Bay Park's Development An Eye Opener

An ounce of actual showing's worth a pound of mere advice. We'd just like every one in town to see what's been going on in Bay Park the past year.

Parts of the addition that were "in the woods" a year ago are blossoming with gardens, and built up with homes, and there's work and improvement going right ahead up there every day.

Get acquainted with your own town, and while everybody is talking hard times, refresh yourself with a little trip to Bay Park, to see what's being done by those who work instead of worrying. That's where the chances for good investment lie—always.

Bay Park lots $100.00 and up, $10.00 down, balance $5.00 a month. Easy.

"Where Motion Pictures Look Better
Tonight and Sunday Matinee.
WOLFE, or the CONQUEST OF QUEBEC

In five reels. A critic who reviews the best pictures in the world has the following to say of our "Wolfe" picture tonight: "I sat enthralled by the spectacle. Once again two great nations fought on land and water. Once again the daring souls of Wolfe and Montcalm were embodied on the bloody field of battle. Once again the fight raged about the gentle and beautiful falls of Montmorenci—at times the realism was overpowering." It was produced at the authentic locations.
TERRIBLE LESSON.

sically able to make the trip. The deceased will be buried in San Francisco, his old home. Between 10 and 11 the business houses were closed in respect to the man who has been identified with the business of the city for the past 19 years.

Counterfeiters Guilty.—A telegram was received from Chief of Police Carter in Portland stating that in the trial of yesterday that J. S. Stevens and Robert Baker had been found guilty of counterfeiting. Z. G. Harsh-man, he said, will plead guilty when his trial comes on the docket. The conviction of Baker is some what of a surprise here as there seemed very little evidence against him at the time he was taken north. The men were caught here February 14, the officers taking a sack of unfinished coin as a Valentine gift. W. A. Glover, secret service operator of Portland aided in the arrest.
