

ATTEND THIS National Celebration of Advertised Goods

"THE OWL" offers you nationally advertised goods made by the country's biggest and most reputable manufacturers who sign their names to every package or article because they are proud of the quality and excellence of the goods they offer you. And such goods are guaranteed to give you satisfaction. If anything should go wrong the manufacturer and we will make good.

WHEN A DEALER

tells you another article is "just the same" or "just as good," as what you have asked for, remember that's "shop talk" and means greater profit for him, but loss to you, if you buy the inferior article.

During this week "THE OWL" has for free distribution samples, booklets, souvenirs, etc., of Nationally Advertised Products. Ask for yours.

BORN

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Nell Barnes, at their home on South Coos River, March 20, 1915, a daughter. Both mother and daughter are doing well.

LILLEBO—To Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lillebo, in North Bend, March 22, 1915, a 12 3-4 pound boy.

HORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horn at their home in Old North Bend, a 9 1-4 son, their 11th child.

Bean Club.—The Bean Club had another successful meeting last Saturday evening at the apartment of Howard S. Dunning in the Williams building.

Award Advertising Bid.—The Advertising Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has awarded the printing of the backs of 200,000 small circulars to Irwin-Hodson Co. of Portland for $513.70. The pictures have already been chosen for the half tones.

Furnish Entertainment.—Mrs. Watkins has promised to furnish entertainment tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist Ladies' Silver Tea in the Church parlors. There will be a talk on "Spiritual Housekeeping" and a boating song, a medley of popular airs.

May Start Paper.—R. E. Knorr, formerly pharmacist at the Red Cross Drug Store, and now proprietor of a drug store at Gold Beach, is planning on starting a weekly paper at the new town of Brookings. He will retain his interests at Gold Beach.

Gift to Library.—Mrs. Morton Tower of Empire has given to the Marshfield public library 165 volumes containing the official records of the civil war. The work of hauling them to Marshfield was done free of charge by H. B. Ingersoll, of Empire, with his wagon and team.

Blast Breaks Down Door.—A blast set off on a vacant lot on Tenth street in Sengstacken Addition on Saturday blew rocks and dirt into the air, sending part of them as far as the home of James C. Jones, at least 100 feet away where a door was broken open. No other damage was done and a new door was put in yesterday.

Adopt By-Laws.—There was a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary in the Chamber of Commerce Saturday afternoon when the new by-laws of the organization were adopted. There was a large attendance and several projects for the beautification of the city were talked over and will come up at a future meeting.

Pony Kills Itself.—Mrs. Bessie Peterson lost a beautiful and valuable pony last week when the little animal got into a sack of wheat and ate so much that he died. Whether death resulted from gorging itself or shock when it discovered that it had eaten nearly the value of itself in high-priced wheat is not known.

Bond Raised.—R. O. Graves, one of the attorneys in the Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Russell case at Myrtle Point, states that when he left the county seat on Saturday afternoon the papers were then ready for signing for the $5,000 bond of Mrs. Russell. The raising of $2,000 over the original amount is taken to indicate that L. A. Lilleqvist has found additional evidence for the state. She waived her hearing, though Clarence Russell has not.

Big Crowds Continue.—In a letter received by Hugh McLain from J. A. Ward at the Exposition yesterday, the writer states that the big crowds continue daily on the grounds averaging between 55,000 and 75,000 every day. He is busy now reproducing a bit of outdoor scenery near the Oregon building which will be a replica of the Oregon coast with the marine life. He asks that advertising literature be sent, the visitors there showing a great interest in Coos Bay and, in fact, in all the Oregon country.

Change Boat Schedules.—Agent Tom James of the Arrow Line announces that there is a temporary change in the boat schedules of the line and that for the present the freight service to Portland will be discontinued and the Yellowstone will make the trip in here from San Francisco three times a month, leaving the South on the 10th, 20th and 30th of each month. This means that Coos Bay is not being visited by the Daisy Putman, Daisy Gadsby, Daisy Paraiso and the Alvarado. It is believed the Yellowstone will be able to take the lumber output of the Swayne & Hoyt North Bend mill for the present.

Winners Oratorical Contest.—Miss Ethel Josephson, a junior, with the subject, "The Governor's Last Levy" last evening won the oratorical contest for the girls in the high school auditorium and Ludwig Stone, Sophomore, with "A Plea for Cuba" won for the boys. This was the final contest after each class held a tryout to select candidates. The two winners will meet North Bend on April 1. The other representatives in the contest last evening were, for the Freshmen, Ruby Carlson, Helen Rees and Jesse Franz, for the Sophomores, May Church, Zoe Doan, Ludwig Stone and Harvey Walters. Though a Sophomore Miss Ruth Cowan was classed with the Juniors because of being in an advanced English class. For the Juniors there were Ethel Josephson, Ray Davis and Tom Watters and for the Seniors Marjorie Graham.

Contest For Timber.—Literally upon the voracity of the leaders in the two sides does the suit of E. A. Pierson and wife against W. B. Meyers, of the Estabrook Company seem to hinge. Before Judge Coke the it was finished today at noon and attorneys for both sides will now submit briefs. Pierson claimed that he bought 120 acres of wooded land from a man named Ott, now in the east, who told him the sale also included the timber. Meyers claimed that he had owned the land in the first place, had sold it last March to Dr. W. P. Granby reserving the timber in a separate instrument and that the sale then to Ott could have been for nothing else than the land and not for the timber. S. D. Pulford appeared as a witness for Pierson, whose case was fought by Claud Giles while Peck and Peck and J. O. Stemmler represented the defendant.

Clothes for the Business Man has been our specialty—it is a point we keep in mind at all times, to have ALWAYS in stock suits to fit EVERYBODY. We don't buy clothes simply because we think they will look attractive when draped over a form in the show window.

We know that the heavy-set, well developed man must be fitted as well as the tall, slim man. Therefore, in purchasing our stocks, we included the very clothes we think should be suited to your individual proportions.

When a business man sends a dollar on an errand, he expects that dollar to bring back a full hundred cents' worth. It's just what any man expects and what every man is sure to get who wears a suit with the name of ADLER-ROCHESTER in it.
