TORIC LENS OUR BEST

The Optometrist Is The Eye-Strain Specialist

A person suffering from eye-strain, who at the same time is enjoying the best of health, is often at a loss to know whom he should consult. He does not feel that he needs a physician, but he knows that he needs relief.

Much, or nearly all, of the suffering due to eye-strain can be relieved if one so afflicted would consult an Optometrist who is now being rapidly recognized by the world as the exclusive eye strain specialist.

After an illness of six months I am again back at my profession and would appreciate seeing many of the friends whom I met during my connection with the Red Cross Optical Department. I am now located in Room 10 over the Lando Dry Goods Store.
