

Special Notice

Marshfield Office to be Permanent Here

New Marvels of Dentistry

The PORTLAND PAINLESS DENTISTS have been located on Coos Bay since February 1, having two offices, one in North Bend and one in Marshfield.

We can do your dental work here for the same prices that you could get it done if you were in Portland or any other large city. You have been paying big prices for dental work on the Bay because it was too far to go to get it at the right prices.

We Will Do Your Work At Prices You Can Afford To Pay

TWO THINGS KEEP YOU AWAY FROM THE DENTIST. They are FEAR OF PRICES and FEAR OF PAIN. Don't suffer with the tooth ache and go around with a mouthful of decayed teeth on this account.

We will give you the most courteous treatment and not charge too much for your work. Come in and have your teeth examined FREE OF CHARGE and see what you need

For the next thirty days to introduce our system of dentistry to the people of Coos Bay we will make a special offer. On any work that amounts to $25.00 or over we will pay your railroad or boat fare to Marshfield or North Bend.

We will put in any kind of a crown or bridge tooth at $5.00 per tooth. Our charge for fillings of any kind is very reasonable.

We will make good plates from $10 to $15 per set. Don't delay in having your teeth taken care of as sometimes it is very dangerous.

BORN

HOLCOMB—To Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Holcomb in North Bend, a baby girl. Mother and child are doing well and the proud father is prouder than the president of a railway over his first born. Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb will return to their home in Ten Mile in a few weeks.

DINDINGER—To Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Dindinger, at their home in south Marshfield, March 29, a great big 11 pound young lady, their first child. Both mother and daughter and the father are getting along very nicely.

Many Years Ago.—In its issue of March 24, 1890, the Oregonian printed the following: "Mudflat property on Coos Bay now brings $300 per acre."

Special Meetings.—A week of prayer is being observed this week at the First Baptist Church, lead by Pastor Bassford, with special reference to Passion week.

Chamber to Meet.—The meeting of the Chamber of Commerce set for Friday evening bids fair to bring forth several new road projects to be later presented to the county commissioners for their inspection

Remain in East.—R. K. Booth, who was summoned East by the fatal illness of his father, will be detained for some time by the death of his parent and may make his home there as his father left extensive interests.

Spouters Contest Tomorrow.—In North Bend, tomorrow evening the oratorical contest of the county will be held in the high school auditorium. There will be present at least two representatives from each high school to try for the honors. Orations have been limited to 1,200 words.

Has Hard Trip.—Mrs. Natalie Archambeau, of Vancouver, Wash., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pennock, arrived last evening from the north being called here by the illness of her mother. Mrs. Archambeau had a hard trip. Knowing nothing of the Mapleton route she came in by way of Drain on the stage. A heavy storm made traveling quite difficult.

Had Seen Submarine F-1.—Until a few days ago there was a young man in the city named Sherron who stated that he had seen the ill fated U. S. submarine F-1 and at one time had been aboard a ship that aided in towing her to Honolulu where she took her last trip a few days ago and failed to return to the surface. Sherron did not state whether he had been in the navy. He left out on Saturday for Portland.

What's in a Name?—Twenty-five years ago Gold Beach, Curry County, was known as Ellensburg. The Oregonian of March 24, 1890, tells of the change in the following item: "The citizens of Ellensburg, Curry County, are anxious to have the name of their town changed to Gold Beach and have forwarded a petition to Congressman Herman asking that he bring about the change."

General Fund Swells.—Thomas Christensen has a hot spot in his heart somewhere. Last night he got drunk, very drunk, and the police put him inside to cool of his ardor, he this morning—ah this morning—he appeared bright and smiling and "pungled" over a shining five to Judge Butler for his indiscretion. Again the Judge smiled and grinned: an awful lot. This makes $35 that has been collected by the city in fines the last week. "Fine," was all the Judge could say, he was so grateful.

Elder Sails South.—At six o'clock last evening the George W. Elder left down for Eureka carrying 18 passengers. She is expected back on Thursday in time to leave for Portland at 10 a. m. Those who left yesterday were: Athelene Grandy, Mrs. C. H. Grandy, Miss C. H. Grandy, J. C. Smith, H. F. Hart, Jr., C. H. Carpenter, Evelyn Kelley, Clara Kelley, Mrs. Eleanor Kelley and baby Henry Hallgren, D. I. McGee, Fred Gerkin, L. Kelled, C. H. Grandy, A. C. Grandy, W. Foley and Emil Granish.

Answers Appeal.—Hoy and Miller have prepared an answer to an appeal now in the Supreme Court taken there in the case of W. H. Minor and Charles Warden of the Menasha Wooden Ware Company who ask that the administrators sale of the property of the Fletcher estate be held valid. A decision of Judge Cole in December determined the sale to be void. The case was fought by the Fletcher heirs and J. W. Motley. The land involved is said to contain 10,000,000 feet of timber near Blue Ridge.

Recovers Valuable Keepsake.—The extent to which The Times want columns are used as a clearing house for lost and found articles and a medium of exchange for the people of Coos Bay was proved again yesterday. Mrs. M. S. Sullivan lost a beautiful and valuable brooch on Sunday. Monday she inserted a lost adv. in The Times and ordered it to run for three days. Before the paper was issued A. Welch, who found the pin, brought it to The Times office in search of the owner. That's why Times want adv. pay. When anyone on Coos Bay finds or loses anything or wants anything from a job to a house and let they think of The Times as the medium to supply their wants. Mrs. Sullivan was overjoyed to recover her brooch which she valued highly because it was a keepsake. The Times want adv. bring home the bacon and other things.

Tickets for EASTERN MONDAY BALL to be given, by CATHOLIC LADIES, are now on sale at "The Owl" Pharmacy, Busy Corner and Winkler's.

Don't forget there is one taxi in town. Phone 20.

Looks for Husband.—A letter has been received by C. I. Reigard from a Mrs. Roy Perkins in the East, who asks information of her husband. At one time, she says, she heard he was drowned, at another that he had secured a divorce. She wants authentic information.

Cream, Butter Increases.—Boatmen from the inlets and rivers say that in the last two weeks there has been a great falling off in the passengers carried, due to the fact that all farmers are now busy with their spring work, but to make up for this loss, they say shipments of butter, milk and cream have increased considerably. All sorts of shipping business, say the boatmen, is on the up-grade, and much better than it has been for months.
