic lunch and the social time enjoyed by the ladies and children, and, last, but far from being least the teacher herself. She said that one didn't mind being a year older when it occasioned her being the recipient of such kindness from her friends and well wishers. The pupils in school are Gladys Mattson, Ben Stone, Alice Franson, Ferdinand Lackstrom, Elvira Lackstrom, Justina Hepperman. The following ladies were present: Mrs. J. Carlson, Mrs. J. Colver, Mrs. Strang, Mrs. Wm Lackstrom, Mrs. Hepperman, Mrs. Carl Smedburg and son John, Mrs. Harvey Russell and baby Alberta, Mrs. Arthur Mattson and baby Evelyn.

BAND TO BRING QUARTETTE HERE

CALIFORNIA JUBILEE NEGRO SINGERS HERE MARCH 22 AND 23 UNDER AUSPICES OF COOS BAY CONCERT BAND.

The management of the Coos Bay Concert Band has just booked the California Jubilee Singers, a quartet of noted colored entertainers, to appear at the Graham Theater, Monday and Tuesday night, March 22 and 23. The Band is to be highly commended in bringing to the people of Coos Bay such a high-class entertainment, and, as they have decided to make the prices so that everyone can afford to attend, Marshfield should fill the theater at each performance.

This all-star quartet sings to packed houses everywhere, and their best recommendation is the number of return engagements they fill year after year. There is nothing of the minstrel flavor in their performances, yet their programs teem with songs that are simply grouch removers and care banishers. You will find the kind of music you like on the program. Plantation melodies, jubilee songs, sacred numbers, popular airs and classical selections. Probably the biggest feature of this popular quartet is Mr. Payne's double voiced singing and his female impersonation of the celebrated "Black Patti." But they are all so well liked by the public that it is hardly fair to the others to single out any one member being the best.

To show our appreciation of the efforts of our efficient and popular Concert Band, we can do no less than to give this entertainment our heartiest approval and most liberal patronage.

DON'T FORGET. St. Patrick's dance in Eagles Hall Wednesday, March 17.
